JOHN SMOLTZ

2005 ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD RECIPIENT

Presented annually, the Roberto Clemente Award honors the Major League Baseball player who combines outstanding play on the field with devoted work in the community. Major League Baseball has presented this Award annually since 1971. In 1973, the Award was named in honor of Clemente, who died on December 31, 1972 during a humanitarian mission to assist earthquake victims in Nicaragua. Smoltz's off-field efforts include the Atlanta Community Food Bank, the Kings Ridge Christian School, the Atlanta Braves Baseball Academy and the John Smoltz Baseball Camp.

The Braves are honoring their 40th anniversary in Atlanta with a season-long celebration in 2006.

From Hank Aaron to Paul Zuvella, Ted Abernathy to Steve Ziem, the Braves' storied history has included many memorable moments.

Individually, Atlanta players have received six Cy Young awards and four Most Valuable Player honors. They have earned six ERA titles and three batting crowns, authored three no-hitters and one four-homer game, and hit for the cycle on one occasion.

As they embark on their 41st season in Georgia, the Braves look back at the highs and lows of the first 40.

An amazing resurgence followed eight last-place finishes, including two 100-loss campaigns, as the Braves won a World Championship, five National League pennants and 16 division crowns, including 14 in a row . . .

Terence F. McGuirk

Chairman and President

Terence F. McGuirk is vice chairman of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.) and, since November 2003, chairman and president of the Atlanta Braves. In this capacity, he maintains executive oversight of all aspects of the company's Major League Baseball franchise, including player personnel, team operations and Turner Field.

McGuirk joined TBS, Inc. in 1972 as an account executive with WTCG, later TBS Superstation. In 1973, he assumed the same role at TBS-owned WRET in Charlotte, N.C. McGuirk returned to Atlanta in 1975 as director of cable relations, where he was instrumental in the launch of TBS Superstation. Since then, he has played a key role in the launch of every Turner network.

In 1978, McGuirk was named director of special projects for TBS, Inc. and in 1979 was appointed vice president of TBS, Inc. From 1987 to 1991, he served as president of Turner Network Sales and CNN International Sales, Ltd., where he set up the company's international sales operation. He was elected to the TBS, Inc. board of directors in July 1987. Concurrently, McGuirk was president of Turner Sports where, during his tenure, he was instrumental in securing coverage of the Olympics for cable television for the first time and oversaw the resurgence of the winningest team in Major League Baseball, the Atlanta Braves. As executive vice president, McGuirk served as the company's second in command from 1991 to 1996. When TBS, Inc. merged with Time Warner Inc. in 1996, he succeeded R.E. Turner as chairman, president and CEO. He served as chairman and chief executive officer of the company until March 2001. From that point through December 2003, McGuirk was chief executive officer of the company-owned Atlanta sports teams-the Major League Baseball Braves, the National Basketball Association Hawks and the National Hockey League Thrashers.

McGuirk has served on the board of many cable industry related groups and the International Olympic Committee's Radio and Television Commission. He was the 1989 recipient of the NCTA Vanguard Award for Young Leadership and was inducted into the fellowship of Cable Television Pioneers at the 1996 NCTA Convention.

A native of Bayshore, N.Y., McGuirk is a graduate of Portsmouth Abbey School and holds a bachelor of arts degree in American history from Middlebury College. He sits on the boards of trustees of The Westminster Schools and Piedmont Healthcare and the boards of directors of Haverty's, Inc., Scientific-Atlanta and the Sea Island Company. McGuirk is the 2000 recipient of the Anti-Defamation League's Stewart Lewengrub Torch of Liberty Award.

Terry and his wife, Nancy, live in Atlanta and have four children.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman Emeritus • Chairman of the Executive Committee

Bill Bartholomay, named Chairman Emeritus and Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Atlanta Braves in November 2003, was previously Chairman of the Board of Directors of the team since its move to Atlanta in 1966. He has witnessed the Braves win 16 division championships (including a record-setting 14 in a row), five National League pennants and one World Series. The Braves won their first division title in 1969, repeated in 1982, won National League pennants in 1991 and 1992, another NL West crown in 1993, a World Championship in 1995, another pennant in 1996 and divisional titles in 1997 and 1998. The team won its fifth National League pennant in 1999 and division titles in each year since 2000.

Bartholomay has been involved with the team as a director or owner for 41 years. In 1962, he became Chairman of the Milwaukee Braves and led the group in moving the club to Atlanta in 1966. In 2002, Bartholomay was inducted into the Hall of Fame at Turner Field. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director and shareholder of the Chicago White Sox.

Major League Baseball has recognized Bartholomay's expertise in several areas. He is Chairman of Major League Baseball's Equal Opportunity and Ownership committees. He also serves as a member of the Major League Baseball Executive Council, a member of the MLB Finance and Legislative committees and as a trustee of Major League Baseball Player's Benefit Plan.

In January 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" award, which is presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He is Vice Chairman of Willis Group Holdings (NYSE); Director of Midway Games; and Director Emeritus of WMS Industries, Inc. He has also served as a Commissioner of the Chicago Public Building Commission and past President of the Chicago Park District. He is a Director or Trustee of many other civic and business organizations and educational institutions throughout the country.

Philip I. Kent

Chairman/CEO Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. • Atlanta Braves Board of Directors

Philip I. Kent is chairman and chief executive officer of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. Named to his post in February 2003, his responsibilities include corporate oversight of the TBS, Inc. domestic and international entertainment, animation and news networks and businesses, including TBS, TNT, Turner Classic Movies and Turner South; Cartoon Network, Adult Swim and Boomerang; GameTap; and the CNN News Group, which includes CNN/U.S., CNN Headline News, CNN International and CNN.com. Kent has overall responsibility for all news and entertainment advertising and distribution, both domestically and internationally, as well as for all corporate administrative functions, Turner Sports, the Atlanta Braves and Turner Field.

August 2000 to August 2001, Kent served as president and chief operating officer of CNN News Group, where he oversaw a strategic reorganization of the news division. Also during his CNN tenure, Kent initiated a radical redesign of CNN Headline News and the site selection, construction and implementation of a new Manhattan street-side broadcast studio, and was instrumental in high-profile hires including Lou Dobbs and Paula Zahn.

Kent's career at TBS, Inc. includes broad international experience as president of Turner Broadcasting System International, the division charged with overseeing Turner's wide-ranging business activity in Asia, Europe and Latin America, including all sales, distribution, business development, joint partnerships and business alliances outside of the United States. At the helm of TBSI, Kent led a regionalization strategy that introduced local-language versions of CNN and the Turner entertainment networks around the globe, further strengthening the company's position in critical international markets.

Earlier, Kent was president of Turner Home Entertainment, the former TBS, Inc. division comprised of the company's home video, new media, licensing & merchandising, feature distribution and book publishing operations. Kent joined Turner in March 1993, after spending six years with Creative Artists Agency (CAA) as a packaging agent in that company's television department. In 1981, he was one of a two-person team that launched Blair Entertainment, the television syndication division of John Blair & Co., where he began his career in 1975.

Kent earned a Bachelor of Arts degree at Lehigh University. He serves on the boards of directors of the Ad Council, the National Cable and Telecommunications Association, the Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, Central Atlanta Progress and the Atlanta Braves; on the board of trustees of the Woodruff Arts Center; and on the Dean's executive board of UCLA's School of Theatre, Film & Television.

Turner Broadcasting System, Inc., a Time Warner company, is a major producer of news and entertainment product around the world and the leading provider of programming for the basic cable industry.

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice President

Since his retirement from professional baseball, Henry Aaron has given back to society for more than 20 years. His Chasing the Dream Foundation was established to help children between the ages of nine and 12 realize their dreams as he realized his. The foundation gives grants to children to enable them to pursue advanced study in music, art, writing, dance and sports.

Aaron received the first Jackie Robinson Lifetime Achievement Legacy Award from the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum, honoring his "career excellence in the face of adversity" in February 2003.

At his 65th birthday celebration in Atlanta on February 5, 1999, Aaron was honored for his lifetime achievements both as a player and as a humanitarian. President Bill Clinton, the Commissioner of Baseball, Bud Selig, and Sammy Sosa were among those in attendance as Major League Baseball recognized Aaron's talents with the introduction of the Hank Aaron Award. The award is presented annually to honor the best hitters in the National and American leagues and was unveiled at the 1999 World Series.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83.

Since December of 1989, he has served as Senior Vice President.

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, Lifetime, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration.

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award.

He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972.

During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves.

Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three home run game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959.

Aaron, a vice president and member of the Board of Directors of Turner Broadcasting and the Braves, is also the Vice President for Business Development for the Airport Channel. He serves on the National Board of the NAACP and the Sterling Committee of Morehouse College.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci. Aaron was born in Mobile, Alabama, on February 5, 1934.

Note: Aaron's complete playing record appears with his retired number bio in the history section.

John Schuerholz

Executive Vice President & General Manager

John Schuerholz, who in 2005 completed his 24th year as a General Manager and his 15th season as the Braves' Executive Vice President and General Manager, has the longest tenure with the same organization among all current major league GMs. Coming to the Braves from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, Schuerholz's time with Atlanta is about four years longer than that of the Minnesota Twins' Terry Ryan (September, 1994) and the St. Louis Cardinals' Walt Jocketty (October, 1994). Schuerholz's contract runs through the 2007 season.

Under his leadership, the Braves have achieved unprecedented success. With the best record in baseball (1,431-931, .606) over the past 15 seasons, the Braves extended their own professional sports record by winning their 14th consecutive division title in 2005. Atlanta's overall success in 2005 helped the Braves earn the prestigious Organization of the Year award from Baseball America.

The Braves have won five NL pennants, one World Series, several organization of the year awards and have surpassed the 3,000,000 mark in attendance six times in the past 15 seasons. By finishing 101-61 in 2003, the Braves reached the century mark in victories for the fifth time in seven seasons and for the sixth time since 1993.

During his career with Baltimore, Kansas City and Atlanta, Schuerholz has been associated with three World Champions (1966, 1985 and 1995), eight pennant winners and 20 division crowns. In honor of his nearly 40 years of success at the major league level, Baseball America named him the recipient of the prestigious Lifetime Achievement Award in 2004.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Braves and Schuerholz. The Negro Leagues Baseball Museum recognized John as the National League Executive of the Year with its Andrew "Rube" Foster Award in 2001, 2002 and 2005. The Braves 400 Club bestowed its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" to Schuerholz in February 2000. Baseball America honored the Braves as the most outstanding major league franchise of the past two decades with its 20th Anniversary Award of Excellence in December 2001.

As a result of the Braves' 1991 worst-to-first performance, Schuerholz was named the Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writers Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend Magazine.

When the Braves won the 1995 World Series, Schuerholz achieved a unique distinction – he became the first executive to be General Manager of world championship teams in both the American and National leagues. Since he was appointed General Manager of the Kansas City Royals in 1981, his teams have more wins (2,185) than those of any active GM in the major leagues.

Winningest Teams Since 1991

Since John Schuerholz's arrival from the Kansas City Royals in October of 1990, the Braves have won more games than any other team in Major League Baseball.

During Schuerholz's time with Kansas City, the Royals won one World Championship (1985), two American League pennants (1980 and 1985) and six division crowns (1976, 1977, 1978, 1980, 1984 and 1985). Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz as the Major League Executive of the Year in 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

Schuerholz has proven to be a man of action ever since joining the Braves. An average of about 10 new faces appear on the club's Opening Day roster each year, reflecting offseason transactions and the maturing of farm system products. Almost without exception during the season, Schuerholz has annually acquired at least one player who has contributed greatly to the Braves' successful run. John Smoltz, in fact, is the only current Braves player who has been around for all 14 division titles.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz left a job as a junior high school teacher to join the Orioles in 1966. He moved to Kansas City two years later, and as an administrative assistant, was involved in the expansion draft that created the first ever Royals roster. He was named Assistant Farm Director in 1970 and became Farm Director in 1975. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President-Player Personnel in 1979. The Royals named Schuerholz Executive Vice President and General Manager in October of 1981, when he was 41.

Born October 1, 1940, Schuerholz is a graduate of Towson (MD) University, where he played soccer and baseball. He was an all-conference choice in baseball and was named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1973 and currently serves on the school's Board of Visitors. Towson's baseball facility is named John Schuerholz Park.

Schuerholz authored his first book, "Built to Win: Inside Stories and Leadership Strategies from Baseball's Winningest GM," which was released in the spring of 2006.

Schuerholz serves on the board and is active with Camp Sunshine, a summer camp for children with cancer, and YES! Atlanta, a program for disadvantaged youth. He and his wife Karen have a daughter, Gina, and a son, Jonathan, who is a minor league player in the Braves organization.

R.E. Turner

Board of Directors

R.E. Turner is the founder of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.) and serves on the board of directors of its parent company, Time Warner Inc., and the Atlanta Braves.

Throughout his career, Turner has received recognition for his entrepreneurial acumen, sharp business skills, leadership qualities, and his unprecedented philanthropy.

Over the past four decades, Turner stepped into the international spotlight with one accomplishment after another. Whether in billboard advertisement, cable television, sports team ownership, sailing, environmental initiatives or philanthropy - Turner's vision, determination, generosity and forthrightness have consistently given the world reason to take notice.

Currently, Turner is chairman of the Turner Foundation, which supports efforts for improving air and water quality, developing a sustainable energy future to protect our climate, safeguarding environmental health, maintaining wildlife habitat protection, and developing practices and policies to curb population growth rates; co-chairman of the Nuclear Threat Initiative, which works to close the growing and increasingly dangerous gap between the threat from nuclear, chemical and biological weapons, and the global response; chairman of the United Nations Foundation, which promotes a more peaceful, prosperous and just world; and a partner in the successful Ted's Montana Grill restaurant chain, which to date, operates 40 locations nationwide.

Turner is also chairman of Turner Enterprises, Inc., which manages his private landholdings in an economically sustainable and ecologically sensitive manner while promoting the conservation of native species. Turner owns more than two million acres of land in the U.S. and Argentina.

Rubye M. Lucas

Board of Directors

Rubye Mims Lucas is a member of the board of directors of the Atlanta Braves and serves in a consulting role on community and internal development matters relating to the franchise. From 1996 until her retirement in 2001, Lucas was vice president of community relations for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS, Inc.). As such, she served as the company's primary community liaison, overseeing the development and implementation of community relations and employee volunteer initiatives. From 1991 to 1996, Lucas was the company's executive-on-loan for The Atlanta Project, a resident-directed community initiative of former President Jimmy Carter and The Carter Center. In this position, Lucas directed Turner Broadcasting's participation as a corporate partner to the Douglass Cluster, a southwest Atlanta community. Prior to joining TBS, Inc., Lucas served as a public school teacher in Florida and Atlanta public school systems for more than 25 years.

From 1981 through 1995, Lucas was a member of the board of directors for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. From 1990 to 1991, Lucas served as human resources administrator for management training. She is a former member of the Atlanta School Board, appointed by Gov. Zell Miller to serve an interim term.

Lucas is president of the board of directors of the Bill Lucas Foundation, which honors her late husband, William D. Lucas, the general manager of the Atlanta Braves from 1976 until his death in 1979. The Foundation provides college scholarships to high school students who excel in academics and varsity baseball, as well as provides funds for metro Atlanta community service projects. She is also a member of the board of directors for Florida A & M's Foundation.

Frank Wren

Vice President/Assistant General Manager - Player Personnel

Frank Wren is in his sixth season as Vice President/Assistant General Manager. Named to the position on October 13, 1999, Wren assists Executive Vice President/General Manager John Schuerholz in all aspects of the club's baseball operations at the major league level.

Wren, 47, was the Baltimore Orioles' General Manager in 1999 after serving as the Florida Marlins' Vice President/Assistant General Manager from 1991 through 1998. He began his front office career as the General Manager of the Jamestown Expos of the New York-Penn League in 1985. He then became Montreal's Assistant Scouting Director and, in 1989, was appointed the team's Director of Latin American Scouting and Operations. Under his direction, the Expos built a new Latin baseball academy in the Dominican Republic. This academy was responsible for much of the talent that led to the Expos' success in the 1990's. The Expos' farm system was twice honored as Baseball America's "Organization of the Year" during Wren's tenure.

Wren began his professional baseball career as a center fielder in Montreal's minor league system in 1977 and reached the Double-A level before retiring in 1982. He coached in the Expos' system from 1981 to 1984.

Wren serves on the board of the Black Rock Foundation, a benevolent organization in Fayette County, Georgia, and on the board of Landmark Christian Schools. He, his wife Terri and their three sons, twins Kyle and Colby (14) and Jordan (11), live in Peachtree City.

Dayton Moore

Assistant General Manager/Baseball Operations

Dayton Moore has been a member of the Braves organization since 1994. In August 2005, Moore was promoted to the position of Assistant General Manager/Baseball Operations after serving three years as Director of Player Personnel.

Moore, 39, is responsible for overseeing all aspects of scouting and player development. He originally joined the staff as an area scouting supervisor for the Mid-Atlantic states and was promoted to the front office in August 1996 as an assistant in the Baseball Operations Department. He was named Assistant Director of Scouting in November of 1996. In 1999, Moore worked as the Assistant Director of Scouting and Assistant Director of Player Development. He was promoted to Director of International Scouting during the 2000 baseball season and earned a promotion as Director of Player Personnel in 2002.

Prior to coming on board with the Braves, Moore served as an assistant baseball coach at George Mason University from 1990 to 1994. While working on a graduate degree, Moore managed the Winchester Royals of the Shenandoah Valley League from 1991 to 1993.

A native of Wichita, Kansas, Moore graduated from George Mason University in 1989 with a degree in Physical Education and Health. Three years later he earned his master's degree in Athletic Administration from GMU. Moore and his wife Marianne, reside in Duluth, GA, with their two daughters, Ashley and Avery, and son Robert.

Mike Plant

Executive Vice President/Business Operations

Mike Plant was named the Braves' Executive Vice President of Business Operations in November 2003. His responsibilities include overseeing stadium operations, security, finance, merchandise, personnel, special events and the operations of the minor league clubs.

Since joining the Braves, Plant has implemented numerous improvements at Turner Field including the installation of the largest high-definition display in the world, the wrap-around LED display boards, Tooner Field, Skip and Pete's BBQ and the redesign of the 755 Club, the Lexus Level and the Lexus Level suites. He also enhanced Turner Field parking and traffic patterns.

Plant joined the Braves after having served as an executive vice president of Turner Sports since February of 2002. In that position he was in charge of the day-to-day operations of the division, a $500-million acquisition, promotion and production company that broadcast approximately 1,200 hours of sports programming on various Turner networks.

Before becoming executive vice president of Turner Sports, Plant was president of Goodwill Games and vice president of events for Turner Sports. He was responsible for the overall direction and management of the Goodwill Games, as well as all sports properties acquired by Turner Sports.

Prior to joining Turner Sports, Plant was president of Medalist Sports, a full-service sports marketing company he founded in 1988. Medalist Sports created and operated premier cycling events, such as the Tour DuPont, Tour of China and the 1996 Olympic Trials. In addition, Plant was the associate executive director of the U.S. Cycling Federation in Colorado Springs, Colo., from 1986-88 and the executive director of the Canoe and Kayak Team from 1985-86.

Plant was a member of the 1980 U.S Olympic Speed Skating team in Lake Placid, N.Y., and a six-time member of the U.S. World Championship speed skating teams. Since 1980, he has been appointed to numerous committees for the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC), the U.S. International Speed skating Association and USA Cycling. In January 1989, after having served two four-year terms as the U.S. speed skating athlete representative on the USOC's Athlete's Advisory Council, he was elected to a four-year term as chairman. Plant served on the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games (ACOG) Board of Directors and the Board of Trustees for the Salt Lake City Olympic Bid Committee for the 2002 Winter Games.

Currently, Plant serves on the USOC Board of Directors. He served an eight-year term on the USOC's Board of Directors and executive committee (1984-92) and as chairman of the Athlete Performance Group (1992-96). Some of the other USOC committees he has worked on include the Olympic Broadcast Properties Board, the Finance Committee, Athlete Insurance Committee, Junior Olympic Committee, Games Preparation Committee, the President's Task Force on Central Funding, the Nominating Committee for USOC Officers and the Executive Director Search Committee.

Plant was the president of USA Cycling, the National Governing Body for Olympic cycling from 1995 to 2002.

He and his wife Mary have two daughters, Erika and Maddie, and a son, Drew.

Derek Schiller

Senior Vice President/Sales and Marketing

As senior vice president of sales and marketing, Derek Schiller is responsible for the management for all baseball-related revenues such as ticket sales, corporate sales, broadcasting, licensing and merchandising, community relations and the overall marketing strategy for the franchise.

He joined the Braves in November 2003, and, under his leadership, the team has redefined its sports marketing and promotional campaigns, actively grown the Braves community outreach and signed one of the most significant team radio deals in sports with over 140 affiliates. With an increased emphasis on improving the overall fan experience through enhanced game entertainment, promotions, and guest services, Schiller has also made Braves' season-ticket holders a business priority. He has helped manage the Braves television relationships and created the first Major League Baseball team-dedicated television channel, Bravesvision, with Comcast.

Schiller came to the Braves after having served as vice president of sales and marketing for the Atlanta Thrashers hockey team since 1998. In that position, he engineered highly successful marketing and advertising campaigns, which resulted in the Thrashers setting an NHL expansion attendance record of 705,389 fans for the 1999-2000 season. In addition, he was a driving force behind the team's community efforts and was responsible for the establishment of the Atlanta Thrashers Foundation, a nonprofit, grant-making public charity that assists charitable, educational and public service organizations.

He also was instrumental in negotiating the team's first television contracts with Turner South and UPN69 and he oversaw the Thrashers Radio Network, which grew to include nearly 24 affiliates throughout Georgia, Alabama and South Carolina.

Before joining the Thrashers, Schiller served as vice president of business development for the New York Yankees from 1996-97. While there, he was responsible for all revenue-producing and related functions, including sponsorship sales, marketing, ticket and suite sales, publications, concessions and merchandising, fan services and licensing.

Prior to joining the Yankees, Schiller was the executive director of Atlanta's International Sports Plaza (ISP). He developed the first-ever private press center serving non-accredited press organizations during the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games and managed the hospitality venue during the Games in partnership with several Olympic sponsors.

Schiller earned a bachelor's degree in engineering from Vanderbilt University in 1992. He and his wife Kristin and their two children reside in Atlanta.

Greg Hughes

Senior Vice President PR/Communications

Greg Hughes is senior vice president of public relations and communications for the Braves, which includes oversight of the team's publicity and media relations, as well as publications. He also serves as senior vice president of sports public relations for Turner Entertainment Group. In this capacity, he oversees publicity for Turner Sports and its executives, including Turner Sports President David Levy and announcers. Hughes works closely with Mark Lazarus, president of Turner Entertainment Group, on issues bridging the TEG networks and sports businesses. Hughes is based in Atlanta and reports to Shirley Powell, senior vice president of corporate communications for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.

In his position at Turner Sports, Hughes oversees public relations efforts for the programming lineup for the company's NBA, NASCAR, Major League Baseball, professional golf and college football programs. In addition, he oversees publicity for Major League Baseball's Atlanta Braves and Turner Sports Interactive, which includes NASCAR.com and PGA.com. Among the Turner Sports announcers Hughes works with are NBA legends Charles Barkley and Magic Johnson, Emmy-winning host Ernie Johnson, Marv Albert and baseball announcers Skip Caray, Don Sutton, Pete Van Wieren, Joe Simpson and Chip Caray.

Hughes has been responsible for the publicity of TNT's wrap-around programming for 10 Super Bowls, three Winter Olympics, four Summer Goodwill Games, the 2001 Winter Goodwill Games, three Wimbledon Championships and the British Open Championship. He has also handled publicity for Turner's coverage of 12 PGA Championships, 12 PGA Grand Slams and WUSA soccer, as well as for CNN Sports Illustrated (1996-2002) and World Championship Wrestling.

Hughes joined Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS) in August 1987 as a CNN tour guide and served as tour supervisor from January 1988 - October 1988. Hughes was promoted to TBS corporate communications coordinator in October 1988, where he scheduled executive media interviews and handled special projects and internal communications.

In July 1990, he moved to Turner Sports Public Relations, where he coordinated TBS Superstation's media relations for the 1990 Goodwill Games and the launch of the regional sports network SportSouth. Hughes was promoted to manager in July 1991, and to senior manager in March 1992. In March 1994, he was promoted to director and then named vice president in March 1996 and senior vice president in 1999.

Hughes graduated from the University of Wisconsin, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism. In April 1997, Hughes received the Ralph O. Nafziger Achievement Award, honoring an alumnus for outstanding professional achievement within 10 years of graduation.

Hughes is also active in the Atlanta community where he has served as a board member on the Bobby Dodd Committee at Georgia Tech as well as being a regular guest lecturer at Emory University School of Business. He is a member of the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame Honor Court.

He lives in Atlanta with his two children, Sarah (14) and Daniel (11).

Chip Moore

Vice President/Controller

Chip Moore is in his 10th season as a Braves' Vice President and Controller and his 29th season with the organization overall.

Moore has moved up through the organization during his tenure. He began as an usher at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium before working nine seasons as a member of the Braves grounds crew. In 1985, he joined the Braves Accounting Department and rose to Assistant Controller in 1988 and eventually to the role of Controller in 1992. In his present capacity as Vice President and Controller for the Braves, Moore manages the accounting and finance functions.

The 44-year old Moore graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1985 with a degree in Business Administration majoring in Accounting. Moore serves on the Board of Directors and as Treasurer for the Atlanta Braves Foundation. He is also on the Board of Directors and serves as Vice President of the South Atlantic League of Professional Baseball. Moore currently serves as a member of Major League Baseball's Non-Uniformed Personnel Pension Committee.

Moore and his wife Anne reside in Powder Springs. They have one daughter, Jordan, and one son, Will.

John Cooper

Vice President/Team Counsel

John Cooper, vice president and team counsel, has represented the organization as legal counsel since 1997. John also currently serves as Associate General Counsel for Turner Sports, handling Turner's sports rights licensing (e.g., NBA, NASCAR, NASCAR.Com, British Open) and talent negotiations (e.g. Doug Collins, Charles Barkley), as well as Turner Entertainment Group, representing Turner's non-animation entertainment networks such as TNT, TBS, Turner Classic Movies and Turner South.

Cooper joined Turner in 1997 as legal counsel to Turner Sports, Goodwill Games, World Championship Wrestling, the Braves and the Atlanta Hawks. In February 2000, he was promoted to Team Counsel of all three Turner-owned sports teams - the Braves, Hawks and Atlanta Thrashers and their venues, Turner Field and Philips Arena, managing all business and player operations legal work, and Assistant General Counsel to Turner Sports and Turner Sports Interactive. Prior to joining Turner, Cooper practiced corporate law at Troutman Sanders in Atlanta.

Cooper received his undergraduate degree in industrial management from Purdue University in 1989 and his law degree from Indiana University-Bloomington in 1992. He and his wife Jennifer have three daughters, Emily, Mimi and Sarah Jane.

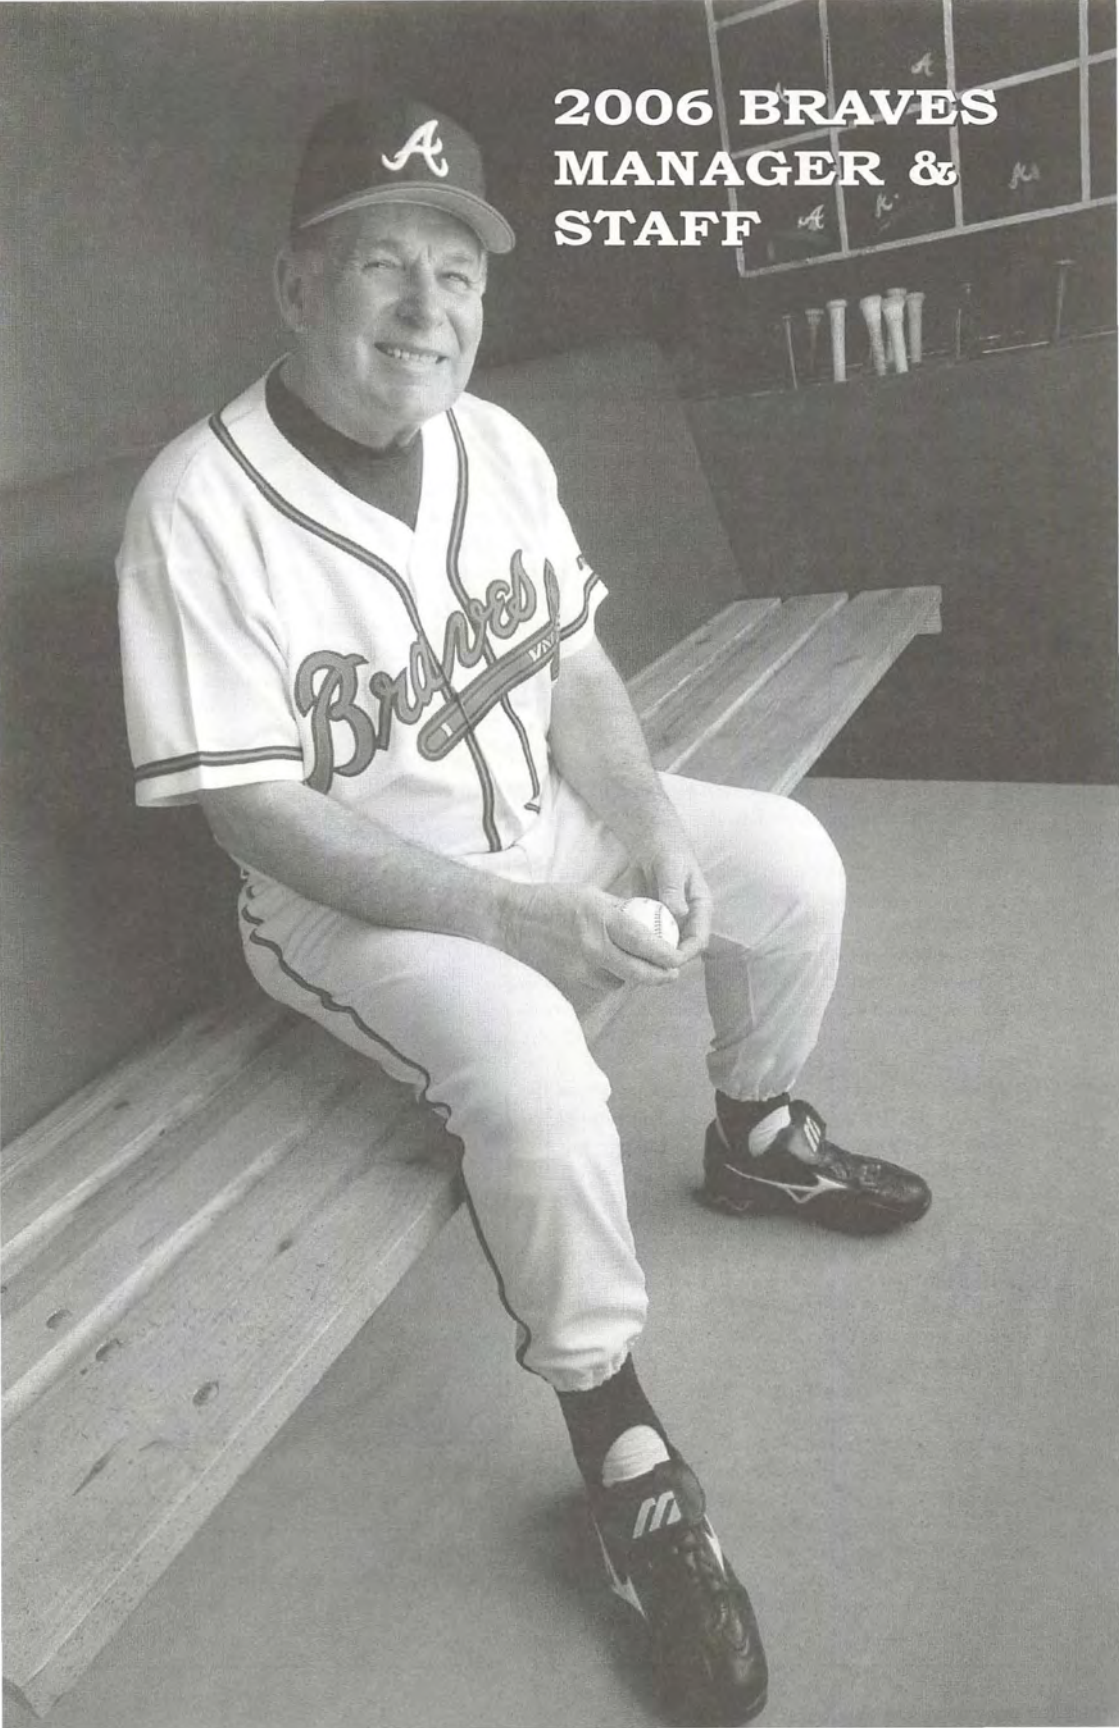
2006 BRAVES MANAGER & STAFF



BOBBY COX

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 185
BORN: 5/21/41 in Tulsa, Oklahoma
RESIDES: Marietta, Georgia
SEASONS AS BRAVES MANAGER: 21 (1978-81; 1990-present)
BBWAA MANAGER OF YEAR: 1985, 1991, 2004, 2005
SPORTING NEWS MANAGER OF YEAR: 1985, 1991, 1993, 1999, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005

MANAGER 6

In a season that many observers considered the finest of his long and storied career, Bobby Cox led the injury-riddled Braves to their 14th consecutive division title in 2005. Despite extended injuries to such stars as Chipper Jones and Johnny Estrada, as well as lengthy absences by three-fifths of the starting rotation (Mike Hampton, Tim Hudson and John Thomson), Cox again worked his magic, utililizing the services of 18 different rookies, 12 of whom made their Major League debut. The Braves' 2005 first-place finish was the 15th in a row for Cox in seasons in which he managed from the outset, including his final year in Toronto in 1985.

The 2005 campaign was Cox's 14th with 90 or more wins, placing him third all-time in 90-win seasons behind Hall of Famer skippers John McGraw (16) and Joe McCarthy (15). Cox became the first manager to be voted the Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America in consecutive seasons (his third NL honor and fourth overall), and was also named Manager of the Year by Sporting News, Baseball America and Sports Weekly. The Sporting News, in a poll of his peers, honored Cox as the NL's top skipper for the fourth straight season, marking the seventh time he received the honor with the Braves and the eighth time overall. No other manager has won the Sporting News award more than three times since the magazine started the balloting in 1936.

Cox's 2,092 wins rank seventh all-time and include a franchise-best 1,737 victories with the Braves and 355 with the Toronto Blue Jays. Cox owns a career record of 2,092-1,603 and his .566 career winning percentage ranks third all-time. The Braves have won more games (1,431) in the past 15 seasons than any other team in baseball. Cox's 14 division crowns have led to five pennants (1991, 1992, 1995, 1996 and 1999) and one World Championship (1995).

In 2004, Cox was voted the NL Manager of the Year by the BBWAA, as well as Sporting News, Baseball America and Sports Weekly. Despite the offseason departures of such players as Gary Sheffield, Javy Lopez, Vinny Castilla and Greg Maddux, and prolonged injuries to such stars as Horacio Ramirez and Marcus Giles, Cox proved the prognosticators wrong and led the club to a 96-66 record, winning the NL East by 10 games. On September 29, 2004, in the season's final home game, Cox earned his 2,000th career victory with a 6-4 decision over the New York Mets. He became just the ninth skipper in big-league history to reach that lofty milestone.

*Hall of Famer

The Sporting News named Cox the NL manager of the year in 2003 as he moved past Casey Stengel into ninth place on the all-time managerial win list. He joined the Yankees' Joe McCarthy as the only managers in major league history to guide their teams to 100 or more wins in a season six times. The Braves, with their 101-61 record, utilized a record-setting offense and quality pitching, finishing 10 games ahead of the Florida Marlins in the NL East. With the Braves' 101st win on the last day of the 2003 season, a 5-2 victory at Philadelphia, Cox reached 1,906 career victories, one more than Stengel.

Cox earned the Sporting News award for the fifth time in 2002, when the Braves won their 12th consecutive division title despite a mostly unheralded bullpen and injuries to key personnel.

Cox brought the city of Atlanta its first major professional sports world championship in 1995 when the Braves defeated the Cleveland Indians, four games to two, in the World Series. The victory also marked the first time a franchise had won a World Series in three different cities.

In 1993, the Braves won a then franchise-record 104 games and became the first National League West team to win three straight division titles. The Braves' 400 Club honored Cox with its Mr. Baseball Award that season.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst-to-first and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several postseason honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox managed the Braves from 1978 to '81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting a habitual last-place team to within one game of attaining a World Series berth in 1985.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by going 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named Major League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers of America, the Associated Press, as well as the Sporting News.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which set the foundation for the team's recent success. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox spent five years in the Dodgers' farm system before being selected by the Chicago Cubs in the November 1964 Minor League Draft. He was acquired by the Braves in a 1966 trade that sent outfielder Billy Cowan to the Cubs. After playing for Triple-A Richmond in 1967, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team in 1968, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire as a player at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class-A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. He served as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977.

Cox was born May 21, 1941, in Tulsa, OK. He graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta. He has five other children: Debbie, Bobby Jr., Connie, Shelly and Randy.

PAT CORRALES

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 220
BORN: 3/20/41 in Los Angeles, California
RESIDES: Big Canoe, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 18th

BENCH COACH 39

Now in his 48th season in professional baseball, Pat Corrales is working his eighth season as the Braves' bench coach in 2006. Corrales previously spent nine years Atlanta's first base coach, after joining the team as an advance and special assignments scout in September of 1989. He was named to the Braves' coaching staff on June 25, 1990, two days after Bobby Cox took over as manager.

In his nine years as a major league manager, Corrales compiled an overall record of 572-634 (.474) with Texas, Philadelphia and Cleveland. His first job as a big league pilot came with the Rangers in 1978, when he replaced Billy Hunter with one game remaining in the season. Corrales went on to guide the Rangers to third and fourth place finishes in 1979 and 1980, respectively.

He was named manager of the Phillies in 1982, leading them to a second-place finish; he was replaced in 1983 just after the All-Star break, despite leading the NL East with a 43-42 mark. Less than two weeks later, Corrales found himself back in the dugout as the skipper of the Indians, becoming only the fourth manager in major league history to manage in both the American and National leagues in the same season.

He remained with the Tribe until midway through the 1987 campaign. In 1986, he led the Indians to an 84-78 record (their most wins since 1968) and finished 11-1/2 games out of first place (their closest finish since 1959). That club became only the 10th team in major league history to lose 100 games one year and finish .500 or better the next, and he was recognized for his work by placing fourth in the AL Manager of the Year balloting by the BBWAA.

Corrales, who has been selected as an All-Star coach seven times in his career, managed at Alexandria of the Texas League in 1975, before joining the Rangers for three seasons as a coach under Frank Lucchesi. He played in the majors for eight seasons as a catcher for the Phillies, Cards, Reds and Padres.

Corrales participated in clinics conducted by Major League Baseball International and NIKE in November of 1994 in Mexico.

Pat, his wife Donna, and a son, Patrick, live in Big Canoe. Pat has four other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason.

BOBBY DEWS

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 180
BORN: 3/23/39 in Alinton, Iowa
RESIDES: Edison, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 12th

BULLPEN COACH 53

Bobby Dews, a member of the Braves organization as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975, joined Atlanta's staff for the third time when he was named third base coach in December of 1996. The 2006 season is his eighth straight as the Braves' bullpen coach.

Dews worked in Atlanta under Bobby Cox as a bullpen coach in 1979 and as third base coach in 1980-81 and as first base coach under manager Eddie Haas and as third base coach for Bobby Wine in 1985.

Prior to rejoining the major league staff in December of 1996, Dews had served as the Braves' minor league field coordinator since 1991, and, as such, was responsible for supervising instruction throughout the farm system. Chipper Jones is a current Brave who spent some of those years as Braves' minor leaguer.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as Atlanta's Director of Player Development in December of 1989, after having been the Assistant Director of Player Development for two years. Dews was a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class-A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The Double-A Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager of the Year honors. An infielder in the Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970, he actually began his managerial career in 1969 at Lewiston.

Dews, a native of Clinton, Iowa, graduated from Edison (GA) High School and attended Georgia Tech, where he was a standout basketball and baseball player. He earned a degree in English from West Georgia College in 1968. An accomplished writer, Dews had a novel, Largo, published in 1986 and his book Legends, Demons and Dreams was published in 2004. Bobby and his wife, Glenda, live in Edison, GA. They have one daughter, Dana.

FREDI GONZALEZ

HEIGHT: 5-11 WEIGHT: 200
BORN: 1/28/64 in Havana, Cuba
RESIDES: Marietta, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 4th

THIRD BASE COACH 45

Fredi Gonzalez is in his fourth season as the Braves' third base coach after spending 2002 as manager of their Triple-A Richmond affiliate.

Gonzalez, 42, was the Florida Marlins' third base coach from 1999 through 2001. Before joining the Marlins' major league club, he managed in the minor leagues for nine years, earning league manager of the year honors from Baseball America three times: in 1993 when High Desert finished 82-52 in the regular season and won the Class-A California League championship; in 1994, when Brevard County went 78-61 in the Class-A Florida State League; and in 1997, when he guided Portland (ME) to a 79-63 record and first place in the AA Eastern League.

Gonzalez began his managerial career in 1990, taking over the unaffiliated Miami Miracle of the Florida State League with 20 games to play. He continued with the Miracle in 1991 before becoming the first minor league manager in Marlins franchise history in 1992, leading Erie to the New York-Penn League championship series. After spending 1993 with High Desert, he managed Brevard County from 1994 through 1996, and then moved up to Portland in 1997 and Charlotte of the AAA International League in 1998.

Selected by the New York Yankees in the 16th round of the 1982 June draft, Gonzalez spent six seasons as a catcher in the Yankees farm system.

Gonzalez, his wife Pamela, daughter Gabrielle and son Alex Christopher reside in Marietta, GA.

GLENN HUBBARD

HEIGHT: 5-7 WEIGHT: 170
BORN: 9/25/57 at Hahn AFB, Germany
RESIDES: Stone Mountain, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 8th

FIRST BASE COACH 17

A former Braves' player (1978-87), Glenn Hubbard is in his eighth season as the club's first base coach in 2006. Prior to joining the major league staff in 1999, Hubbard spent the previous nine years coaching with the Braves' minor league affiliates: Bradenton (1990), Macon (1991-92, 1994 and 1998) and Richmond (1993, 1995-97).

Hubbard wore a Braves uniform for 10 of his 12 major league seasons. In 1981 he set a then Atlanta Braves' record for second basemen with a .991 fielding percentage. His most successful year was in 1983, when he hit .263 and set career highs with 12 home runs and 70 RBI and was also named to the NL All-Star team. Hubbard led all NL second basemen in double plays in 1982, 1985 and 1987. He ended his playing career with the 1988 pennant-winning and the 1989 World Champion Oakland A's.

Hubbard, the Braves' 20th round selection in the 1975 June draft, was signed by Bill Wight. Hubbard began his career with Atlanta in 1978 when he was promoted after being named Rookie of the Year in Richmond. In only his second major league game, he participated in a triple play against Philadelphia on July 15, 1978. He hit his first major league home run on September 23, 1978, off Cincinnati's Manny Sarmiento. On April 14, 1985, he tied a major league record for assists in a game by a second baseman when he had 12 vs. the Padres. Hubbard holds the record with seven other second basemen.

In 1998 with Macon, Glenn was named as a coach on the South Atlantic League's postseason All-Star team.

Born in Hahn AFB in Germany, Hubbard graduated from Lomand High School in Ogden, Utah. A four-sport athlete, participating in basketball, wrestling, football and baseball, he was inducted into the Utah Athletic Hall of Fame in November 2001.

One of his prize pupils has been Marcus Giles, who hit .316 in an All-Star season in 2003, when he led the major leagues with a .342 road batting average, set a modern-day franchise record with 49 doubles. Giles also improved immeasurably as a fielder, leading the National League in assists by a second baseman with 471.

Glenn and his wife, Lynn, reside in Stone Mountain, GA. They have three sons: Jeremy, Matthew and Daniel.

ROGER McDOWELL

HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 195
BORN: 12/21/60 in Cincinnati, Ohio
RESIDES: Palm Springs, California
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 1st

PITCHING COACH 51

Roger McDowell is in his first season with the Braves and his first campaign as a big-league pitching coach. He spent the previous two seasons as the pitching coach for the Los Angeles Dodgers' Triple-A franchise, the Las Vegas 51s, and was the pitching coach for the Class-A South Georgia Waves in 2002-03.

McDowell was one of the game's premier relievers during a 12-year career that spanned the 1985-96 seasons with the Mets, Phillies, Dodgers, Rangers and Orioles. He was a third-round draft pick of the Mets in 1982 and pitched in 723 games in his Major League career, posting a 70-70 record with 159 saves and a 3.30 ERA. In 1986, he was a member of the Mets' World Championship team and posted a 14-9 record with 22 saves in 75 games out of the bullpen.

McDowell graduated from Cincinnati's Colerain High school in 1979 and played for Bowling Green State University. He was inducted into BGSU's athletic Hall of Fame in 1988. He has made television appearances on Seinfeld, America's Funniest People and MTV.

McDowell and his wife Gloria reside in Palm Springs, Calif., with their daughters Amanda and Rachel. Roger also has a son, Logan.

TERRY PENDLETON

HEIGHT: 5-9 WEIGHT: 200
BORN: 7/16/60 in Los Angeles, California
RESIDES: Duluth, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 5th

HITTING COACH 9

Terry Pendleton is in his fifth season as the Braves' hitting coach. Named to the Braves staff in November 2001, this is Terry's first major league coaching position. He enjoyed a 15-year major league playing career and was selected the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1991 and was an All-Star third baseman in 1992 while playing for the Braves.

In 2005, Pendleton was instrumental in outfielder Andruw Jones' MVP-caliber season, as Jones adopted a new batting stance and established a Braves franchise record with 51 home runs. Pendleton also worked closely with a string of rookies who made huge contributions throughout the season. The 2005 Braves became the first team in history to reach the postseason with six rookies who had 100 or more at-bats (the previous record was four rookies by the 1983 Los Angeles Dodgers and the 1989 Chicago Cubs).

Signed as a free agent in December of 1990 by Executive Vice President and General Manager John Schuerholz, Pendleton played for the Braves from 1991 through 1994 and in part of 1996. He was a key factor in the Braves' turn-around from being the worst team in the major leagues in 1990 to a pennant-winning club the next year, as he batted an NL-best .319 with 22 home runs and 86 RBI. He tied for the league lead with 303 total bases, helping him earn Comeback Player of the Year honors, as well as the MVP award.

He was voted an All-Star starter in 1992, hitting .296 with 13 home runs and 51 RBI before the break and finishing the year with a .311 average, 21 homers and a career-high 105 RBI to lead the Braves to another pennant. He led the NL with a .387 average with runners in scoring position and had a career-best 199 hits, a franchise record for third basemen.

A switch-hitter, Pendleton batted .287 with 71 home runs and 322 RBI in 593 games for Atlanta and .270 with 140 homers and 946 RBI in 1,893 games overall with the St. Louis Cardinals, Braves, Florida Marlins, Cincinnati Reds and Kansas City Royals. He was a three-time recipient of the Rawlings Gold Glove Award (in 1987 and 1989 with St. Louis and in 1992 with Atlanta).

Originally selected by the Cardinals in the seventh round of the 1982 June draft, Pendleton, after his first four seasons with the Braves, signed with the Marlins as a free agent in April of 1995. Florida traded him back to Atlanta in exchange for outfielder Roosevelt Brown in August of 1996. Pendleton was signed as a free agent by the Reds in January of 1997 and the Royals in January of 1998. He retired as a player the next December.

In his second season as Braves' hitting coach in 2003, the team established franchise bests in home runs (225), hits (1,608), doubles (321) and slugging percentage (.475) and had the highest team batting average in Atlanta history. Several individual players enjoyed career seasons as well, and much of the credit for those accomplishments went to Terry Pendleton.

Terry and his wife, Catherine, and their three children, Stephanie, Terry and Trinity live in Duluth, GA.

FRANK FULTZ

HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 180
BORN: 11/15/51 in Chicago, Illinois
RESIDES: Alpharetta, Georgia
SEASONS ON BRAVES COACHING STAFF: 15th

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH 59

Frank Fultz has served as the Braves' strength and conditioning coach since 1992, the second year of the team's remarkable run of division titles. He pulled double duty in 1998, when he also served as minor league fitness coordinator.

Fultz's professional career began in 1986 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach with the Houston Astros, while at the same time serving as associate head baseball coach at the University of Houston. He spent 1988 through 1991 as a strength and conditioning coach in the Pittsburgh Pirates' minor league system.

Prior to moving to Houston, Fultz was the head baseball coach at Texas Wesleyan College, which won the NAIA District II championship from 1979 through 1985 and the regional title in 1980-81. He began his amateur career as the pitching coach at Triton College in River Grove, Illinois, in 1976-77, before serving in the same capacity at George Mason University in 1978.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in educational psychology from Texas Wesleyan in 1973, Fultz earned his master's in physical education/exercise physiology from Utah State in 1974. He received a doctorate in health science from the University of Utah in 1976.

Fultz resides in Alpharetta, GA, with his two children, daughter Natalie and son Warren.

Davies' 2005 Season Recap

- Rookie made 14 starts and 21 appearances for the Braves.
- Was one of five Braves rookies in 2005 who hailed from the Atlanta area.
- His first-inning ERA as a starter was 7.71 (12 ER/14 IP). His ERA the rest of his innings as a starter was 3.82 (30 ER/70.2 IP).
- Atlanta went 7-7 in Kyle's 14 starts.
- Was Richmond's opening day starter vs. BUF on 4/8 (ND in 5-4 W).
- Posted a 5-2 overall record in three stints at Triple-A. Over his final five starts at Richmond (AAA), he was 3-1 with a 1.50 ERA (5 ER/30.0 IP).
- Had a fine April, going 2-0 with a 1.67 ERA in five starts.
- Was recalled from Richmond (AAA) on 5/21 and made his Major League debut that night with a 7-5 win at Boston. Kyle tossed 5.0 shutout innings, allowing four hits and three walks while fanning six batters. His first career strikeout victim was David Ortiz (called) in the first inning. Boston's 2-6 hitters (E. Renteria, D. Ortiz, M. Ramirez, T. Nixon and J. Varitek) went a combined 1-for-12 off Kyle.
- Became the first Braves pitcher to win his ML debut as a starter since David Nied in 1992 at New York.
- Became the first Braves rookie starting pitcher to record wins in each of his first two career starts since Armando Reynoso 8/11-16/91.
- Began his career with 14.0 IP scoreless innings pitched - the most by a Braves rookie starting pitcher to open his career since Larry McWilliams (14.1 IP) in 1978.
- Went 5.1 scoreless innings vs. NYM on 5/25, pitching on three days' rest. Allowed five hits while fanning six in a 3-0 Atlanta shutout.
- Suffered first career loss on 5/30 at WSH in a 3-2 Nationals win.
- Pitched a career-high 7.2 innings, but got a ND in a 1-0 win at PIT on 6/4. Kyle allowed six hits and four walks, but worked out of several jams before making his exit with two outs in the eighth inning. Collected his first career hit with a third-inning single to center off Mark Redman.

- On 6/10 vs. OAK, he and battery-mate Brian McCann became the youngest pitcher-catcher duo to start a game in the majors since New York's Dwight Gooden (19) and John Gibbons (21) on 8/19/84 vs. MON.
- Was roughed up at TEX on 6/15, when he went a season-low 2.1 innings, allowing a six runs on eight hits and four walks in a 9-5 Rangers win. Five of the six Ranger runs came in the first inning.
- Notched his fourth win with a 4-0 tally against Chicago on 7/4. Kyle pitched 6.2 innings and allowed four hits and four walks.
- Suffered a 9-6 loss to Ben Sheets and the Brewers on 7/9. Allowed four runs on five hits in 5.0 IP.
- Was recalled from Richmond on 7/30 and posted his fifth win against PIT, 9-6. Allowed three first-inning runs, but retired 16 of his final 18 batters he faced. Fanned a career-high eight batters in 6.0 IP.
- Made three starts and 10 appearances after his 7/20 recall from Richmond.
- Suffered the loss in his last start, 9/28 vs. COL, allowing five runs (two earned) in 5.2 IP.

Devine's 2005 Season Recap

- Was the Braves top selection (27th overall) in the 2005 draft out of North Carolina State and became the first Brave since Bob Horner in 1978 to reach the majors the same season he was drafted.
- Became just the fourth player in the last 15 years to reach the majors before Sept. 1 in the same year he was drafted (A. Prieto, 1995-OAK; C. Cordero, 2003-MON; R. Wagner, 2003-CIN).
- Began his pro career at Myrtle Beach (A), where he was 0-0 with a save in four games over five innings.
- Made his first appearance with Mississippi (AA) on 7/4. At the time of his promotion to Atlanta, he was 1-1 with five saves, a 2.70 ERA (18 games/20.0 IP), 12 walks and 28 strikeouts.
- Made his Major League debut in the 13th inning vs. SD on 8/20, allowing a grand slam to Xavier Nady.
- According the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the first pitcher in major league history to allow a grand slam in each of his first two career games (also did it 8/22 to CHI's Jeromy Burnitz in the fourth inning).
- Threw a scoreless inning and got his first career strikeout (R. Shealy) in the ninth inning vs. COL on 9/27.

2005 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Hit a batter and threw a scoreless 0.1 IP in Game 1...Allowed a run on two hits and a walk in the seventh inning of Game 3...In Game 4, he threw a scoreless 17th inning with two strikeouts before allowing Chris Burke's series-ending homer in the bottom of the 18th inning.

Hampton's 2005 Season Recap

- Despite getting off to a great start to the 2005 campaign, Mike struggled through an injury-plagued year that included five trips to the DL and missing a total of 118 team games.
- Hit a home run (#15 career) on 5/8 vs. HOU. His 15 career homers lead all active pitchers.
- Allowed just one run in six innings of work in his 2005 debut on 4/6 at FLA, but went without the decision in the Braves' 13-inning, 2-1 win. Mike had an infield single and two sacrifice bunts.
- Earned his first win of the season with a dominating game vs. WSH on 4/11. Went 8.0 innings and allowed just one run (solo homer by Jose Guillen) on seven hits and no walks. He also had two hits of his own - his 26th career multi-hit game.
- Pitched 8.0 shutout innings at PHI on 4/17, but did not earn a decision, as the Braves lost 2-1 in 10 innings. He allowed only three hits and two walks and only one runner reached second base (Michaels - double in 7th inning). Mike had a potential game-winning two-out double of his own in the eighth inning, but Johnny Estrada was thrown out at home plate to end the inning.
- Went 8.2 IP on 4/22 vs. PHI, allowing just two runs on seven hits in a 6-2 win. It was his longest outing since 5/18/04 when he went 9.0 innings and took the loss in Randy Johnson's perfect game in Atlanta.
- On 5/8 vs. HOU, he threw his first CG since 5/18/04 and his first shutout since 5/9/01. The two hits allowed mark the fewest in a complete game in Mike's career.
- Left his 5/14 start at LA in the third inning with a strained left forearm. Was placed on the 15-day DL on 5/21 (retroactive to 5/15). Prior to leaving the game, he pitched 2.1 scoreless.
- Returned from the DL on 5/31 at WSH and pitched 4.0 scoreless innings before leaving the game. Was officially placed back on the DL on 6/5 (retroactive to 6/1).
- Returned from the DL on 7/17 at NYM and lasted just 2.0 innings, allowing five runs on seven hits (1 HR) and throwing 58 pitches. The 8-1 loss was the 100th of his career and his season ERA jumped 68 points, from 1.83 to 2.51.

- Made his first start since 7/17, and only his second since 5/31, when he was activated from the DL on 8/14 after making two injury rehabilitation starts. Went five innings and allowed three runs (one in the first inning, two in the second) in a 13-8 Braves win. It was just the fourth time in his career that he pitched at least five innings and had no strikeouts (272 career 5+ inning games).
- Had an August setback due to a strained lower back. Missed his start at ARI on 7/23 and was placed on the DL on 7/27 (retroactive to 7/18). Was later found to have a herniated disk in his back.
- Had season-ending "Tommy John" surgery on 9/26 in New York. The 1-1/2 hour procedure was performed by Dr. Dave Altchek, who on 9/14 had confirmed the earlier diagnosis of the Braves medical staff - that the source of Hampton's forearm pain was coming from his elbow.

Hudson's Career Recap

- With a 106-48 lifetime mark, Tim ranks sixth all-time in career winning percentage (.688) among pitchers with at least 150 decisions and second among active pitchers (Pedro Martinez is 197-84, .701).
- Owns an 87-4 record in the 112 career starts in which he has received run support of four or more.
- Has gone 7.0 or more innings in 125 of his 212 career starts (60%). Is 83-13 with a 1.92 ERA (205 ER/962.2 IP) in games in which he pitches seven or more innings (and his team's record is 102-23).
- Is 53-19 with a 3.08 ERA (260 ER in 758.2 IP) in 108 career starts at home. His .736 home winning pct. is the second-best all-time among pitchers with at least 75 home starts (M. Mulder, 50-17, .746).
- Has 36 no decisions since 2002, but has left with the lead in 20 of those games only to see the bullpen blow the save.

Hudson's 2005 Season Recap

- Had a successful first season with the Braves, despite missing 28 team games with a strained left oblique muscle. Went 14-9 with a 3.52 ERA and managed to work 192 innings in his 29 starts.
- Came to Atlanta via trade from Oakland on 12/16/04. On 3/1/05, Tim signed a four-year contract extension through 2009 with a club option for 2010.
- Went 6-2 with a 2.98 ERA in eight day games and 8-7 with a 3.74 mark in 21 night games.
- The Braves were 16-12 in his starts (one blown save), with five of the 12 team losses by one run.
- Three of Tim's nine losses were by one run and two were by two runs.
- Earned a 4-2 win in his Braves debut at FLA on 4/7, going 5.0 innings and allowing just one run on six hits. Collected his first hit of the season with an RBI-single off A.J. Burnett in the fourth inning.
- Matched up with Roger Clemens in a masterpiece at HOU on 4/18, as the Braves won 1-0 in 12 innings (Ryan Langerhans HR). Tim pitched 9.0 scoreless innings, allowing just four hits and one walk while fanning nine. He allowed only two batters to reach second base.
- Suffered his first loss 4/29 vs. STL, allowing four runs in the first inning and two more in the fifth (Albert Pujols homer) en route to a 6-5 defeat. It marked just the third time in his career that he lost a game with four or more runs of support.
- Made his first career regular-season appearance on three days' rest on 5/24 and posted a 4-0 win over NYM. Tim tossed 8.0 shutout innings and allowed six hits and two walks while fanning three batters.
- Suffered his fifth loss at TEX on 6/13, as he struggled through 2.2 innings with a strained left oblique muscle. Allowed five runs on five hits, including two homers, and walked a season-high five batters.
- Was placed on the disabled list on 6/16, retroactive to 6/14, with a strained left oblique muscle.
- Was activated from the DL on 7/16 and made his first start since 6/13. Pitched 6.0 shutout innings, allowing just five hits and no walks in the 3-0 win. Tim threw only 62 pitches and also collected his second career double - his first extra-base hit since 6/14/02 at SF.
- Recorded his 100th career win with an 8-1 decision at St. Louis on 8/6, allowing just one first-inning run in 7.0 innings of work. His 100th win came in his 202nd career start. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Tim became just the sixth pitcher since 1970 to notch his 100th win in 202 or fewer games. The last was Andy Pettitte, in his 196th game on 9/24/2000. The others to do it since 1970: Tom Seaver (186th game) on 5/11/72, Dwight Gooden (173rd) on 6/19/89, Roger Clemens (182nd) on 5/9/90 and Mike Mussina (178th) on 6/30/97.
- Pitched six solid innings vs. SF on 8/11 before allowing three runs in the seventh and suffering a 5-3 loss. Had 10 strikeouts for his seventh career double-digit strikeout game (first since 2001).
- Pitched eight innings for the first time since 5/24 (10 starts), allowing just two runs in a 10-2 win over LA on 8/17.
- Threw his first complete game of the year on 8/22 at CHI, allowing two runs on seven hits while tying his season high with 119 pitches.
- Allowed two solo home runs in a CG 5-2 victory at MIL on 8/28. Tim fanned four batters and walked none in his 9.0 innings. His 8/22 and 8/28 outings marked the first back-to-back CG (and back-to-back 9-inning games) in his career.
- Allowed a season-high 12 hits in just 6.1 IP on 9/2 vs. CIN, but came away with his 12th win in a 7-4 decision. Tim collected his first career triple off Eric Milton and had a career-high two RBI.

- Had 8.0 strong IP (8 H/2 R) vs. NYM on 9/7, but did not earn the decision, as the Braves posted comebacks in the ninth and 10th innings for a 4-3 win. Had his 21.1-inning walkless streak snapped with a leadoff walk in the second inning. Tim's strikeout of Tom Glavine in the sixth inning was the 1,000th of his career.
- Allowed a career-high three home runs (sixth time - first since 2002), but earned his 13th win at NYM on 9/17, going 6.0 innings and allowing four runs on six hits in the 7-4 victory.
- Tossed eight shutout innings vs. PHI on 9/22 before allowing four runs in the ninth, including a three-run homer by pinch-hitter Shane Victorino, and lost his ninth game.
- Logged his 14th win vs. COL on 9/27 - the night Atlanta clinched its 14th straight division title.

Hudson's Career Highlights

2004: Went 12-6 with a 3.53 ERA in just 27 starts as he spent over a month of the season on the disabled list with a strained left oblique muscle...Was named to his second American League All-Star team but did not pitch, as he was on the DL...His ERA was the second highest of his career (4.14 in 2000) but it was fifth lowest in the A.L. in 2004...His wins and starts were second fewest to his 11 wins in 21 starts during his rookie campaign of 1999...Had career lows in walks (44) and strikeouts (103) and allowed a career-high .267 opp. batting average...The A's were 15-12 in his starting assignments...Tim had nine no-decisions in 2004 and left with the lead in six of those outings only to have the bullpen blow the save all six times. He left with the score tied in his other three no decisions...Had run support of 4.63 -- the lowest figure of his career and 10th lowest in the A.L. in 2004...In addition to ranking fifth in the A.L. in ERA, he also tied for the lead in shutouts (2), tied for fourth in winning percentage (.667) and tied for fifth in complete games (3)...Tied with teammate Rich Harden for the second lowest opponents slugging percentage (.366) in the A.L., tied for the third fewest pitches per inning (14.6) and had the sixth fewest walks per nine innings (2.10)...Allowed just eight home runs in 188.2 innings, an average of 0.38 per nine innings which was the lowest in the majors in '04 and the third lowest ever by an Oakland pitcher. His eight home runs were the fewest ever by an Oakland pitcher with a minimum of 162.0 innings pitched...Tied for sixth in the A.L. with a career-high 12 hit batters and has hit 47 batters in his career which broke the Oakland record of 45 set by Mike Norris...Was 7-3 with a 2.98 ERA (36 ER in 108.2 IP) over his first 15 starts of the year when he was placed on the 15-day disabled list retroactive to 6/23 with a left oblique strain...Was reinstated from the DL on 8/7 and went 5-3 with a 4.28 ERA (38 ER in 80.0 IP) in 12 starts following his return...Pitched seven or more innings in 20 of his 27 starts and tossed eight-plus innings 10 times in 2004...Allowed two runs or fewer 14 times and walked two batters or fewer 20 times...Made his third career opening day start on 4/5 against Texas...Tossed just 86 pitches in a complete game four-hitter in the A's 2-1 win on 4/10 against SEA. Followed that start by tossing 7.1 scoreless innings on 4/16 at ANA and had a career-high 21.1 inning scoreless streak from 4/10 to 4/21. His previous high was 20.0 innings, 7/17-27/03...Induced SEA to ground into five double plays on 4/21, the most by an A's pitcher since the statistic became available in 1974. Also hit three batters in that game, tying the Oakland single game record. Hit three batters again on 6/11 against PIT...Had a 13-start, 96.1-inning and 402-batter homerless streak snapped on 9/3 at TOR when Carlos Delgado homered to lead off the second inning; It was his first home run allowed since 5/8 vs. MIN (Jacque Jones).

2003: Compiled a career-best 2.70 ERA and tossed a career-high 240.0 innings but was just 16-7 in 34 starting assignments...Had a 2.64 ERA (23 ER in 78.1 IP) in 11 no decisions and the A's went 10-1 those games...Six of the no decisions came in extra-inning games...Left with the lead in four of his no decisions only to have Foulke blow the save all four times...Left with the score tied in four of his other no decisions...The A's were 26-8 in his starting assignments...Had run support of 3.25 (43 R in 118.2 IP) in his seven losses and 11 no decisions and 8.01 (108 R in 121.1 IP) in his 16 wins...Tied for the American League lead in shutouts (2), ranked second in ERA, third in innings, tied for fifth in games started, tied for seventh in complete games (3), tied for eighth in wins, ninth in winning percentage (.696) and 10th in strikeouts (162)...Led the A's in wins, ERA, innings and strikeouts and tied for the lead in shutouts...Allowed a career-low .308 opponents slugging percentage, which was the lowest in the A.L. and second lowest in the majors (Webb-ARI, .307)...Yielded just 15 home runs for an average of 0.56 per nine innings which was second lowest in the A.L. (Martinez BOS, 7 hr in 186.2 ip, 0.34 per nine innings)...Ranked third in the A.L. in opponent batting average (.223) and fourth in opponents on-base percentage (.280) and both of those figures were also career lows...On defense he led major league pitchers with 76 total chances...Was 9-3 with a 2.32 ERA in 20 starts at home...Ranked third in the A.L. in home ERA and ninth in home wins...Was second in the A.L. in ERA (2.69) after the break and tied for third in wins (9)...Tossed seven or more innings in 24 of his 34 starts, allowed two runs or fewer 20 times,

- Agreed to participate for the Netherlands in the 2006 World Baseball Classic.
- Since his first full big-league season in 1997, Andruw owns more putouts (3,493) and assists (94) than any centerfielder in the game.
- Has garnered eight consecutive Gold Glove Awards (1998-2005) and one Silver Slugger (2005).
- Has posted eight straight 20+ HR seasons (1998-2005).
- Ranks third in Atlanta history with 1,408 hits (passed H. Aaron on 6/29) and is fourth on the Atlanta HR list (301). His 130 Turner Field home runs rank second to Chipper Jones (147).
- Has 894 career RBI, ranking fourth in Braves' franchise history (three behind Hank Aaron-897).

A. Jones' 2005 Season Recap

- Hit a career high - and Braves record - 51 homers.
- Became the first Brave to lead the NL in homers since Dale Murphy in 1985 and the first to lead the circuit in RBI since Murphy in 1983.
- Won his eighth consecutive Gold Glove Award and his first Silver Slugger Award.
- Won the MLB NL Hank Aaron Award, given to the best hitter in each league by vote of the fans.
- Named Players' Choice MLB Player of the Year by his peers and was also named by his peers as the Sporting News NL Player of the Year. Was also named to the Sporting News NL All-Star team.
- Hit 30+ HRs for the 6th time in his career.
- Became the first Brave to be named NL Player of the Month twice in one season, earning the June (.317 Avg., 13 HR, 26 RBI, .733 SLG) and August (.272 Avg., 11 HR, 29 RBI) awards.
- Snapped his career-worst hitless streak (0-for-28) with his third-inning double on 4/22.
- Set a Braves record with 13 June home runs. Eddie Mathews had 12 in June 1955.
- Hit his fourth career game-ending HR on 6/25 vs. BAL.
- Named NL Co-Player of the Week (6/20-27), hitting .450 (9-for-20) with five HR.
- Had a seven-game RBI streak snapped 7/10, but equaled his career high with walks.
- His 27 HRs at the All-Star break tied for second most in Braves history (Andres Galarraga had 28 in 1998).
- Hit his second career All-Star homer on 7/12 (off Kenny Rogers) and also walked and scored two runs. It marked the 14th A.S. homer in Braves history.
- Hit two homers on 8/6 at STL, when he hit his fourth career grand slam and had a season-high five RBI.
- Hit his 40th HR on 8/23, making him the fastest in franchise history to reach 40 (126 games; Eddie Mathews did it in 127 games in 1953).
- Hit two HRs 8/28 at MIL and had four RBI.
- Hit sixth-longest HR and longest by a Brave at Turner Field on 9/5 (452 feet).
- Hit his second game-ending homer (fifth career) in the 10th inning on 9/1 vs. WSH. Was the only player in the majors with two walkoff homers in 2005.

C. Jones' Career Recap

- Agreed to participate for the United States in the 2006 World Baseball Classic.
- On 12/2/05, agreed to terms on a contract extension through 2008, with an option for 2009.
- His .303 career batting average ranks second all-time among switch hitters; Hall-of-Famer Frankie Frisch batted .316.
- Ranks fourth in Braves franchise history in hits (1,811).
- His 331 homers rank third in Atlanta history.
- Chipper is the only switch hitter in major league history to own a .300 career average (.303) and hit at least 300 homers (331).
- Has an Atlanta-record 355 career doubles.
- Only 15 times in major league history has a switch hitter posted a .300 batting average with 30 home runs, 100 runs scored and 100 RBI. Chipper has done it five times; Mickey Mantle, Eddie Murray & Lance Berkman are the only other switch hitters to do it twice.

C. Jones' 2005 Season Recap

- Batted .296 with 30 doubles, 21 homers and 72 RBI in an injury-shortened season (109 games).
- Batted .339 at home and just .254 on the road.
- Posted a .397 (23-for-58) average in Close & Late situations.
- Hit safely in 37 of his last 52 starts (since 7/26), and batted .321 (59-for-184) with 13 HRs, 43 RBI and 18 multi-hit games in that span.

- Went on the DL on 6/6 and missed 37 games with an injured ligament in his left foot. He originally injured the ligament while rounding third base on 4/24.
- Came off the DL on 7/18 at SF and snapped an 0-for-18 slump (the second-longest of his career) with a homer in his first at-bat (his first HR since 5/15).
- Went 3-for-3 with a HR (#3) and four RBI on 8/2 at CIN before leaving the game in fourth inning with a posterior strain to his right rotator cuff.
- Had all four Braves RBI on a pair of two-run HRs 8/22, including one off K. Wood in the ninth to snap a 2-2 tie. It was his 31st multi-HR game (first in '05).
- His two-out, two-run homer in the ninth on 9/11 at WSH was his 11th GW-RBI.
- Had his season-high 10-game hitting streak snapped with an 0-for-2 game 9/12, leaving the game with a strained left quad.
- Had second multi-HR game of the year (32nd career) on 9/15 at PHI to go with a career-high tying 5 RBI. His third-inning HR was his 1,800th career hit.
- His bases-loaded walk in the sixth inning on 9/20 was his 1,000th career walk.

The Only One

5/11-17, when he batted .556 (15-for-27) with three home runs and 10 RBI in seven games, marking the third time in his career he won the award...Had his first career five-hit game and had four RBI on 5/15 vs. Florida, with a home run, double and three singles...Played third base for first time in his career 8/15 vs. Pittsburgh...Had a career best 11 outfield assists...Homered in both games of 8/20 doubleheader as a DH at New York.

1997: Began the season on the active roster but was hampered by injuries, managing just three extra-base hits among his first 22 hits...Was placed on the DL on 5/7 with a bulging disc in his lower back...Returned to the active roster on 6/13 and played in 11 games before returning to the DL for a second time on 6/27...Returned to the roster on 8/10, but appeared in just 10 games before going on the DL for the final time on 8/25...Doubled twice, stole third base and scored the game's only run in the opener of an 4/19 doubleheader vs. San Diego at Honolulu...Errorless in 84 chances in the outfield...Underwent surgery on his left wrist in September.

1996: Missed first two weeks with wrist injury...Matched his then career high with four hits on 4/23 at Montreal and 7/14 at Chicago...Meanwhile, got outstanding defensive season off and running with three assists in seven games 4/21-27...Hit first homer of season 4/30 at Chicago, triggering 11-game hitting streak, batting .420 (34-for-81) and slugging .691 with 27 RBI over 22 games from 6/11-7/5...Had six RBI in 9-2 win on 6/24 at Atlanta...Drove in six runs for second time in a month with a two-run homer in first and his second career grand slam in sixth inning on 7/13 at Chicago...Drove in 11 runs in last three games of that series (with seven consecutive hits with runners in scoring position), 18 in seven-game RBI streak, and 22 with RBI in 10 of 11 outings, adding an eighth consecutive hit with RISP before streak ended at Cincinnati...Batted .514 (19-for-37) with runners in scoring position over 27 games, 6/24-7/23...Hit .326 (30-for-92) in July with 33 RBI in 21 games...Recorded 16 consecutive steals, 6/21-8/26, before being caught 8/31 vs. Colorado...Compiled 10-game hit streak 8/29-9/8, batting .500 (20-for-40) and slugging .700...Equaled known modern record with 13 bases-loaded hits, set by Mike Devereaux in 1989...Hit .684 with 31 RBI in bases-loaded situations and led NL with .422 BA with runners in scoring position...Hit .343 (37-for-108) vs. left-handers...Named NL Player of the Week three times, twice in July and once in September...Finished third in NL with .994 fielding percentage (two errors in 320 total chances), the second best mark for right fielders...Hit grand slam, his third-career two-homer game and equaled a then career high for RBI with 6, 7/13 at Chicago.

1996 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (SD): Hit two-run HR in ninth inning 10/5 at SD to complete 7-5 win and three-game Division Series sweep...Had three hits and three RBI in finale...NLCS (All.): Completed St. Louis comeback in Game 4 vs ATL with eighth-inning homer for 4-3 victory.

1995: Battled Ray Lankford neck-and-neck for the St. Louis home run and RBI leadership while also keeping his batting average near .300 for much of the season...Finished second on the club in home runs and RBI and established career-highs for nearly every offensive category...Teamed with Lankford to give the Cardinals their first 20-homer tandem since 1980...Hit in 13 consecutive games (17-for-47, .362) from 8/9-22...Batted .313 with 14 home runs and a team-leading 53 RBI at Busch...Batted .321 with runners in scoring position and .365 with a runner on third...Ranked second among NL outfielders in fielding (.996)...Had two two-homer games, including the 9/16 contest vs. Los Angeles when he had nine total bases...Finished second on the club in both multi-hit (42) and multi-RBI (19) games.

1994: Season was ended by a rib injury in early July...One of the hottest hitters in spring training, batting .323 while leading the team with 19 RBI and tying for lead with four homers...Hitless in first 24 at-bats with runners in scoring position...Batted .344 with runners in scoring position in 1993 but slipped to .042 (2-for-48) in 1994...Was 2-4 with a homer on 4/14 vs. Los Angeles...Hit two-run pinch homer 6/28 at New York...Hit in nine consecutive games 6/16-28, increasing average from .227 to a season-high .261...Suffered season-ending injury 9/9 at Atlanta when he collided with Todd Zeile while chasing a pop foul and fractured four ribs...Made only one error in 111 chances (.991)...Appeared in one game at first.

1993: Began the year as the Cardinals' starting left fielder, but was optioned to Louisville (AAA) on 4/25 when his playing time was reduced following a slow start...In two months at Louisville, Jordan batted .378 with five home runs and 35 RBI in 38 games...Recalled on 6/25...Batted .337 (64-for-190) with 10 homers and 43 RBI in 54 games following his return...Hit a grand slam homer and had five RBI in the Cardinals' 14-5 win vs. Philadelphia on 7/1...Had two-homer games on two occasions, 7/19 at Atlanta and 8/10 at Pittsburgh...Injured left shoulder which limited his availability late in the year...Made just three starts after 9/1...Last appearance was on 9/5 after which he underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair cartilage damage and shoulder tightness...Batted .365 vs. left-handers, .344 with runners in scoring position.

1992: Slated to start the season at Louisville, but was recalled on 4/8 when Andres Galarraga went down with injury...Had two hits and four RBI in his major league debut on 4/8 vs. New York...Hit his first major league homer on 4/29 at San Francisco off Trevor Wilson...Had three doubles in 4/18 contest vs. Chicago...Hit in nine of 11 games between 5/1-15, raising his batting average from .197 to .248...In his first 109 at-bats, 18 of 40 hits went for extra bases...Made just one error in 106 outfield chances for .991 fielding percentage...Disabled 5/23-6/22 with hamstring injury...Agreed to exclusive three-year baseball contract in June, foregoing football career...Optioned to Louisville on 7/12...Hit .290 with four home runs and 16 RBI in 43 games with the Triple-A club...Sat out final month of the season after injuring shoulder when he crashed into outfield wall.

1991: Opened season strong at Louisville, hitting safely in 16 of first 19 games for a .301 average (22-for-73) from 4/24-5/22...Included during that span was a season best six-game hit streak (5/10-15)...Drove in three runs on 5/12 at Denver...Had a .321 spurt in late June (9-for-28)...Finished season with a .264 average in 61 games when he left for Atlanta Falcons training camp on 7/3.

1990: Played just 25 games between Arkansas (AA) and St. Petersburg (A)...Invited to Cardinals' major league spring training camp and began the season at Arkansas...Went on the DL with right wrist injury from 5/6-17...Sent down to St. Petersburg after returning to the active list on 5/17...Wrist injury continued to give him problems and was diagnosed as a broken navicular bone on 6/7...Injury caused him to miss the remainder of the season.

1989: Played in only 11 games during his second season of professional baseball...Was slowed by ankle injury that he suffered while playing football in the Senior Bowl...Showed much promise in those 11 games, however, hitting safely in 10...Homered, tripled and drove in five runs on 7/9 vs. Port Charlotte...On 7/13 vs. Sarasota, belted the first homer of the year by a St. Petersburg player at Al Lang Stadium in the club's 45th home game...Posted a .628 slugging average and was errorless in the outfield.

1988: Selected by St. Louis in the supplemental round of the 1988 free agent draft...Was additional compensation pick for the loss of free-agent Jack Clark...Spent first pro season at Hamilton (A)...Had impressive debut on 7/8 vs. Little Falls with three hits and two outstanding defensive plays in centerfield...Hit his first professional homer on 7/10 vs. Oneonta...Suffered a bone bruise on his right heel 7/27 and played in only one game following the injury, before returning to the University of Richmond for his final season of football.

PERSONAL/MISC: Married to Pam and has two daughters, Briana and Kenley, and two sons, Bryson and Kaleb Braxton...Resides in Alpharetta, GA...Attended University of Richmond where he played baseball and football and was a sociology major...Was named All-America and all-conference in football...Named all-conference in baseball... A graduate of Milford HS in Baltimore, MD...Inducted into the Milford Mill HS Sports Hall of Fame in 2002 when he appeared at the school to award two $16,000 college scholarships as part of his Brian Jordan Back to the Future Foundation...Played baseball, football and basketball in high school...As a defensive back in football, was drafted by the Buffalo Bills in the 1989 NFL draft...Released during training camp and picked up by the Atlanta Falcons...Spent three seasons (1989-91) with the Falcons and was named an alternate on the 1992 Pro Bowl team.

Ramirez's 2005 Season Recap

- Made a career-high 32 starts - the second most on the Braves staff - and appeared in 33 games overall.
- Went 8-1 with a 3.59 ERA at home and 3-8, 5.69 on the road.
- His record in night games was 10-5 with a 4.11 ERA, compared to a 1-4, 5.93 mark in day games.
- The Braves are 35-35 in Horacio's 70 career starts and were 12-20 in 2005.
- Allowed a team-high 31 home runs on the year. His 31 HRs allowed tied for 11th in the majors and his 1.38 HRs allowed per 9 IP was the 11th-highest average in the majors.
- Did not earn a decision in his 2005 debut vs. the Mets on 4/9, a 6-3 Braves win. Horacio tossed four scoreless innings before allowing two runs on three hits and a walk and making his exit with two outs in the fifth inning.
- Notched his first win with an 11-4 decision at PHI on 4/15. Went 5.1 innings, allowing two runs in the first (after the Braves scored four in the first) and another run in the sixth before making his exit.
- Allowed just a two-run home run to Jose Vidro, but got the loss in a 2-0 Nationals win on 4/20. He went 6.2 IP, allowing six hits while walking three and fanning three.
- Went seven scoreless innings, allowing just three hits in a 4-1 Braves win over Houston on 5/7. It was his first scoreless outing of the year and it came on 11 days of rest.

- Pitched a solid game at Los Angeles on 5/13, allowing two runs on seven hits in 7.0 innings pitched, but did not figure in the 7-4 loss. Horacio was in line for the win after Adam LaRoche's eighth-inning grand slam put the Braves up 4-2, but the Dodgers came back to score five runs in the bottom of the inning for a 7-4 loss.
- Had first scoreless outing 6/22 vs. FLA since 5/7 vs. HOU, allowing just three hits and walking one in an 8-0 win. He lasted 5.0 innings before having to leave due to a slight groin pull.
- Earned his fourth straight win with a seven-inning, five-hit, one-run performance on 6/27 at FLA to cap an undefeated June.
- Went 4-0 with a 3.55 ERA in June and is 7-0 with a 3.91 ERA in 10 career starts in June.
- Tossed his first career shutout in Game 1 of 7/7 DH vs. Chicago. It was his third career complete game and his first since 5/20/04 vs. ARI. It was also only his second scoreless outing of the year and matched his career best for fewest hits allowed (3).
- Posted his eighth quality start at NY on 7/14, but did not figure in the 6-3 loss. Allowed three runs on six hits in 7.0 IP, but Mike Piazza hit a three-run homer in the eighth inning for the 6-3 final.
- Cruised through six innings at SF on 7/19 before allowing a three-run homer in the seventh. Ended up going 7.1 innings, but did not figure in the 5-4 loss, as the Giants won in the ninth.
- Suffered a 3-2 loss at ARI on 7/24, allowing three runs on eight hits in 7.0 IP. The Braves were held to just four hits on the day, and the only offensive support came from Andruw Jones' two solo homers.
- Earned his ninth win vs. PIT on 7/29, allowing just one run on six hits in 8.0 IP. C. Jones' two-run double in the eighth inning led to the 2-1 win.
- Made lone relief appearance 8/14 vs. ARI in which he allowed five earned runs on six hits (three homers) in 3.2 IP. It was just his second career relief appearance.
- Posted a 5-3 win over WSH in Game 1 of 8/31 DH, pitching 7.0 innings and allowing three runs.
- Went without a decision in five of his last six outings.
- Lost a 12-4 decision at PHI on 9/14, allowing seven runs (six earned) in just 3.0 IP. It marked the shortest start of his career, as he allowed three runs in the first and four in the third (on a R. Martinez GS).
- Did not earn a decision in the Braves' 10-6 loss to PHI on 9/21, as he went 6.0 IP and allowed five runs (four earned) on seven hits.
- Went 5.1 innings on 9/26 vs. COL, and left with a 5-2 lead, but the bullpen failed to hold it and the Rockies rallied for a 6-5 win.

Reitsma's 2005 Season Recap

- Agreed to participate for Canada in the 2006 World Baseball Classic.
- Appeared in a team-high 76 games, the second straight year he led the Braves in appearances (had a franchise-record 84 in 2004).
- His 15 saves established a career high (previously had 12 for the Reds in 2003).
- Retired 57 of 76 (75%) of the first batters he faced.
- Earned his first save of the season and the 15th of his career with 2.0 scoreless innings 5/25 vs. NYM.
- His save 6/1 at WSH (16th career save) and his save 5/25 vs. NYM are only 2.0+ IP saves of his career.
- Took a liner off his right side (J.J. Hardy) in the ninth inning 7/10 and had to leave the game. X-rays were negative.
- Earned his first career Rolaids Man of the Month Award in July, edging Houston's Brad Lidge in Rolaids points (28-26).
- Had converted nine straight save opportunities (7/3-8/4) prior to allowing four runs, getting a BS and loss at STL on 8/7 - his first blown save since 6/29 at FLA.
- Earned a save or win in 10 straight appearances from 7/15 to 8/4 (two wins, eight saves).
- Suffered his ninth blown save and sixth loss 9/28 on T. Greene's three-run homer in the eighth inning.

Renteria's Career Recap

- In 1998 with Florida, he became the first Colombian to play in an All-Star Game.
- Is a three-time winner of the Silver Slugger award (2000, 2002, 2003), and a two-time Rawlings Gold Glove Award recipient (2002, 2003).
- Is the only shortstop in Cardinals history to twice win the Silver Slugger and Gold Glove in the same season.
- Forever became a part of World Series history with an RBI-single that scored Craig Counsell in the bottom of the 11th inning in Game 7 of the 1997 World Series, lifting Florida past Cleveland.

Renteria's 2005 Season Recap

- Had a roller-coaster season with Boston, hitting .228 in April, .354 in May, .251 in June-July, .342 in August and .224 in September-October.
- Among Major League shortstops, tied for fourth in runs scored and doubles, and tied for sixth in RBI.
- With 153 games played, Renteria topped 150 for the 7th time in his 10-year big league career.
- Was charged with a career-high 30 errors, the most by any player in the majors.
- Batted .326 with off LHP and .253 off RHP.
- After three consecutive three-hit games, 5/26 at Toronto and 5/27-28 at New York (AL), Edgar went 4-for-5 with a homer, RBI and three runs 5/29 at Yankee Stadium to finish a six-game trip 16-for-24 (.667). In the process, he lifted his average to a season-high .295 from .239.
- Renteria was 10-for-12 (.833) with two homers, six RBI and five runs scored in the three-game set in New York (5/27-29). The last streak in the majors of consecutive games with three hits or more that was longer was George Brett's Major-League record six-gamer, 5/8-13/76.
- Hit his first home run as a Red Sox on 4/14 at Fenway, two-run shot off the Yankees' Randy Johnson.
- Snapped a 4-4 tie with an RBI double in the top of the ninth, giving the Sox a 5-4 win 6/22 at Cleveland.
- Missed three games after being hit by a pitch on the right index finger while attempting to bunt 5/5 at Detroit.
- Hit his fourth career grand slam, first with the Red Sox, in a 17-1 win 5/28 at New York (AL). Finished the day 3-for-3 with the slam off Paul Quantrill and 5 RBI (matched his career high).
- Collected 40 hits in August, one shy of the major league lead. The 40 hits were his most in a month in his big league career high.
- On 8/9 vs. Texas, gave the Sox a walk-off 8-7 win with a one-out RBI single in the bottom of the 10th.
- Singled home two runs against B.J. Ryan to snap a 2-2 tie with one out in the top of the 9th, helping the Sox to a 4-3 win over the Orioles 9/24 in Baltimore.

Smoltz's Career Recap

- Owns 177 wins and 154 saves in his career. He and Hall-of-Famer Dennis Eckersley (197/390) are the only two pitchers in Major League history to collect at least 150 wins and 150 saves.
- Was the 2005 recipient of the prestigious Roberto Clemente Award from MLB.
- Ranks 24th on the all-time strikeout list (2,567) and is sixth among active pitchers, behind Roger Clemens, Randy Johnson, Greg Maddux, Curt Schilling and Pedro Martinez.
- Ranks as the all-time leader with 15 postseason wins (15-4). Also ranks No. 1 in postseason strikeouts (194 in 207.0 IP).
- Hasn't committed an error since 9/18/01 at PHI.
- Ranks in the top 10 of nearly every Braves' franchise pitching list, including saves (first), games pitched (third-635), strikeouts (second-2,567), innings pitched (fourth-2,929.1), starts (fourth-394), wins (sixth) and ERA (10th-3.26).
- John became just the sixth pitcher in history to post three straight 40-save seasons (2002-04).

Smoltz's 2005 Season Recap

- Made a team-high 33 starts and went 14-7 with a 3.06 ERA and 169 strikeouts in 229.2 IP.
- Received MLB's 2005 Roberto Clemente Award.
- Became the first pitcher in Major League history to follow a 40-save season with a 200-inning season. In fact, no pitcher has gone more than 150 innings in a season after he had 40 saves the previous year.
- Surpassed the 200-inning plateau for the eighth time in his career and the first time since 1997, when he led the NL with 256.0 IP. The last pitcher to go longer between 200-inning seasons was Jamie Moyer who went nine seasons in between 1988 and 1998 and tied Bill Dietrich's (1934/1944) ML record.
- His 0.71 HR (18 HR/229.2 IP) allowed per 9 IP ranked as the 13th best average in the majors.
- Reached the 14-win plateau for the eighth time in his career.
- Made 16 starts after a Braves loss. He went 9-1 and the team went 14-2 in those games.
- Was the victim of six blown saves by the Braves bullpen, including four in his last seven starts.
- Made his third career Opening Day start on 4/5 at FLA and lasted just 1.2 innings, tying for his shortest career outing as a starter (fourth time). It marked his first start since 6/9/01 (at NYY) - a span of three years, 300 days. John made 241 relief appearances between starts. He allowed seven runs (six earned) in the 9-0 loss, as the Marlins struck for five runs in the first, capped by a Juan Encarnacion grand slam (the first allowed by Smoltz since 5/14/94).
- Matched up with NY's Pedro Martinez in a pitching duel on 4/10, but came out on the short end of a 6-1 decision. John took a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning, then allowed a two-run homer to Carlos Beltran before making his exit. The bullpen allowed four more runs for the 6-1 final score. John matched his career high and his own Atlanta record with 15 strikeouts (and no walks) in the game. He went nearly 13 years between 15-strikeout games - the fourth longest span in major league history.
- Earned his first win of the season (first win as a starter since 10/1/99) with a 4-3 decision at NYM on 4/26.
- Had a 47.0-inning homerless streak from the seventh inning on 4/16 until Jim Thome's homer in the first inning on 5/27.
- Pitched 4.2 innings of perfect ball and carried a shutout into the sixth on 6/6 vs. LAA, but still suffered a 4-2 loss. Left in the ninth after allowing four runs on 13 hits - one shy of his career high.
- On 6/10 vs. OAK, he threw his first CG since 4/30/99 vs. CIN. He allowed all three runs in the sixth and did not walk a batter.
- Posted his 15th career shutout with a 5-0 win over FLA on 6/21. He threw a season-high 123 pitches. He fanned six batters and moved past his childhood hero Jack Morris (2,478) on the all-time strikeout list.
- Went 4-0 with a 2.45 ERA in July after going 5-1, 2.50 in June.
- Went the distance for his third complete game in 8-1 five-hitter over BAL on 6/26. It was his 50th career CG and he passed Don Drysdale (2,486) on the all-time strikeout list. John's RBI on 6/26 was his first since 6/29/99 vs. MON.
- On 7/15 at NYM, John posted his 10th win in a hard-fought 2-1 victory against former teammate Tom Glavine. Had five strikeouts to become the 27th pitcher in history to reach 2,500 strikeouts in his career (he fanned Jose Reyes in the fifth inning for No. 2,500).
- Recorded his 11th win with a solid eight-inning, six-hit performance at SF on 7/20. Fanned seven batters and moved past Hall of Famer Christy Mathewson (2,502) on the all-time strikeout list. It marked his first win over the Giants since April 1996.
- Had his eight-game winning streak snapped with an 11-3 loss at STL on 8/5, when he allowed five runs in 6.0 IP. Equaled his season high by allowing two homers, including a two-run shot by A. Pujols in the first.
- Pitched seven strong innings vs. LA on 8/16, but didn't earn the win, as the bullpen blew the save and the team suffered a 6-4 loss. John had six strikeouts and passed Hall of Famer Tim Keefe (2,533) for 25th place on the all-time strikeout list.
- Notched his 13th win (in his fifth try) on 8/27 at MIL.
- Was staked to a 7-1 lead after three innings on 9/1 vs. WSH and came out after 5.0 innings with a 7-3 lead, only to see the bullpen blow another winning opportunity for him. The Braves won 8-7 after Andruw Jones homered to lead off the 10th inning.

- Matched up against NYM's Pedro Martinez and posted his 14th win with a 3-1 victory on 9/6, allowing one run in 7.0 IP.
- Made his fourth start vs. Pedro Martinez 9/16 at NYM and suffered a 4-0 loss. Martinez went the distance for NY, while John allowed all four Mets runs on seven hits in 7.0 IP.
- Made his final start of the season on 9/23 vs. FLA. Did not earn a decision (6.0 IP/3 R), but the Braves rallied for a 4-3 win.

2005 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Started Game 2 in Atlanta and got the win over Roger Clemens, allowing one earned run over 7.0 IP walking one and striking out five...The win was his 15th postseason win, one more than Houston's Andy Pettitte for the most all-time....It was his first postseason win as a starter since winning Game 4 of the 1999 NLDS as Houston.

Smoltz's Career Highlights

2004: Appeared in 73 games and recorded 44 saves in 49 chances (89.7%)...Owned a 2.76 ERA on the year, but had a 2.60 ERA (16 ER/55.1 IP) in his 49 save opportunities...Was second among NL relievers in fewest walks per 9.0 IP (1.43)...Had 15 saves of more than one inning. Sosa's 2005 Season Recap

- Agreed to participate for the Dominican Republic in the 2006 World Baseball Classic.
- Acquired from the Devil Rays in exchange for INF Nick Green at the end of spring training (3/31), Sosa played a huge role in the Braves success in 2005.
- Won a career-high 13 games and his 2.55 ERA was easily the lowest of his four-year career. Jorge entered the season with a 5.17 career ERA.
- Went 10-3 with a 2.62 ERA as a starter.
- His .813 (13-3) winning percentage was tops in the National League.
- His 2.62 ERA as a starter ranked third in the majors among pitchers with 20 or more starting assignments and his 1.82 road ERA as a starter was second in the majors to Roger Clemens (1.32).
- Went 4-0 with a 2.08 ERA in the month of September.
- The Braves went 15-4 in his 19 starts, with one blown save.
- Went 3-0 with a 1.66 ERA in five day starts.
- In his three losses, the Braves were shutout twice and scored two runs in the other game.

- Went 4-3 with a 3.64 ERA at Turner Field and 9-0, 1.82 on the road.
- Had four holds and a 2.30 ERA in 24 games out of the bullpen and in relief he went more than 1.0 inning seven times, including 2.0+ innings three times.
- Notched his first win with a scoreless 11th inning 4/18 at HOU.
- Pitched a season-high 2.1 innings as a reliever in his Braves debut on Opening Day (4/5) at FLA, when he entered in the second inning for John Smoltz.
- In his first start of the year on 6/14 at TEX, he went 5.0 innings, allowing two runs on five hits, while striking out seven. Both runs came on a first-inning M. Teixeira homer. It was his first start since 9/12/04 at KC (a 7-2 win in which he went 7.0 shutout innings for Tampa Bay) and it marked the first time in his 42 career starts he did not walk a batter.
- Made his second start of the year and his first career start on three days' rest at CIN on 6/18, allowing one run on four hits. Did not earn the decision in the Braves' 6-1 win, but he did collect a single (off Eric Milton) in his second career plate appearance.
- On 6/28, he picked up his second win as a starter by beating Dontrelle Willis and the Marlins, 9-1, at Florida. Jorge allowed just one run on four hits over 6.0 innings, the only run coming on a Carlos Delgado fourth-inning homer.
- Pitched a solid game at PHI on 7/3 but did not earn the decision in a 4-3 win. Allowed just one hit in 5.1 innings, as Ryan Howard poked a three-run homer just over the left field wall for PHI's only score.
- Started on nine days' rest on 7/18 at SF and posted a 6-1 win. Allowed six hits and four walks and stranded nine runners on base in his 6.0 IP.
- His four-game winning streak from 6/28 to 8/2 matched his career high (9/4/03-7/31/04).
- Pitched a season-high 7.0 shutout innings at STL 8/7 at STL, but did not earn the win, as David Eckstein hit a one-out grand slam in the ninth inning for a 5-3 Cardinals win.
- Outdueled Mark Prior for the win at CHI on 8/24, going 6.0 IP and allowing just one run on four hits. Jorge found out the day before he was to start when Mike Hampton was placed on the DL.
- Made three relief appearances between his 8/12 and 8/24 starts.
- Suffered his third loss in a 3-2 decision vs. WSH on 8/30, allowing three runs on nine hits in 5.0 IP, as the Braves stranded 13 runners on base.
- Posted his 10th win with a 9-3 decision over the Reds on 9/3, allowing two earned runs in 5.0 IP.
- Had perhaps his best outing of the year with 8.0 shutout IP in a 4-0 win at WSH on 9/10. Allowed six hits, with no walks and three Ks.
- Won his 12th game with a 6-4 win at PHI on 9/15. Jorge threw 110 pitches in 5.2 IP, allowing two runs on seven hits.
- Threw a season-high 115 pitches en route to his 13th win on 9/20 over PHI. Jorge tossed 6.2 shutout innings, allowing just two hits with a season-high seven strikeouts, but walked a career-high six batters.

Thomson's 2005 Season Recap

- Missed nearly three months of action with a strained flexor tendon in his right middle finger. He missed a total of 78 team games during his DL stint.
- Ended the year with a 4-6 record and a 4.47 ERA in 17 games.
- Allowed only six home runs in 98.2 IP on the season.
- From the 2004 All-Star break to the 2005 break, John went 11-3 with a 2.80 ERA in 24 games.
- Made nine starts after coming off the disabled list on August 13 and went 1-4 with a 5.55 ERA.
- John made eight starts (3-2, 3.42 ERA) before his injury, suffered 5/16 at SD.
- Had his best start since coming off the DL on 9/24 vs. FLA, allowing one run on four hits in seven innings of work. John retired the lead-off batter in six of his seven innings of work.
- Went 7.0 innings, but took the loss 9/18 at NY. He retired 12 of 13 batters and hadn't allowed a run through five innings before getting hit for four runs on two doubles and a homer in the sixth in a 4-1 loss.
- Had first solid outing since coming off the DL, allowing two runs in six innings in a 4-3 loss to CIN in Game 2 on 8/31. John got a ND and left down 2-1 entering the seventh inning.
- Was roughed up on 8/18 vs. LA, giving up a season-high seven runs in a season-low 3.2 IP in a 7-4 Dodgers win.
- His 8/13 start vs. ARI was his first action since suffering his injury. Went 6.0 innings (85 pitches) and allowed five runs (four earned) on eight hits, including his third homer of the year (his first to a LH batter).
- Made four injury rehabilitation starts before his comeback and pitched 15.2 rehab innings (3 ER).
- Had a 32-inn. homerless streak (dating back to 4/8) end with fifth-inning shot by HOU's M. Ensberg on 5/5.
- Came out of 5/16 game at SD in the fifth inning with a 3-1 lead. The Braves eventually lost the game 5-3.
- Had a tough outing at Colorado on 5/10. The Braves scored six runs in the first inning (including an RBI-double by John), but was unable to qualify for the win, making his exit with two outs in the fifth. He allowed five runs on eight hits and had his first career ejection (by HP umpire Tim Timmons) as he left.
- Threw his 10th-career complete game (first since 8/24/03) on 5/5 vs. HOU, in a 9-3 Braves win. He matched his fewest hits allowed in a CG with three (5/18/03 at NYY).
- Had a great outing with 7.0 shutout innings against PHI on 4/24, when he fanned a season-high eight batters and allowed just five hits in the 4-0 win. Also threw a season-high 114 pitches.
- Had his career-best six-game winning streak snapped on 4/13 vs. WSH. John allowed two runs in the first inning and four runs total in 6.0 innings of work in the 11-4 loss.
- Notched a 3-1 win over NYM in his 2005 debut on 4/8, allowing just one run in eight hits in 7.0 innings of work. The lone run he allowed came on a Mike Piazza homer in the fourth inning.

2005 POSTSEASON HIGHLIGHTS: Division Series (Hou.): Made only appearance of the series in Game 4, throwing a scoreless 12th and 13th innings that included no hits, one walk and three strikeouts.

Villarreal's 2005 Season Recap

- Agreed to participate for Mexico in the 2006 World Baseball Classic.
- Second straight year was interrupted by right arm trouble, this time it was a rotator cuff strain. Injuries have limited him to a total of 28 big-league appearances over the last two seasons.
- Opened the year with Tucson (AAA) and appeared once before being summoned to the majors on 4/9.
- Worked 1.2 scoreless frames on 4/9 and left the next day's outing vs. Los Angeles with a sore right shoulder.
- Rotator cuff strain disabled him from 4/11-9/2.
- Made 11 rehab outings with Tucson, going 0-3 with a 5.63 ERA.
- Surrendered a solo homer in 1.0 inning of work on 9/3, his first big-league game in over 20 weeks.
- Tossed 3.0 scoreless frames on 9/11 at Coors Field, tying his career high, matching a 3.0-inning start on 4/8/03 at LA.
- Victory in the 9/17 contest vs. Colorado was his first triumph since 9/25/03 at COL.
- Recorded his second win of the season with a scoreless frame on 9/30 at SF.
- Retired the first batter faced in 8 of 11 outings.
- Stranded 8 of 11 inherited baserunners.

Villarreal's Career Highlights

2004: One year after setting the National League rookie record for appearances, Oscar was limited to only 17 outings due to recurring elbow pain that eventually required surgery...Soreness surfaced during spring training, when a tender right elbow limited him to only 3.0 innings of work, all coming during the final week of the exhibition slate...Was ready for Opening Day, tossing a scoreless frame against the Rockies, his first of a dozen outings in April, notching 15 strikeouts while issuing only one walk over 12.1 innings...Landed on the disabled list on 5/10 with a right flexor strain...After resting the elbow, he began a throwing program and went on a rehabilitation assignment with Tucson (AAA) in mid-July...Made six appearances for the Sidewinders, going 0-2 with a 14.34 ERA, allowing 20 hits and 17 runs in 10.2 frames...With a noticable drop in velocity during his rehab work, an MRI exam was performed on 8/6 and he wound up undergoing season-ending nerve transposition surgery; the procedure was performed in Phoenix by Diamondback team physicians Dr. Michael Lee and Dr. Don SheridaN; additionally, Villarreal had bone chips removed from the elbow.

2003: After earning a spot on the big league roster out of spring training, Oscar rewrote the record book by appearing in 86 games, establishing the National League rookie mark, shattering the previous record of 78 originally set by Montreal's Tim Burke in 1985 and matched by Houston's Ricky Stone in 2002...Villarreal finished second in the majors in appearances, three behind the Dodgers' Paul Quantrill...The 21-year old's 86 outings were the most ever by a pitcher from Mexico, surpassing Pittsburgh's Enrique Romo, who pitched in 84 games in 1979... Villarreal ranked third among all hurlers with 95.0 innings of relief and, including his lone start, finished with 98.0 innings pitched...He also led rookies with a 2.57 ERA, which was sixth among all hurlers with as many innings pitched...He not only set an Arizona record for appearances, but also recorded 10 wins, breaking Gregg Olson's team mark for a reliever (in 1999) and matching Brandon Webb for the franchise record in victories by a rookie...Among N.L. rookies, Villarreal was third in opponents' average (.222), tied for fourth in wins, ninth in strikeouts (80), and 10th in innings...He made his big league debut on 3/31 vs. the Dodgers and recorded a strikeout on only one pitch, inheriting a two-strike count on Hideo Nomo after an injury to Bret Prinz and threw one strike to retire the Nomo...Made his only big league start on 4/8 in Dodger Stadium, hurling 3.0 innings, allowing 2 runs on 4 hits in a no decision, an eventual 5-3 Arizona loss...Recorded his first win on 4/20 in St. Louis with 2.2 shutout innings of a 1-0 win...Was struck on the left shin by a Frank Thomas line drive on 6/5, then retired two batters before needing assistance to get into the clubhouse...On 6/23 when he was struck in the chest by a Craig Biggio line drive...Did not allow an earned run in July, totaling 15.1 innings...His 9/8 appearance was his 78th of the year, tying Byung-Hyun Kim's franchise mark set in 2001, also matching the N.L. rookie record...Oscar broke both records when he picked up the win on 9/10 vs. Los Angeles.

2002: Oscar opened the season with El Paso (AA) and finished the year by making 10 starts for Tucson (AAA)...Was chosen as the farm system's Pitcher-of-the-Month for April after going 4-0 with a 1.26 ERA over six starts...He was struck on the thumb of his pitching hand during his 4/25 start vs. Shreveport but still tossed 7.0 scoreless frames of three-hit ball...Tossed his first career complete game in his next start on 4/30 vs. Arkansas, surrendering a run on six hits with six strikeouts...Back-to-back rough outings on 5/6 & 5/11 totaled 13 runs in 10.2 innings and signaled something was wrong...Oscar was diagnosed with a fractured bone in his right thumb and was disabled from 5/14-7/7...Made six more appearances (5 starts) for the Diablos before he was promoted to Tucson on 7/11...Oscar pitched winter ball for Mexicali, going 7-2 with a save, 4.36 ERA and 56 K in 14 games (11 starts)...His win total was tops on his club and tied for third in the league.

2001: Oscar spent the entire season at AA, finishing second on the staff with 27 starts, 140.2 innings and 108 strikeouts...He went 4-1 in his six starts during May with a 3.82 ERA...He fanned a season-high 10 batters at Wichita on 6/27...Missed his final start of the season due to bone chips in his right elbow...After the season he returned to Mexico and played winterball for Mexicali, going 6-2 with a 2.55 ERA in 14 starts.

2000: Oscar played at four levels, opening the year with a win in relief for Tucson (AAA) on 5/6, tossing 2.2 scoreless innings with 4 K...Was 1-0, 1.66 ERA as a starter for South Bend (A) and 0-3, 9.82 in relief...He made one appearance for Tucson (R) and finished the season at High Desert (A), going 0-1 with a 4.76 ERA in five relief appearances before closing the year with four starts, going 0-1 with a 2.70 ERA.

1999: He made his pro debut on June 24 with Tucson in the rookie level Arizona League...He was second on the staff with 11 starts, 64.1 innings pitched and 51 Ks.

PERSONAL/MISC: Married, wife Claudia...Resides in Nuevo Leon, Mexico, where he was a 1998 graduate from Prepa High School No. 16...Signed by Ossie Alvarez.

Executive Biographies

Roy Clark

Director of Scouting

Roy Clark, with the Braves in various scouting capacities since 1989, was named Director of Scouting in July of 1999 and in that role is primarily responsible for directing the amateur scouting for the entire organization.

Clark, 49, a national supervisor in the Braves' scouting department from 1996 until his appointment as Director, served as an area scout for the club from 1989 through 1994. He spent 1995 as scouting supervisor for the Southeast.

Prior to joining the Braves, Clark was a coach in the Seattle Mariners' organization in 1984 and 1985 and an area scout for the Mariners the next two years. He was an area scout for the Cleveland Indians in 1988 and the first part of 1989.

Clark, an all-Atlantic Coast Conference infielder at North Carolina in 1979, was selected by the Mariners in the 24th round of the June draft that year. He advanced as high as the AAA Pacific Coast League in 1982. He and his wife Debbie have three children, Justin, Travis and Lauren.

Rene Francisco

Director of International Scouting

Rene Francisco returns to the Atlanta Braves organization after spending the previous three years with the Los Angeles Dodgers as the Director of International Scouting. Rene's primary responsibilities are overseeing all aspects of international scouting operations.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Rene spent 10 years with the Braves organization in a variety of scouting roles. His first position was in 1995 as an International Scout, held for three seasons. He also worked as an Area Coordinator (Florida) during the 1998 and 1999 season and as the International Coordinator (Latin America) from 2000-2002.

Francisco was instrumental in the signing of Rafael Furcal (Los Angeles Dodgers), the Atlanta Braves 2000 Rookie of the Year, and Wilson Betemit, a top-prospect in the Braves organization.

Francisco, his wife, Claudia, and their son Diego reside in Wellington, FL.

Dick Balderson

Special Assistant to the General Manager
Major League Scout

Balderson returned to Scouting in 2003 after having served as the Braves' Director of Player Development since July of 1999. He had previously worked as a major league scout for the Braves from 1997-1999. Balderson, 59, joined the Braves after having served the Colorado Rockies as Director of Player Development from 1992 through 1994 and then Vice President – Player Personnel from 1995 through 1997.

He began his executive career as assistant farm director for the Kansas City Royals in 1976. After a series of promotions that culminated with his being appointed Director of Scouting and Player Development in 1981, he moved to the Seattle Mariners as Vice President of Baseball Operations from October of 1985 until November of 1988. He then joined the Chicago Cubs as Director of Scouting before being named Vice President of Scouting and Player Development in 1990.

A former pitcher in the Royals' minor league system, Balderson is a graduate of the University of Richmond and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in 1995.

Tim Conroy

Special Assistant to the General Manager
Major League Scout

Tim Conroy was promoted to Special Assistant to the General Manager/Major League Scout in December of 2004. Entering his fifth year with the Braves organization, he previously served as a National Cross Checker for two years (2003, 2004) and was a National Supervisor for two years (2001, 2002).

A former pitcher, Conroy was drafted in the first round of the 1978 amateur draft by Oakland and spent eight years (1978-1985) in the Athletics organization before being traded to St. Louis in 1986. Conroy pitched his final three seasons in St. Louis and rejoined the organization in 1994 to begin his scouting career. Conroy was an Area Scout from 1994-1998 and served as an East Coast Regional Supervisor from 1999-2000 for the Cardinals.

Tim, his wife Michele, and their two daughters, Jenna and Brooke, reside in Monroeville, PA. Their son, T.J., is a senior in college.

Jim Fregosi

Special Assistant to the General Manager
Major League Scout

Jim Fregosi joined the Atlanta Braves in November of 2000 after spending two years as manager of the Toronto Blue Jays.

Fregosi opened his managerial career in 1978 and spent four seasons with the California Angels. He managed three seasons with the Chicago White Sox (1986-88), six with the Philadelphia Phillies (1991-1996) and two with the Blue Jays (1999-2000). Fregosi posted a career mark of 1028-1095 and has taken two teams into postseason play. In 1979, he led the Angels to their first playoff appearance and in 1993 was in charge of a Phillies team that won the National League Pennant before falling to the Blue Jays in the World Series.

Fregosi served as the Special Assistant to the General Manager for the San Francisco Giants during the 1997 and 1998 seasons. During his 18-year Major League playing career, the former shortstop spent time with Los Angeles (AL), California, New York (NL), Texas, and Pittsburgh. A career .265 hitter, Fregosi was named to the American League All-Star team six times.

Duane Larson

Special Assistant to the General Manager
Major League Scout

Duane Larson came to the Braves organization in 2003 from Toronto, where he worked in scouting and player development for 26 years. Larson joined the Blue Jays organization in 1977, working as minor league scout and Manager of Utica in the New York-Penn League.

The former infielder played in the Padres system from 1972-1976, and began coaching as a player/coach with Reno of the California League in 1975 and 1976. From 1982-1984 Larson managed at Medicine Hat, where he took the team to a Pioneer League Championship in 1982. In 1985 Larson became a scouting supervisor. He was named a special assignment scout in 1994, and in 1996 Larson captured Toronto's Al LaMacchia Award for excellence in scouting.

Larson graduated from the University of Santa Clara, majoring in Economics.

Jose Martinez

Special Assistant to the General Manager
Player Development

Jose Martinez, whose professional baseball career dates back to 1960, is in his 11th year as Special Assistant to the General Manager/Player Development. Martinez, 64, came to the Braves before the 1995 season after serving eight years as the Chicago Cubs' first base coach.

Martinez spent 12 years (1960-71) as an infielder in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization, playing for the major league club in 1969 and 1970, and then played three seasons (1972-1974) with the Royals' AAA Omaha team. He managed four years in Kansas City's farm system, 1976 and 1978-79 at Sarasota and 1977 at Daytona Beach before coaching for the Royals from 1980 through 1987.

Martinez stayed active in the winter, managing in Colombia, South America, from 1979 through 1984, winning three championships and being named Manager of the Year in 1980-1982. He also worked in the Venezuelan winter league, managing at LaGuaira in 1985-87, Barquisimiento in 1988 and Cabimas in 1992. His 1985 LaGuaira team won the Venezuelan championship and finished second in the Caribbean series.

Chuck McMichael

Special Assistant to the General Manager
Major League Scout

Chuck McMichael joined the Atlanta organization in September of 2000 as Special Assistant to the General Manager and Major League Scout. McMichael served as Director of Scouting in the Texas Rangers' organization from 1996 until 2000.

Before going to the Rangers, McMichael had spent 15 years as a scout with the Kansas City Royals' organization, the last10 of those as a National Crosschecker. He originally signed with the Royals as a lefthanded pitcher in 1979 and played three years in their minor league system. McMichael became an area scout in Los Angeles in 1982, moved to the Northern California area in 1985, and became National Crosschecker in 1987. He has been involved in scouting and signing of major leaguers such as Mike MacFarlane, Jeff Conine and Carlos Beltran.

McMichael pitched on the 1976 University of Arizona National Championship team and went on to graduate from LaVerne (CA) College. McMichael and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Patrick and Andrew.

Bob Schaefer

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Bob Schaefer enters his first season with the Braves organization as Special Assistant to the General Manager after spending the previous four seasons with the Kansas City Royals as the bench coach and infielders coach.

Schaefer has seven seasons of managerial experience, including managing in the New York Yankees minor league system in 1980-81 and the New York Mets organization in 1982. He first joined the Royals organization in 1987 and served as the manager of Double-A Memphis in 1987, the Royals first base coach from 1988-90, the bench coach and interim manager in 1991 and as a Special Assignment Scout in 1993. In 1993, he joined the Boston Red Sox as a Special Assignment Scout, then served as the Director of Player Development from 1994 to 1998. In 1999, he joined the Baltimore Orioles as the Special Assistant to the General Manager, a position he held until returning to the Royals in 2001. Schaefer was selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1966 June Free Agent Draft and spent three seasons in the Cardinals organization as a shortstop (1966-68).

Schaefer graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1967 with a Bachelor's degree, and later returned to receive his Master's degree in Physical Education. He and his wife, Betty, reside in Fort Myers, FA. They have two children, Lori and Jamie.

Paul Snyder

Special Assistant to the General Manager
Major League Scout

Paul Snyder, Special Assistant to the General Manager, was elected into the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame in 2005. Snyder was also honored by Baseball America in 2001 with the Excellence in Scouting Award for the last 20 years (1982-2001). In 1992, Snyder was named the East Coast Scout of the Year by the Scout of the Year Foundation. He has been with the Braves' organization since he signed as a player in 1957. Snyder served as Director of Scouting and Player Development from 1996-1999 and in 2000 became Special Assistant to the General Manager, a position he had previously held from 1991-1995.

Snyder's playing career was slowed by a back operation in 1960 and, by 1963, he had become a player-manager at Greenville. After managing West Palm Beach in 1965, he spent 1966, the Braves' first season in Atlanta, as Director of Stadium Operations. He became a scout in 1967, managed Greenwood in 1972 and then was named Bill Lucas' Assistant Minor League Administrator the next season.

The Braves then promoted him to Director of Scouting in 1977 and Assistant Vice President of Scouting in 1983. Paul and his wife, Petie, live in Murphy, NC, have two children, Michael and Lauren, and four grandchildren.

Tyrone Brooks — Director of Baseball Administration

Tyrone Brooks became Director of Baseball Administration, effective January 2006, after previously serving as the Director of Baseball Operations since July 2004. Tyrone is responsible for providing statistical analysis and assisting with contract negotiations, arbitration preparation and player salary information.

Brooks originally joined the Braves organization as a Baseball Operations Trainee in May of 1996 through the Atlanta Braves' Career Initiative Program. He was then hired as Administrative Assistant/Scouting and Player Development in July of 1996 before being promoted to Baseball Operations Assistant in November of 1996. From November, 1999 through August, 2002, Brooks served as an Area Scouting Supervisor for Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, North Dakota and South Dakota. Following Brooks' area scouting supervisor position, he returned to the Braves front office where he was the Assistant Director of Player Personnel for two years.

A native of Glen Burnie, MD, Brooks graduated from the University of Maryland at College Park in 1996, double-majoring in Accounting and Marketing. While at the University of Maryland, he was a staff photographer for the Terrapin Yearbook and the highly-acclaimed student newspaper, The Diamondback. Tyrone, 32, and his wife Stephanie reside in Atlanta.

Marco Paddy — Director of Latin America Operations

Marco Paddy was named the Director of Latin American Operations in August 2004. Paddy previously held the position of Assistant Director of Player Development from August 2002 until August 2004 and prior to that role spent nine years as an Area Scouting Supervisor in Georgia, Florida and the country of Panama. Marco's responsibilities include developing cultural assimilation programs for all Braves international players who play in the United States and at the Braves academy in San Francisco De Marcoris.

Paddy was selected by the Braves as a catcher in the 1988 Free Agent Draft and signed by Ralph Garr. After his professional career ended, he served as Assistant Coach and Recruiting Coordinator for his alma mater, Southern University in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Paddy earned his Bachelor of Science degree in engineering and his master's degree in administration, both from Southern University. Paddy, 42, a native of Panama, currently lives in Atlanta with his wife Guadalupe, his son Marco Jr. and his daughter, Victoria.

Chino Cadahia — Minor League Field Coordinator

After two years as the roving catching instructor for the Braves, Chino Cadahia was named to the position of Minor League Field Coordinator in November of 1997.

Cadahia, 47, came to the Braves in 1996 after serving in the Texas Rangers organization for 12 years as a pitching coach and manager in their minor league system. He began his coaching career as a pitching coach at Salem of the Carolina League from 1984 through 1985. The following year he managed Daytona Beach of the Florida State League. In 1987 he managed at Gastonia of the South Atlantic League. During his last stint,1988 through 1995, Cadahia managed the Rangers' Gulf Coast League rookie squad in Port Charlotte, Florida.

After being drafted by Philadelphia out of Miami-Dade Community College, Cadahia spent seven minor league seasons, 1977 to 1983, with the Phillies and Minnesota Twins. Chino and his wife Lynn reside in Visalia, CA, with daughter Lauren.

J.J. Picollo — Director of Minor League Operations

J.J. Picollo was named the Director of Minor League Operations in November, 2005. Prior to his current role, J.J was promoted to the Braves' front office and named the Assistant Director of Player Developement in July 2004 after serving as an Area Scouting Supervisor for Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Washington, DC, the previous five years. J.J.'s responsibilities include assisting in all aspects of the minor league operation.

Prior to joining the Braves in 1999, Picollo served as a Recruiting Coordinator and Hitting/Catching Instructor for a total of five years, three at George Mason University and two at George Washington University.

Picollo was drafted on two different occassions by the Cincinnati Reds (1989 and 1993) and eventually signed with the New York Yankees after his senior year at GMU in 1994. He played his first two years of college baseball at North Carolina State University and earned his bachelors degree in communications at GMU and his master's degree in sport administration from GWU. J.J. and his wife Nicole reside in Duluth, GA, with their three children, Michael, Ryan, and Lauren.

2006 Minor League Directory

Richmond Braves

P.O. Box 6667
Richmond, VA 23230
(804) 359-4444

Stadium: The Diamond
3001 N. Boulevard
Richmond, VA 23230
League: International
Class: AAA
General Manager: Bruce Baldwin
P.R. Director: John Emmett

Manager: Brian Snitker joins the Richmond Braves staff from Mississippi, after serving as the organization's AA manager for the past four seasons (2005 Mississippi and 2002-2004, Greenville) Snitker spent 1999-2001 as the Myrtle Beach Pelicans' manager, winning two championships in three years. In 2000, Snitker led Myrtle Beach to an 88-52 record, winning the Southern Division by 11 games. In 1998, as manager of the Macon Braves, Snitker led an inexperienced club to a second half South Atlantic League title with a 39-32 record. In 1997, he led the Macon Braves to an 80-60 season which included winning both first and second half division titles. For his efforts, Snitker was named Manager of the Year in the South Atlantic League. In 1996, Snitker led the Danville Braves of the Appalachian League to a second place finish with a 37-29 record.

His previous managerial stops also include Macon (1992), Durham (1983, 1984, and 1987), Sumter (1986), and Anderson (1982). Snitker also served as bullpen coach on the Atlanta Braves major league coaching staff during the 1985 season and from 1988-1990.

Signed by the Braves as a free agent in 1977, Snitker was a catcher for four years in the team's minor league system. His best season was 1979, when he hit .255 with eight HR and 30 RBI in 75 games at Savannah. He is credited with hitting one of the longest homers ever seen at Orlando's Tinker Field, belting a ball over 500 feet on May 6, 1979. Snitker, a 1973 graduate of Macon (IL) High School, attended the University of New Orleans. Brian and his wife, Veronica, reside in Lilburn, GA, with their two children, Erin and Troy.

Pitching Coach: Derek Botelho comes to the Richmond coaching staff from the Danville Braves where he was the pitching coach for the 2005 season. Botelho was a member of the GCL Braves coaching staff for the 2003 and 2004 season when, in 2003, he led the pitching staff to the third best combined ERA in the GCL.

Prior to joining the Braves organization, Botelho spent the past 12 seasons as a pitching coach in the Reds organization. The former right-handed hurler pitched professionally from 1976-1989, including Major League stints with Kansas City (1982) and Chicago-NL (1985). He attended Miami Dade South Junior College and was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies in 1976. In his minor league career, Botelho compiled over 100 wins. Botelho, 48, resides in Burlington, IA.

Coach: Rick Albert enters his fourth year with the Richmond Braves. Before joining Richmond in 2003 Albert managed the Gulf Coast League Braves for five years (1998-2002). Albert was named the Braves organization's Manager of the Year in 2000 after leading the team to a 26-34 record and a third place finish in the Eastern Division race. In 1999, Albert led the GCL Braves to a 27-33 mark.

Albert, 52, a West Seneca, New York, native, has been a player, manager or coach within the Atlanta Braves organization every year since 1972. In previous managerial stops within the Atlanta Braves farm system, Albert managed at Burlington (1988), Anderson (1983-1984), and Pulaski (1982). In addition, Albert has coached at various levels within the Braves farm system, including Richmond (1987), Durham (1994), Eugene (1996), Bradenton (1978-1981, 1989-1991), and the complex-based Gulf Coast Braves (1992, 1993, 1995). Rick, his wife, Veronica, and their three children, Keith, Luke and Jill, reside in Hollywood, FL.

Trainer: Jay Williams begins his fourth season with the Richmond Braves after spending eight years as the athletic trainer at Double-A Greenville. Aside from his trainer duties for the Richmond Braves, Jay is also responsible for coordinating the Atlanta Braves minor league training staff.

Williams, 40, is a three-time winner of the Southern League's Trainer of the Year award, garnering the honor in 1998, 2000, and 2001. Named Minor League Baseball's Outstanding Trainer by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society in 1998, Jay has been in the Braves' organization since 1994. In addition to working for the Greenville Braves from 1996-2002, Williams logged two seasons with the Durham Bulls in 1994 and 1995. He served as trainer in the Montreal Expos' and Milwaukee Brewers' systems prior to joining the Atlanta organization. This marks Williams' second stint in the International League as he served as the athletic trainer for the Ottawa Lynx in 1993.

Mississippi Braves

PO Box 97389
Pearl, MS 39288
(601) 932-8788

Stadium: Trustmark Park
One Braves Way
Pearl, MS 39208
League: Southern
Class: AA
General Manager: Steve DeSalvo
P.R. Director: Nicholas Skinner

Manager: Jeff Blauser makes his managerial debut in 2006 as the Manager of the Mississippi Braves after spending the past three seasons as a roving instructor in the Braves minor league system.

Blauser, who was drafted by the Atlanta Braves in 1984, reached the major leagues with Atlanta in 1987. For 10 consecutive seasons Blauser was a mainstay in the Braves infield and compiled a career batting average of .262 with 217 doubles, 122 home runs and 513 RBI. Blauser also reached base via hit-by-pitch 91 times in his major league career and only grounded into 77 double plays in 13 big-league seasons. Blauser's strong suit was his defense, posting a career fielding percentage of .962.

After spending 11 seasons with the Braves, Blauser ended his career following a two year stint with the Chicago Cubs. He later returned to the Braves organization in a roving instructors role.

Jeff and his wife Andee reside in Alpharetta, Ga., with their children Abbie (6) and Cooper (3).

Pitching Coach: Kent Willis returns for his 11th season as a coach in the Atlanta Braves farm system and his second with the Mississippi Braves. Willis' 2003 Rome Braves pitching staff finished with a 2.95 ERA, second best in the league. His 1998 season was with the Gulf Coast Braves, sharing coaching duties with veteran pitching coach Eddie Watt. The duo also shared duties in 1996 during Willis' first season of professional coaching. Willis spent the 1997 season as pitching coach for the Danville Braves of the Appalachian League. During the winter of 1997, he served as a pitching coach for Escogido of the Dominican Summer League. The previous winter he was a pitching coach with Laguira of the Venezuelan Winter League.

Willis, 37, pitched four years in the minor leagues within the Cincinnati Reds, Kansas City Royals and Montreal Expos organizations from 1986-1989. A native of Columbus, Mississippi, Willis received his degree in Athletic Administration and Sociology from the University of Southern Mississippi in 1987. Kent and his wife, Sheila, reside in Jackson, MS, with their two children, Cario and Kenyatta.

Coach: Phillip Wellman is in his second season with the Mississippi Braves after managing for one season (2004) with the Danville Braves. Prior to that he coached in the Cincinnati Reds organization since 1996. His coaching career began in 1988 when he was a hitting instructor for the Pulaski Braves. Wellman coached in the Braves organization from 1988-1991 before becoming manager of the extended spring Baltimore Gulf Coast team for a year before joining the Reds.

Wellman's playing days lasted from 1984-1987. He spent his first three minor league seasons in the Atlanta Braves farm system with Anderson ('84), Sumter ('85), and Durham ('86), and then moved on to play in the Twins and Pirates farm systems. He attended Sam Houston State University from 1980-1982 and earned a Bachelor of Science in Education from Southwestern University at Georgetown, Texas, in 1985. He was selected as a coach for the Futures Game in 2002 and selected as "Prospect Manager" of the Southern League by Baseball America in 2003. Wellman, 43, resides in Spring Branch, TX, with his wife, Montee, and their two children Britnee, 17, and Brett, 14.

Trainer: Mike Graus begins his 14th season with the Braves and second with the Mississippi Braves. Graus originally started with the Idaho Falls Braves and has had assignments in Danville, Eugene, Macon and Myrtle Beach. He graduated from the University of Alabama-Birmingham and became a certified trainer in 1991. Graus has spent several winters in the instructional league as well as in the Venezuelan winter league. Graus, his wife, Erica, and their daughter Ashton, reside in Surfside Beach, SC.

(843) 918-6002

Stadium: Coastal Federal Field
1251 21st Avenue North
Myrtle Beach, SC 29577
League: Carolina
Class: A
General Manager: Gary Saunders
Assistant General Manager: Matt Harris

Manager: Ralph "Rocket" Wheeler begins his first season as the Pelicans manager after managing three seasons for the Rome Braves. During the 2003 season, Wheeler led the Rome Braves to the South Atlantic League Championship with a 78-61 overall record and a 1st-half division title en route to being named the Braves' minor league system's Minor League Coach of the Year. A native of Houston, Texas, Wheeler spent 26 seasons in the Toronto Blue Jays organization as a player, coach, and manager. From 2000-2002, he was manager of the Tennessee Smokies of the Southern League.

The 49-year-old Wheeler, attended the University of Houston where he majored in Health and Physical Education, while playing baseball for the Cougars. Wheeler played six years in the Blue Jays farm system and began his coaching career in 1981 while also a full-time player at Florence. In 1999 at Dunedin, Wheeler was named Florida State League Manager of the Year, leading his team to an 85-51 record. In 1996 at St. Catharine, Wheeler was awarded the inaugural Boby Mattick Award for excellence in player development after being named the Manager of the Year in the New York-Penn League.

He now resides in Pawleys Island, SC, with his wife Leigh and their son Marty, 22, and daughter Kate, 16.

Pitching Coach: Bruce Dal Canton returns for his eighth season as pitching coach with Myrtle Beach. In 2004, Dal Canton's pitching staff led the Carolina League with 1051 strikeouts and 19 shutouts and placed second in the league with a 3.44 ERA. In 2002, his pitching staff finished with a 70-61 record and a 3.20 ERA (2nd in the Carolina League) and in 2000, his Pelicans' pitching staff led the Carolina League with a team ERA of 2.51. Prior to joining Myrtle Beach in 1999, Dal Canton worked with the Danville 97's in the same capacity. He served as pitching coach with the Greenville Braves from 1994-1997, which included a Southern League Championship in 1997. Dal Canton, 60, was pitching coach for the Richmond Braves from 1991 to 1993 after serving the major league staff as its pitching coach from 1987 to 1990. Dal Canton has been a fixture in the organization since 1982 when he joined the Atlanta Braves as a roving minor league pitching instructor. He was pitching coach at Savannah in 1983, Greenville in 1984, and Richmond in 1985 and 1986.

Over a 12-year major league career beginning in 1967, Dal Canton compiled a 51-49 log as a spot starter with the Pirates, Royals, Braves and White Sox. Primarily a reliever with Pittsburgh, Dal Canton went 20-8 for the Pirates between 1967 and 1970. He pitched over a year without a loss, recording a 7-0 mark from June 29, 1969 to July 20, 1970. With Kansas City, Dal Canton set a Royals' club record (later broken by Steve Busby in 1974) when he retired 23 consecutive batters against the Yankees on August 14, 1972. Signed by the Braves after his release by Kansas City in 1975, Dal Canton pitched in Atlanta through 1976. The White Sox signed him as a free agent in April of 1977, and after his release in June of 1978, he served as the White Sox pitching coach for the remainder of the season.

Dal Canton attended California University of Pennsylvania and the University of West Virginia, earning a B.S. degree in Education and a Master's Degree in Biology. Bruce and his wife, Helene, reside in Carnegie, PA.

Coach: Franklin Stubbs returns for his second season as the Myrtle Beach Pelicans coaching staff after serving as a Roving Instructor for two years (2003-2004) in the Atlanta Braves organization. Prior to the 2003 season Stubbs was the Minor League Hitting Instructor from 1999-2002 and during the 1998 season he managed the Danville 97's, the Braves A Carolina League affiliate. Stubbs originally joined the Braves in 1997 as a coach for the Danville Braves.

Originally drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers as a first round draft pick in 1982, Stubbs played 10 years in the major leagues for four different clubs, including Los Angeles (1984-1989), Houston (1990), Milwaukee (1991-1992) and Detroit (1995) and was a member of the 1988 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers. Franklin attended Virginia Tech University and was inducted into the Athletics Hall of Fame in 1992. Franklin, 45, and his wife LaTanya reside in Prospect, KY, with their four children, Paige, Blaine, Michael and Celeste.

Trainer: Ricky Alcantara comes to Myrtle Beach from the GCL Braves where he worked as their head trainer for two seasons. Alcantara received a bachelor's degree in exercise sports and sciences from Texas State University in San Marcos in May 2003. He served as head athletic trainer for baseball (2003), women's soccer (2002), and track and field (2002), while majoring in athletic training and acquiring a minor in health and wellness promotion. Alcantara was an intern for the Braves Instructional League in 2003 and also worked a Colorado Rockies home stand from July 9-13, 2003. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association as well as being certified by the American Red Cross for CPR and First Aid. Alcantara is a licensed and certified athletic trainer and resides in Dallas, TX.

Rome Braves

PO Box 5515
Rome, GA 30162
(706) 368-9388

Stadium: State Mutual Stadium
411 Broad Street
Rome, GA 30161
League: South Atlantic
Class: A
General Manager: Mike Dunn

Manager: Randy Ingle begins his 15th season as a manager in the Braves organization and his first with the Rome Braves. Ingle spent the previous four seasons with the Myrtle Beach Pelicans, and prior to that Ingle managed in Macon for one year (2001) and in Richmond for two years (1999-2000). In his 15 seasons Ingle has twice been named the organization's Manager of the Year (1996 & '97).

He made the move up to Richmond after leading the Greenville Braves to a 67-72 record in 1998, which included a 37-32 second-place finish in the second half. In 1997, Ingle led the Greenville Braves to the Southern League Championship and was named Southern League Manager of the Year. In 1996, he led the Durham Bulls of the Carolina League to a 73-66 record, including a 38-31 first place finish in the first half. Ingle's previous managerial stints also include stops at Macon (1993) and Pulaski (1990-1992).

Ingle, a former infielder, played within the Braves farm system from 1979 to 1987, including an appointment as a player-coach at Greenville in 1987. Randy and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Forest City, NC with their two children, Taylor and Meghan.

Pitching Coach: Jim Czajkowski returns for his second season with the Rome Braves. Previously Czajkowski was the Danville pitching coach for three seasons (2002-2004). An Atlanta Braves' 29th-round selection in the 1986 June draft, the Pittsburgh Pirates obtained him in the Rule 5 draft on December 5, 1989. After a year with the Pirates, he was traded to the Milwaukee Brewers. From 1990-1992, he played for the Brewers until he signed as a free agent with the Chicago Cubs. The Colorado Rockies acquired him in 1993 as a free agent.

He had his first Major League call up in 1994 for the Rockies. Czajkowski finished his professional career with the Toronto Blue Jays in 1996. He ended his playing career with 121 career saves. Czajkowski prides himself in being a member of four championship teams: Colorado Springs (Rockies) AAA, 1995; Iowa Cubs (Cubs) AAA, 1993; Acricebo Wolves, Puerto Rico, 1995; and Stockton Ports (Brewers) A, 1990.

Czajkowski and his wife, Cheri, reside in Sevierville, TN, with their sons Josh and Zak.

Coach: Bobby Moore begins his 10th season of professional coaching and his sixth season with Rome. Moore spent the 1998-1999 season coaching for the Braves' AA affiliate in Greenville. In 1998, he worked under Paul Runge with the Danville 97's. In 1997, his inaugural season of professional coaching, Moore served as a coach with the Eugene Emeralds of the Northwest League.

Moore played with the Braves organization from 1992-1996, when in 1996 a fractured hip cut short his last season in Richmond. A 16th- round draft pick by the Kansas City Royals in 1987, Moore attended Eastern Kentucky University before beginning his first season of professional baseball at Eugene. In 1987, his rookie season, Moore was named to the Northwest League All-Star team after batting .374 and stealing 23 bases in 57 games. In 1989, he led the Florida State League with 85 runs scored. The following year he was named to the Southern League All-Star team after producing a .303 BA and swiping 27 bases in 112 games. During the 1991 season, Moore received a call-up to the majors with the Kansas City Royals which lasted 18 games, resulting in a .357 average in 14 at bats.

In December of 1991, Moore was traded to the Atlanta Braves in exchange for Rico Rossy. He spent the 1992 season at Richmond and after a one-year stint playing for the Laredos of the Mexican League, he rejoined the Royals organization in 1994 before being signed as a free agent by the Richmond Braves in June of that year. Moore finished the conclusion of the 1994 season in a flurry, hitting .366 in 60 games along with 10 steals. During his 10-year professional baseball career, from 1987-1996, Moore compiled a .279 average and had 175 stolen bases.

Trainer: Greg Hall begins his first year as the Rome Braves trainer and his second season with the Atlanta Braves organization. Previously, Hall worked in Orlando at the Braves complex with the Gulf Coast League. Hall graduated from Springfield College in 2004 with a bachelors of science in athletic training. He and his fiancée, Alli, reside in Roanoke, VA, and plan to marry November, 2006.

General Manager: Dave Cross

Manager: Paul Runge returns to the Danville Braves after leading the team to a first place finish in the Appalachian League with a 47-20 (.701). Runge's affiliation with the Atlanta Braves dates back to 1979 when Atlanta selected him in the ninth round of the draft as a shortstop out of Jacksonville University.

Runge previously served as the manager of the Greenville Braves from 1999-2001 and spent the 1998 season as a manager of the Danville 97's, the Atlanta Braves Class A Carolina League affiliate. The 97's, a one-year wonder, moved to their new location in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina after a 58-82 mark under Runge. In 1997 Runge managed the Durham Bulls to a 63-76 record, their final season of affiliation with the Atlanta Braves organization. In previous stops within the Braves farm system, Runge managed at Macon (1996), Eugene (1995), Danville (1994) and Idaho Falls (1993). Runge began his coaching career in 1992 as a coach for Idaho Falls. In addition, Runge also has managed in the Arizona Fall League (1997) and the Australian Winter League (1994-1995).

As a player, Runge played for the Atlanta Braves from 1981-1988 before ending his playing career with the San Diego Padres (1989) and Toronto Blue Jays (1990) organizations. Paul and his wife, Rae, have one child and live in Clewiston, FL.

Pitching Coach: Doug Henry enters his first season with the Danville Braves and second season with the Braves organization. In 2005 Henry worked along-side pitching coach Bruce Del Canton at Myrtle Beach.

The former right-hander pitched professionally from 1985-2002 for five major league clubs, including the Milwaukee Brewers (1991-1994), New York Mets (1995-1997), Houston Astros (1998-2000), San Francisco Giants (2000-2001, 2002) and Kansas City Royals (2001). Following his retirement from professional baseball in 2002, Henry coached for the University of Whitewater. He attended Arizona State University and was signed by the Brewers in 1985.

Coach: Mel Roberts begins his 10th year with the Braves organization and his second season as the coach of the Danville Braves. Roberts spent seven years combined (2001-2004 and 1996-1998) as the coach of the Braves' AA affiliate in Greenville. From 1999-2000 Roberts coached the Richmond Braves. Prior to joining the Atlanta Braves organization, Roberts served as first base coach for the Philadelphia Phillies from 1992-1995. He managed the Spartanburg Phillies from 1988 to 1991 where he won the South Atlantic League Championship in 1988 and was also named as an All-Star manager. Roberts began his coaching career in 1969 with the Phillies organization as a player-coach with Raleigh-Durham. He later worked as a roving outfield instructor (1984,1986) prior to managing at Bend (OR) in 1987.

Roberts, a former outfielder, played nine years of professional baseball from 1961-1970, signing first with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1961. He was out of professional baseball in 1965, playing semi-pro ball for Jenkintown. He signed with the Phillies organization in September of 1965 and played through 1970. After graduating from Abington high School in Abington, PA., Roberts, 60, attended Temple University and Spartanburg Tech. His commitment to the youth of Spartanburg, resulted in the establishment of the Mel Roberts Scholarship Fund. Spartanburg Mayor James Talley proclaimed July 26, 1993 Mel Roberts Day in the community. Roberts and his wife, Lucille, reside in Spartanburg, SC. They have two sons, Jimmy and Juan, and two daughters, Jacqueline and Linda.

Trainer: Chas Miller begins his first year as the Danville Braves Trainer. Miller has previous experience as a trainer in baseball, working as an intern for the Pittsburgh Pirates through the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society and also served as a season athletic trainer with the Jacksonville Jaguars. Chas graduated from West Virginia University with a degree in Athletic Training and received his Master's degree in Sports Psychology from the University of Tennessee. He resides in Morgantown, WV.

Manager: Luis Ortiz returns to the Gulf Coast League Braves for his second season after managing the Danville Braves in 2004 and the Braves Dominican Summer League in 2003. From 1977 through 1980, Ortiz played professionally in the Yankees minor league system winning three championships in four years.

After retiring from playing, Ortiz joined the United States Army where he served 22 years from 1981 until 2002. He served as a part-time scout for the Texas Rangers from 1998 through December 2002 before taking the reins as manager of the Atlanta Braves Dominican Summer League. Ortiz led Braves number 2 DSL team to a 39-27 record and a third place finish overall.

He resides in San Antonio, TX, with his wife, Noris. His daughter, Siobahn, 20, attends college in San Antonio.

Pitching Coach: Derrick Lewis' affiliation with the Atlanta Braves organization dates back to 1997 when the Braves selected him in the 20th round of the June free agent draft. Lewis spent six years (1997-2003) as a pitcher in the Braves minor league system and was selected by the Braves organization as the Myrtle Beach Pitcher of the Year in 1999 when he finished second in the Carolina League in ERA. Lewis enters his third season as a pitching coach for the Gulf Coast League Braves.

Derrick and his wife, Roslyn, reside in Montgomery, AL.

Coach: Sixto Lezcano begins his seventh season in the Braves' organization and sixth season with the Gulf Coast League Braves. After seven years as a member of the Kansas City Royals coaching staff, Lezcano spent 2000 as manager of the Braves affiliate in the Carolina League.

Lezcano served as the Royals' Minor League Outfield Instructor from 1997 through 1999. Prior to being an instructor, Lezcano was a coach at the Class A Wilmington Blue Rocks from 1994 through 1996. In 1993, Lezcano was a coach at Kansas City's Eugene affiliate. The former Major League outfielder played in 1,291 games covering 12 seasons. Lezcano hit .271 with 148 home runs and 591 RBI. He began his career in Milwaukee in 1974 and played with the Brewers for seven years before being traded to St. Louis in 1981. Lezcano played for San Diego in 1982-83, Philadelphia in 1983-84 and Pittsburgh in 1985. He was a member of the 1983 NL pennant winning team, Philidelphia Phillies. Lezcano also played in Japan and in the senior League.

Lezcano, 50 years old, resides in Orlando, FL, with his wife, Mariangelly, daughter, Zurielle, and sons Michael, Steve, and Sergio.

Coach: Jim Saul returns to the GCL Braves for a fifth season. Saul has 15 years of managerial experience within the Atlanta Braves organization. Prior to joining the GCL Braves, Saul managed the Jamestown Jammers for three seasons. Saul managed at various stops within the Braves farm system, including at Eugene (1996-1998), Burlington (1990), Bradenton (GCL; 1991), and West Palm Beach (GCL; 1992-1995).

From 1973 to 1988, he managed and coached within the Chicago Cubs, California Angels, and New York Yankees organizations. Also, he spent the 1975 and 1976 seasons as a member of the Chicago Cubs major league coaching staff, working under manager Jim Marshall. Saul's playing career lasted from 1959 to 1972, as he played for the St. Louis Cardinals, Cincinnati Reds, and Chicago Cubs organizations.

Saul, 64, attended East Tennessee State University after graduating from Virginia High School in Bristol, Virginia. Jim and his wife, Rebecca, reside in Bristol, VA, and have two daughters, Chelsey and Wendy.

Trainer: Drew Van Dam enters his first year with Gulf Coast League Braves and fifth season in the Braves organization. In addition to his athletic training duties, Drew also begins his first season as the Florida Training Operations Coordinator.

Van Dam has previously worked as the head trainer for the Myrtle Beach Pelicans (2005), Rome Braves (2003-2004) and Danville (2002). He played baseball at Springfield College where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Athletic Training in 2000. He also earned a Master's degree in Athletic Training from Ohio University in 2001.

Trainer: Peter Hite enters his first year with the Gulf Coast League Braves. From 2003-2005 Peter worked in physical therapy clinics. During that time he also spent time as the Santa Fe High School Head Athletic Trainer, as well as an independant contractor/athletic trainer for two Northern New Mexico area high schools. Hite spent one year in Morelia, Michoacan, Mexico, doing rehab with Dr. Raul Cadena, the head team doctor of the Monaracas Morelia professional soccer team.

Peter received a bachelor of science degree in athletic training from the University of New Mexico in 2002. He resides in LaMadera, NM.

2005 Review: Rated by Baseball America as the overall ninth-best prospect in the Braves organization. Named Most Valuable Player of the Year for Danville and shared Appy League Co-Player of the Year honors with teammate Max Ramirez. Also named Topps' Minor League Baseball Co-Player of the Year for the Appy League and voted to the 12-player Topps' Class A-Short Season/Rookie League All-Star team. Honored by the Braves organization as the July Co-Player of the Month for the D-Braves. Was Appy League Player of the Week 7/18-24 when he batted .414 (12-for-29) and drove in 10 runs to help lead the D-Braves to six straight wins and a 6-1 mark for the week. The weekly honor was highlighted by a three-game performance when Campbell went a combined 8-for-12 with seven runs, five doubles, a triple and six RBI. His 1.017 OPS was tops among Braves minor leaguers, while his .313 average was fourth best. Dominated the Appy League in power statistics, leading with 26 doubles, 18 home runs (fifth best among Braves minor leaguers), 64 RBI (eighth best among Braves minor leaguers), 77 runs scored (third best among Braves minor leaguers) and a .634 slugging percentage. His 18 homers were best among all short-season players, while the doubles, home runs, RBI and runs scored all set Danville records. 77 runs scored bested the Appy League record, set in 1961 (72) and tied in 1964. Led the Appy League with 18 homers, 64 RBI, 26 doubles, a .527 slugging percentage (.044 points higher than the next closest player), 126 total bases and 77 runs scored. He ranked third in hits (82) and ninth in batting average (.313). Member of the Appy League All-Star team. Named to Baseball America's Postseason Rookie All-Star Team. Had a 12 game hitting streak 7/31-8/10 (.440, 22-for-50). Seven of the 12 games in the hitting streak were multi-hit games. Had a career high five RBI 6/22 and 7/28 and a career high four hits 8/5. 2004: Named by the Braves organization as the Gulf Coast League June Player of the Month when he led the team in home runs (3) and was second in RBI (6).

Braves In The World Series

1914 World Series - Boston 4, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves," who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 World Series - Cleveland 4, Boston 2

The Braves, under manager Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost in the World Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in Game 5, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive home runs off Feller.

1957 World Series - Milwaukee 4, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' 10th-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days' rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 World Series - New York 4, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come back from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two games and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 World Series - Minnesota 4, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic. Four of the last five games were decided on the final pitch and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he singled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first NL player in Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and Series MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 World Series - Toronto 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (the last three setbacks to the Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's sixth-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. Toronto answered back in Game 2 with a comeback 5-4 win, sparked by a ninth-inning, pinch-hit homer by Ed Sprague. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of three runs over Games 3 and 4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. Lonnie Smith's grand slam sparked a 7-2 win in Game 5 to keep the Braves' hopes alive. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the ninth on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8-for-15) with five stolen bases.

1995 World Series - Atlanta 4, Cleveland 2

The Braves captured Atlanta's first championship in a major professional sport by defeating 100-game winner Cleveland in six games. Atlanta's pitching held the American League hitting leaders to a .179 batting average. Tom Glavine earned MVP honors as he notched wins in Game 2 and the decisive Game 6, allowing two earned runs and striking out 11 in 14 innings. The Braves captured Game 1 of the series at home, 3-2, behind Greg Maddux's two-hitter, Fred McGriff's homer in his first World Series at-bat and a Rafael Belliard suicide squeeze bunt. In Game 2 Glavine picked up a 4-3 win as catcher Javy Lopez slugged a game-deciding two-run homer. Cleveland took Game 3 at home, 7-6, in 11 innings, with John Smoltz lasting only 2.1 innings. After falling to Atlanta in Game 4, 5-2, behind a fine pitching effort by Steve Avery, the Indians avoided elimination at home by defeating Maddux, 5-4, in Game 5. The Braves won their first World Series in three tries since moving to Atlanta by winning Game 6, 1-0, behind Glavine's superb one-hit, eight-inning performance. David Justice provided the offense with a dramatic right-field home run blast in the sixth inning, and Mark Wohlers nailed down the save, his second of the series. Marquis Grissom collected nine hits in the series, giving him 25 postseason hits (11 Division Series, 5 NLCS), the most ever in a postseason. Grissom hit safely in all 14 postseason contests, the longest streak ever in one postseason. Third baseman Chipper Jones finished the postseason 19-for-53 (.358, 3 HR), setting a major league record for postseason hits by a rookie. Ryan Klesko became the first player ever to homer in three straight World Series road games. It was the third World Championship in the history of the franchise, making the Braves the first team in history to win world titles in three different cities, the '95 Braves joining their predecessors in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957).

1996 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 2

All signs pointed towards a second straight world championship for the Braves as Atlanta captured the first two games in Yankee Stadium, but an inspired New York team rallied to win the last four contests and the title. Andruw Jones became an immediate World Series legend as he homered in his first two at-bats in Game 1 (3-for-4, 2 HR, 5 RBI), leading the Braves to a 12-1 triumph. Oakland's Gene Tenace (1972) is the only other player to perform that feat. At 19 years, 6 months and 28 days, Jones became the youngest player ever to homer in a Fall Classic. Greg Maddux shut down the Yankees in Game 2, 4-0, allowing only six hits and no walks in 8.0 innings. Of the 24 outs recorded by Maddux, two were strikeouts and 21 others came on ground balls. Fred McGriff had three RBI in Game 2, after getting two in Game 1, to give him 15 RBI for the postseason, a new major league mark. He finished with 16 RBI in the postseason. Including the final three victories over the Cardinals in the LCS, Atlanta had outscored its opponents, 48-2, in its last five games. In Atlanta, the Yankees' Bernie Williams broke a 1-1 tie with a two-run homer in the eighth inning of Game 3, leading New York to a 5-2 win. In Game 4, the Braves held a 6-0 lead entering the 6th inning, but three in half. Still, the Braves held a 6-3 lead in the eighth, when New York's Jim Leyritz reached Mark Wohlers for a three-run homer to tie the game at 6-6. Two 10th-inning runs by the Yankees proved decisive, and the Series was knotted at two games each after the longest game by time (4 hours, 17 minutes) in World Series history. The final game ever played in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium saw New York's Andy Pettitte outduel John Smoltz 1-0 in Game 5, with the only score coming on a fourth-inning unearned run. The Series returned to New York, where the Yankees wrapped up the championship by tagging Maddux for three runs in the third in their 3-2 victory.

The Braves lost the Series despite standout performances by their top three starting pitchers (Smoltz: 0.64 ERA; Maddux: 1.72 ERA; Glavine: 1.29 ERA), and individual heroics on offense by Marquis Grissom (.444 BA) and Andruw Jones (.400 BA).

1999 World Series - New York 4, Atlanta 0

In a rematch of the 1996 World Series, the Braves were held to just nine runs in a four-game sweep by the Yankees. Greg Maddux carried a 1-0 lead into the eighth inning of Game 1, thanks to a Chipper Jones homer in the fourth, but the Yankees parlayed three hits, three walks and two errors into four runs for a 4-1 victory. Jones' homer was Atlanta's only hit in the contest until Bret Boone's ninth-inning single. After the offense's two-hit performance in Game 1, manager Bobby Cox shook up the lineup, inserting Ozzie Guillen, Keith Lockhart and Greg Myers, but were held scoreless until the ninth inning of a 7-2 loss. Kevin Millwood was tagged for five runs (four ER) on eight hits in only 2.0 IP, marking his shortest outing of the season. A change of venue initially aided the offense in Game 3 at New York, as Bret Boone stroked three doubles in the first four innings to lead the Braves to a 5-1 lead. A flu-weakened Tom Glavine allowed solo homers to Chad Curtis in the fifth and Tino Martinez in the seventh to narrow Atlanta's lead to 5-3, before the Yankees tied the score at 5-5 in the eighth on a two-run homer by Chuck Knoblauch, knocking Glavine out of the game. A scoreless ninth sent the contest into extra frames, with Curtis striking again, this time belting a leadoff homer off Mike Remlinger to give the Yankees their third straight win. The Braves, despite collecting 14 hits, were blanked over the final six innings. In Game 4, Roger Clemens shutout Atlanta over the first seven innings of Game 4, and the Yankees' three-run third proved decisive in the 4-1 finale. John Smoltz provided a stellar effort (7.0 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 3 BB, 11 K), but couldn't prevent the Braves' eighth straight loss in the World Series, dating back to Game 3 of the 1996 Fall Classic.

1991 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games 2 and 6; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game 7 in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 series ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Pittsburgh 3

Series MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Pirates in Game 2. The Bucs captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for Game 7 drama. Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the ninth scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win. With their improbable ninth-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive postseason game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 League Championship Series - Philadelphia 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4 to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves with a .435 series batting average.

1995 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, Cincinnati 0

The Braves returned to the World Series for the third time in the last four Fall Classics by sweeping the Reds with the first four-game sweep in NLCS history. Atlanta won Game 1 at Cincinnati in 11 innings, 2-1, after rallying to tie the game in the top of the ninth. Series MVP Mike Devereaux, an August acquisition from the Chicago White Sox, provided the game-winning single in the 11th. Game 2 also was forced into extra frames as the Braves prevailed in 10, 6-2. Javy Lopez provided the finishing touches with a three-run home run in the 10th. Back in Atlanta, Greg Maddux held the Reds to one run over eight innings on the way to a 5-2 victory in Game 3. Rookie sensation Chipper Jones went 3-for-4 with a home run and two RBI, and catcher Charlie O'Brien also added a three-run homer. Starting pitcher Steve Avery nailed down the sweep in Game 4 by leading the Braves to a 6-0 shutout. Avery became the first pitcher in NLCS annals to start three shutouts (also Games 3 and 6 in 1991). Devereaux, forced into the starting lineup after an ailing knee sidelined right fielder David Justice, hit a three-run homer in the seventh inning.

1996 League Championship Series - Atlanta 4, St. Louis 3

The Braves added another chapter to their postseason saga by becoming the first NL team to rebound from a three-games-to-one deficit in the LCS, as they crushed the Cardinals 32-1 over the final three games. Game 1 saw Javy Lopez break a tie in the eighth with a bases-loaded, two-run single, giving the Braves a 4-2 win behind John Smoltz. Chipper Jones led the attack by going 4-for-4, and Mark Wohlers recorded his fourth save in four appearances in the '96 postseason. The momentum in the series shifted in Game 2 when Gary Gaetti's seventh-inning grand slam off Greg Maddux turned a 4-3 Cards' lead into an 8-3 victory. In Game 3, Ron Gant homered twice to account for all the Cards' runs in a 3-2 win. Atlanta seemed to be in control in Game 4, leading 3-0 behind Denny Neagle with two outs and no one on in the St. Louis seventh, but the Redbirds fought back to tie the score, then claimed the lead for good in the eighth on a solo shot by Brian Jordan. With their backs to the wall in Game 5, the Braves struck for five first-inning runs in a 14-0 win, sending the series back to Atlanta. Lopez went 4-for-5 with two doubles and a homer, while Mark Lemke added four hits and Fred McGriff homered in the club's LCS-record 22-hit attack. In Game 6, Maddux blanked the Cardinals through seven innings en route to a 3-1 win. Mark Wohlers' eighth-inning wild pitch accounted for the only Cardinals run in the last three games. In Game 7 the outcome was never in doubt after the Braves scored six in the first, capped by Tom Glavine's three-run triple past a diving Gant. The 15-0 rout broke the Braves' own LCS record for runs in a game and sent Atlanta to its fourth World Series out of the last five played. Lopez MVP honors, batting .542 (13-for-24) with five doubles, two HRs and six RBI.

1997 League Championship Series - Florida 4, Atlanta 2

The Braves, appearing in a record sixth straight LCS, were denied their third straight World Series berth when the Florida Marlins upended Atlanta in six games. Atlanta lost the series despite outhitting Florida .253 to .199. Greg Maddux, who allowed only one unearned run all season, took the loss in Game 1 when the Marlins reached him for five runs, all unearned, in a 5-3 loss. Tom Glavine combined with Mike Cather and Mark Wohlers to hold the Marlins to three hits in a 7-1 victory in Game 2, as Ryan Klesko and Chipper Jones both homered to lead the Braves' 13-hit attack. With the series shifting to Miami, the Marlins took a two-games-to-one advantage with a 5-2 triumph in Game 3, as Charles Johnson broke a 2-2 tie with a three-run double off John Smoltz in the sixth inning. Game 4 saw Denny Neagle blank the Marlins on four hits, 4-0, enabling the Braves to even the series 2-2. Combined with his 3.0 scoreless innings in relief in Game 1, Neagle pitched 12.0 innings of shutout ball in the NLCS, allowing only five hits. Livan Hernandez gave the Marlins the upper hand with a complete-game, 2-1 victory in Game 5, allowing only three hits and notching a NLCS-record 15 strikeouts. The Marlins won the pennant when the series returned to Atlanta by taking a 7-4 decision in Game 6, sparked by a four-run first inning against Glavine. Keith Lockhart led the Braves by hitting .500 (8-for-16).

1998 League Championship Series - San Diego 4, Atlanta 2

Atlanta fought back from a three-games-to-none deficit, but fell short of an unprecedented comeback as the Padres prevailed in six games. The Braves entered the bottom of ninth of Game 1 trailing 2-1, before tying the game against star closer Trevor Hoffman on Andruw Jones' sacrifice fly. Ken Caminiti responded in the top of the 10th with a solo shot off Kerry Ligtenberg, giving the Padres a 3-2 victory. Kevin Brown gave the Padres a spectacular effort in Game 2, holding the Braves to three singles in a 3-0 triumph, marking the first time since 1969 the Braves had dropped the first two games of an NLCS at home. Atlanta's offense didn't benefit immediately with the change of scenery as the series moved west, with San Diego taking a commanding lead with a 4-1 victory over a Braves squad that had managed only three runs over the first 28 innings of the series. Clutch hitting remained elusive, with the Braves loading the bases three times in Game 3 without managing to score in any of those opportunities. Atlanta appeared to be on the verge of being swept in Game 4 when, trailing 3-2 in the seventh inning, the offense finally awoke with a six-run outburst, with an Andres Galarraga grand slam capping the 8-3 win. Braves repeated late-inning heroics in the eighth inning of Game 5 when Michael Tucker erased a 4-2 deficit with a three-run homer off Kevin Brown, who was appearing in a rare relief role for the Padres. Atlanta took a three-run lead into the bottom of the ninth, but a two-run homer by Padres' pinch-hitter Greg Myers sliced the margin to a single run. Greg Maddux came out to make his first relief appearance since 1987 and set the Padres down in order to register his first professional save. Upon return of the series to Atlanta, the offense once again went dormant, as LCS MVP Sterling Hitchcock and four relievers stopped the Braves in Game 6 on two hits, 5-0, with all runs crossing the plate in the sixth inning, as Tom Glavine was victimized by three unearned runs. Failure to produce any type of offense at home sealed the Braves' fate, with the team being held to two runs in 28 innings at Turner Field, with Padres hurlers holding the Braves scoreless over the final 19 frames.

The Braves clinched their fifth NL pennant of the 1990's with an 11-inning, 10-9 triumph over the Mets in Game 6 in Atlanta, concluding a thrilling series that first saw Atlanta come within four outs of a four-game sweep and would later see New York draw to within three outs of forcing a seventh game. Game 1 proved to be the only contest not decided by one run, with Greg Maddux (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 1 BB, 2 K) picking up the 4-2 victory and John Rocker recording the save. In Game 2, Brian Jordan and Eddie Perez blasted two-run homers in the bottom of the sixth to turn a 2-0 deficit into a 4-2 lead that the Braves would never relinquish. Kevin Millwood supplied another strong effort (7.1 IP, 5 H, 3 R, 2 ER, 1 BB, 4 K), with Rocker coming on to douse an eighth-inning fire after the Mets posted an unearned run to make the score 4-3. With the tying run on second and one out, Rocker fanned John Olerud and Robin Ventura (sandwiching an intentional walk to Mike Piazza), and gave way in the ninth to John Smoltz, who fired a 1-2-3 frame to notch the save in his first major league relief outing. After the LCS shifted to New York, the Braves scored an unearned run in the first inning of Game 3, and watched Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 7 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 8 K), Mike Remlinger and Rocker make it stand up in a 1-0 victory that gave the Braves a commanding three-game lead in the series. Game 4 saw the Braves carry a 2-1 lead into the bottom of the eighth, but Olerud's two-out, two-run single plated the tying and go-ahead runs, spoiling a superb outing by Smoltz (ND, 7.1 IP, 4 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K). The Mets sent the series back to Atlanta after prevailing in a 15-inning marathon in Game 5, 4-3, which entered the record books as the longest game in terms of time in major league post-season history. The Braves took a 3-2 lead in the top of the 15th on a two-out RBI triple by Keith Lockhart, but saw the Mets — who hadn't scored since a two-run homer by Olerud in the first — rally for two runs in the bottom of the frame on a bases-loaded walk to Todd Pratt and a Ventura drive over the right field fence that was ruled an RBI single when he left the basepaths. It appeared as if the Braves had finally put the Mets away with a five-run first inning when the series returned to Atlanta for Game 6, but New York battled back to knot the score at 7-7 on a two-run Piazza blast in the seventh off reliever Smoltz, and took the lead in the top of the eighth on a Melvin Mora pinch-hit RBI single. A Brian Hunter run-scoring single in the bottom of the inning tied the score again at 8-8. The contest carried into extra innings, with Todd Pratt's sacrifice fly in the 10th putting the Mets within three outs of a seventh game. Ozzie Guillen responded in the bottom of the 10th with an RBI single off Armando Benitez, against whom the Braves were 1-for-30 all year before the 10th-inning rally, making it a 9-9 contest. The Braves finally settled the issue in the bottom of the 11th when Andruw Jones worked a bases-loaded walk off reliever Kenny Rogers, sending Atlanta to its fifth World Series of the 1990's. Eddie Perez earned MVP honors after batting .500 (10-for-20) with two homers and five RBI.

2001 League Championship Series - Arizona 4, Atlanta 1

The Braves, appearing in their record 11th NLCS, were unable to solve the Diamondbacks' vaunted one-two tandem of Randy Johnson and Curt Schilling, as Arizona captured its first pennant in a 4-1 series victory. The Braves managed only three hits in a 2-0 Johnson shutout in the opener at Phoenix, but did salvage a split of the first two road games as Javy Lopez's two-run homer in the seventh snapped a 1-1 tie, with Atlanta going on to an 8-1 win in Game 2. Tom Glavine (7.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 2 K) notched the Braves only win of the series. Schilling turned in a dominating effort in the Diamondbacks' 5-1 victory in Game 3 in Atlanta, limiting Atlanta to four hits in a complete game effort, while striking out 12. The Braves took a 2-0 lead through two innings as they attempted to even the series in Game 4, but three Atlanta errors aided a four-run D-Back third, giving them a lead they never relinquished in an 11-4 win and a commanding three-games-to-one lead in the series. The Braves committed four miscues overall, leading to six unearned Arizona runs. Arizona completed the three-game sweep in Atlanta and advanced to the World Series with a 3-2 triumph in Game 5, with the D-Backs again capitalizing on a Braves error to tally two unearned runs in the fifth inning that proved to be decisive. While not as effective as in his Game 1 shutout, Johnson still held the Braves to two runs over seven innings, giving him a 1.13 ERA in two starts in the series (16.0 IP, 2 ER, 19 K).

Braves In The Division Series

1995 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Colorado 1

In the first year of the expanded playoff format, the Braves drew wild-card entry Colorado in the best-of-five-series. The series opened at Coors Field in dramatic fashion as the Braves won 5-4. Rookie Chipper Jones swatted his second homer of the game in the ninth inning to give the Braves the lead, and Alejandro Pena and Mark Wohlers held it after the Rockies loaded the bases in the bottom of the ninth with one out. Atlanta staged another rally in Game 2, prevailing 7-4, after trailing 4-3 in the ninth. Marquis Grissom hit two homers in the contest, his second and third of the series. In Atlanta, the Rockies avoided the sweep by hammering two homers and nine hits on the way to a 7-5 win in Game 3. Greg Maddux, Grissom and Fred McGriff led the Braves to a 10-4 victory in Game 4, sending the team to its third straight NLCS appearance. Grissom collected five hits in the finale, setting a franchise record for postseason hits in a game. Fred McGriff hit two homers in the contest.

1996 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Los Angeles 0

Despite hitting only .180 and being held to 10 runs, the Braves swept the Dodgers in three games, as the staff allowed only three earned runs in 28.0 IP (0.96 ERA). Game one in LA saw the Braves continue their tradition of one-run postseason games, as Javy Lopez's 10th-inning homer lifted the team to a 2-1 victory. John Smoltz earned the win, while Mark Wohlers pitched a scoreless 10th inning for the save. In Game 2, Fred McGriff's lead-off HR in the seventh tied the game at 2-2 and, one out later, Jermaine Dye hit another roundtripper to account for the games' final run. Greg Maddux allowed only two unearned runs in 7.0 IP to earn the win, and Wohlers recorded his second save in two games, as the Braves headed back to Atlanta with a two-games-to-none lead. Atlanta completed the sweep as Tom Glavine and Chipper Jones (two-run homer) led the Braves to a 5-2 triumph. Jones' blast followed a two-run double by Mark Lemke, capped a four-run fourth inning, and knocked out Dodgers starter Hideo Nomo.

1997 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves registered their second consecutive Division Series sweep, taking three straight from the Astros. Atlanta never trailed in the series, outscoring Houston, 19-5. Game 1 saw a vintage performance by Greg Maddux in a 2-1 victory, the decisive run coming on a homer by Ryan Klesko in the second inning. The Braves cruised to an easy 13-5 win in Game 2, as the offense broke a 3-3 tie with three runs in the fifth and five more in the sixth. In addition to collecting 10 hits in the contest, the Braves also received 10 walks, including eight issued by starter Mike Hampton. The Braves applied the knockout blow to the Astros in Game 3 at Houston, as John Smoltz went the distance in a dominating three-hitter, taking a 4-1 decision. Braves starters Maddux, Glavine and Smoltz combined for a 1.87 series ERA (3 ER in 24.0 IP).

1998 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Chicago 0

For the third straight season, the Braves recorded a sweep in the Division Series, this time over the Cubs. Dating back to the final game of the 1995 first-round series vs. the Rockies, the Braves had posted 10 straight wins in Division Series competition. Michael Tucker's two-run homer proved to be all the support needed by John Smoltz in Game 1, as the Braves cruised to a 7-1 victory. Ryan Klesko's seventh-inning grand slam accounted for Atlanta's final four tallies. Game 2 featured a classic pitching duel between Tom Glavine and Kevin Tapani, with the Cubs clinging to a 1-0 lead entering the bottom of the ninth. Javy Lopez then blasted a one-out homer, sending the contest into extra innings. In the bottom of the 10th, Chipper Jones delivered a one-out single to plate the winning run and send the Braves to Chicago with a 2-0 series lead. Former Cub Greg Maddux and rookie phenom Kerry Wood faced off in Game 3. Maddux, who led off the third with a double and came around to score on a passed ball, clung to a 1-0 lead through seven innings. The Braves put the game out of reach with a five-run eighth, highlighted by an Eddie Perez grand slam. The Cubs touched Maddux for two runs in the eighth, but Kerry Ligtenberg pitched two scoreless innings and sent the Braves to their record seventh straight NLCS.

1999 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 1

The Braves rebounded from a 6-1 loss in Game 1 to take three straight from the Astros and advance to their record eighth straight NLCS. Atlanta's offense managed only one run on seven hits in the opener in Atlanta, with Greg Maddux absorbing the defeat. Kevin Millwood stepped up in Game 2 and turned in a masterpiece, hurling the fifth one-hitter in postseason history as the Braves evened the series with a 5-1 victory. Millwood allowed only a second-inning homer to Ken Caminiti. Eddie Perez plated the go-ahead run with a sixth-inning sacrifice fly. The series shifted to Houston, where the two clubs put on an extra-inning postseason classic in Game 3. Atlanta escaped with a 5-3 victory as Brian Jordan supplied all five runs, courtesy of a three-run, sixth-inning homer (erasing a 2-0 deficit), followed by a two-run double in the 12th. With the score tied 3-3 in the bottom of the 10th, the Astros loaded the bases with no one out, only to see John Rocker come in and slam the door, with stellar support from shortstop Walt Weiss. Weiss saved the Braves with a diving stop of a one-out Tony Eusebio liner up the middle, which resulted in a force at home, followed by a Rocker strikeout of Ricky Guiterrez to end the frame. After Jordan's go-ahead double in the 12th, Kevin Millwood was brought in from the bullpen and registered the save with a 1-2-3 inning. Braves appeared to have the series sewed up thanks to a five-run sixth in Game 4, giving Atlanta a 7-0 lead, only to see Houston storm back to narrow the Braves' lead to 7-5 in the eighth, with Caminiti striking the big blow with a three-run homer. A leadoff walk to Stan Javier in the bottom of the ninth again brought the tying run to the plate, but Rocker fanned Jeff Bagwell and Carl Everett, before Andruw Jones ran down a Caminiti blast to the warning track to end the series.

2000 Division Series - St. Louis 3, Atlanta 0

The Cardinals jumped on Braves' starters Greg Maddux, Tom Glavine and Kevin Millwood and cruised to a three-game sweep of the Braves, who had won five straight Division Series entering this one. The Redbirds set the tone for the series in the bottom of the first of Game 1, striking for six runs off Maddux, although a Chipper Jones error accounted for two of those tallies being unearned. Cardinals starter Rick Ankiel's bout of wildness (four walks, five wild pitches) contributed to the Braves' four-run rally in the third inning, narrowing the deficit to 6-4. Four Cardinal relievers held the Braves in check thereafter, however, allowing only a ninth-inning run as St. Louis claimed a 7-5 victory. In Game 2, the Braves scored two runs in the top of the first, but Will Clark's three-run homer in the bottom of the frame quickly erased the Braves' only lead of the series. Tom Glavine was tagged for seven earned runs in 2.1 IP, the second-shortest postseason outing of his career as the Cardinals took a 10-4 decision. The change of venue didn't help the Braves, as Fernando Vina opened Game 3 in Atlanta with a leadoff homer off Kevin Millwood and the Cardinals went on to complete a sweep of the series with a 7-1 victory.

2001 Division Series - Atlanta 3, Houston 0

The Braves, appearing in the Division Series for the seventh straight year, took three in a row from the Astros to advance to their record 11th NLCS. Atlanta's pitching was dominant in the sweep, with the staff compiling a 1.67 ERA. Greg Maddux kept the Astros at bay in hitter-friendly Enron Field in Game 1, only to see Houston maintain a 3-2 lead heading into the eighth inning. Keith Lockhart's leadoff pinch-hit double was followed by a Marcus Giles single to even the score at 3-3, and two batters later, Chipper Jones deposited Astros closer Billy Wagner's first pitch into the left field seats for the decisive three-run homer in an eventual 7-4 win. Tom Glavine starred in Game 2, blanking the Astros over 8.0 innings and making an unearned Braves run in the second inning stand up for a 1-0 win, with John Smoltz recording the save. Home runs by Paul Bako and Julio Franco provided Atlanta with three runs over the first three innings and John Burkett teamed with four relievers to shut down Houston's high-powered offense en route to a 6-2 victory in Game 3. Chipper Jones finished the series with a .444 avaerga, including two homers and five RBI, while Andruw Jones went 6-for-12 with a solo home run.

2002 Division Series - San Francisco 3, Atlanta 2

The Braves took a two-games-to-one lead in their record eighth straight Division Series, only to see the Giants rebound to capture the final two contests and the series. Braves faced an 8-2 deficit in Game 1, and after a three-run rally in the bottom of the seventh, went on to bring the tying run to the plate with two men aboard and no outs in the ninth. Giants closer Robb Nen, however, squelched the uprising by retiring Julio Franco on a liner to right and inducing a game-ending double play from Gary Sheffield. In Game 2, back-to-back homers by Javy Lopez and Vinny Castilla sparked a three-run second inning, and Kevin Millwood combined with three relievers to make the lead stand up for a 7-3 Braves win, evening the NLDS at a game apiece. The series moved to San Francisco for Game 3, in which the Braves snapped a 1-1 tie with a five-run sixth, courtesy of a bases-loaded single by Vinny Castilla, and a three-run homer on the next pitch by Keith Lockhart en route to a 10-2 win. Needing one more win to clinch the series, the Braves sent Tom Glavine to the mound in Game 4, but the Giants tagged Glavine for the second time in the series, with the Giants sending the series to a fifth and final game in Atlanta. A second-inning solo homer by former Brave Reggie Sanders and a fourth-inning blast by Barry Bonds proved to be decisive, as Russ Ortiz and four Giants relievers stymied the Braves offense in a 3-1 clincher. Atlanta put runners on first and third in the bottom of the ninth with no outs against Nen, but saw him escape by fanning Sheffield and inducing Chipper Jones to hit into a game-ending double play.

The Braves, in their ninth straight Division Series, matched up with the Chicago Cubs in a back-and-forth five-game series that ended with the Cubs taking Game 5 at Turner Field to send them to the NLCS. Chicago's pitching tandem of Kerry Wood and Mark Prior were the story. In Game 1, Wood took over. In addition to a dominating performance on the mound, Wood broke the game open with his two-run sixth-inning double to lead the Cubs to a 4-2 win in front of 52,043 in Atlanta. Russ Ortiz struggled, especially in the sixth when Moises Alou, Aramis Ramirez and Eric Karros led off with three straight singles. Robert Fick then bobbled a potential double play ball off the bat of Paul Bako, allowing Alou to score and setting the stage for Wood. The Braves scored first in the third inning on a Marcus Giles two-out homer and in the eighth on a Chipper Jones' ground out. The Braves rebounded to take Game 2, 5-3, on Mark DeRosa's eighth-inning two-out, two-run double off Dave Veres after John Smoltz allowed a rare run in the top of the inning that tied the game at 3-3. DeRosa was in the lineup after Giles suffered a severely bruised left quadriceps in Game 1. Giles still contributed when he limped off the bench and delivered a pinch-hit, two-out single in the sixth inning that scored Javy Lopez and gave the Braves a 3-2 lead after they had fallen behind, 2-0, in the top of the first. After walking the first two batters of the game and giving up a two-run Sammy Sosa double off the top of the center-field wall, Atlanta starter Mike Hampton battled out of a no-out, bases-loaded jam by striking out three straight Cubs to end the inning. He fanned all three batters in the second inning to match a postseason record of six consecutive strikeouts. Carlos Zambrano started for Chicago and allowed 11 hits, all singles, including a two-run single to Andruw Jones in the fourth inning that tied the score at 2-2. As the teams moved to an electric Wrigley Field for Game 3, the Cubs once again took the series lead with a 3-1 victory. Mark Prior battled in a classic pitchers' duel with Greg Maddux. The only Chicago runs came on a Randall Simon two-out, first-inning single that scored Kenny Lofton and Mark Grudzielanek. The Braves' only run came on a Giles sacrifice fly scoring Mark DeRosa in the eighth inning. Game 4 was the first true glimpse of the Braves offense that was on display most of the regular season. Chipper Jones hit two-run homers from each side of the plate as part of Atlanta's 12-hit attack. It was Chipper's first two-homer playoff game since his postseason debut in Game 1 of the 1995 Division Series. The first of Chipper's two home runs came from the left side off Chicago starter Matt Clement in the fifth inning. The second came in the eighth inning off lefty Mark Guthrie, giving Atlanta a 6-2 lead. Ortiz, coming off three days of rest, held the Cubs to two earned runs on seven hits over five innings. Eric Karros was the hitting star for the Cubs, launching a two solo home runs, one in the sixth inning and one in the eighth inning. Sosa almost tied the game in the bottom of the ninth, but his drive off John Smoltz fell into Andruw Jones' glove on the warning track. Game 5 showed just why the Cubs would be moving on. For the second time in the series, Wood turned in a dominating performance (8.0 IP, 5 H, 1 R, 1 ER, 2 BB, 7 K) in shutting down the Braves for a 5-1 Chicago clincher in front of 53,775 fans at Turner Field. During the NLDS, Wood allowed just seven hits over 14.1 IP against the NL's best regular-season offense. The lone Atlanta run came on a controversial play in the sixth inning. Rafael Furcal raced home from second base on a ball hit by Sheffield, who returned after missing Game 4 with a bruised hand suffered in Game 3, that appeared to be caught by a sliding Kenny Lofton in center field. It was ruled a hit. Hampton, pitching on three days of rest, endured a 30-pitch first inning, allowing just one run on a Moises Alou broken-bat RBI single. Alex Gonzalez led off the second inning with a homer to center and Aramis Ramirez hit a two-run home run in the sixth inning to give Wood all the support he would need.

2004 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 2

In their record 10th straight Division Series, the Braves met up with the Houston Astros for the fourth time in the opening round but for the first time failed to take the series. The series was filled with big hits and key pitching, but in the end Houston's big bats proved to be too much. Game 1 saw the Astros pound out four home runs, leading to a four-run third inning and a three-run fifth inning in a 9-3 win. The run support was more than needed for Roger Clemens. The Braves had chances to break the game open early against Clemens, but he escaped jams in each of the first four innings. Jaret Wright started for Atlanta and allowed a career-high three homers in 4.1 innings of work. Andruw Jones provided a highlight with his eighth career postseason home run off Clemens in the fifth inning. The Braves evened the series in dramatic fashion, taking Game 2, 4-2. Trailing 2-0 entering the seventh inning the Braves scored on a Rafael Furcal single in the seventh and added one in the eighth on Adam LaRoche's double to tie the game. John Smoltz went 3.0 strong innings starting in the eighth, just the second time as a reliever he had gone that many innings. He also added a single in the ninth-- his 12th career postseason hit, a record for pitchers. The game remained tied 2-2 until the bottom of the 11th inning when Rafael Furcal hit a game-winning, two-run game-winning homer off Dan Miceli to give Atlanta a 4-2 win. Roy Oswalt started four Houston, allowing just one earned run on eight hits over 6.1 IP. Mike Hampton started for the Braves and gave up just two earned runs on four hits before leaving in the seventh inning with tightness in his left forearm. The Braves bullpen combined to go 4.2 scoreless innings. The series shifted to Houston for Game 3 and saw the Astros go up a game with a 8-5 win. Braves starter John Thomson was forced to leave after four pitches when he left with a re-injured left oblique muscle. Paul Byrd made his first career postseason appearance in relief and allowed four earned runs on seven hits in 4.1 IP, the big blow coming on Carlos Beltran's two-run, third-inning home run. The Astros stretched the lead to 7-2 on Morgan Ensberg's sixth-inning, two-run double off Tom Martin. Brandon Backe allowed two runs over 6.0 IP, his only mistake coming on Johnny Estrada's fourth-inning homer. Andruw Jones hit his second homer of the series, a three-run shot off Russ Springer in the eighth. Game 4 was an example of the season-long resolve the Braves displayed. Facing Roger Clemens (5.0 IP, 2 ER) for the second time in the series, the Braves rallied from a three-run deficit entering the sixth inning to win 6-5. Atlanta jumped out 2-0 in the second on an Andruw Jones RBI single and an Adam LaRoche RBI groundout. The Astros came back with five runs the bottom of that inning, highlighted by a three-run homer by Craig Biggio. The Braves tied the game in the sixth on LaRoche's first career postseason homer, a three-run shot off Chad Qualls. The game turned in to a battle of the bullpens after Russ Ortiz left (3.0 IP, 7 H 5 ER), but the Braves pen took charge. Over the last 6.0 innings, they allowed six hits and no runs. The game-winner came in the top of the ninth inning after Rafael Furcal was hit by a Russ Springer pitch with two outs. Furcal then stole his second base of the day and came in to score on J.D. Drew's RBI single. John Smoltz picked up the win by going the final 2.0 innings and getting Jeff Kent to ground into the Astros third double play of the game to end it in the ninth. The series returned to Atlanta for the deciding Game 5 and the Houston bats certainly showed up. The Astros pounded out 17 hits and scored 12 runs in a 12-3 rout. The game was 3-2 entering the sixth inning, but the Astros added one in the sixth, five in the seventh and three in the eighth to pull away. Roy Oswalt picked up the win on short rest, going 5.0 IP and giving up two earned runs. Houston scored a NLDS-record 36 runs in the series and hit an NLDS-record 11 home runs. Carlos Beltran was the series star hitting .429, but he went 4-for-5 with two home runs and five RBI in Game 5. Jaret Wright got the call for Atlanta but gave up four runs in 5.1 IP. Chipper Jones went 2-for-5, but wound up without an RBI in the series. Rafael Furcal had another strong game with his second homer of the series and two more hits, pushing him to .381 (8-for-21) for the NLDS. Andruw Jones hit .526 (10-for-19) in the series.

2005 Division Series - Houston 3, Atlanta 1

Extending their Division Series streak to a record 11 consecutive appearances, the Braves took on the Wild Card winner Houston Astros. Both teams featured a slew of youngsters that would play prominent roles in the series - the final play of the classic fourth game would feature a rookie from both squads - but the Astros would ride good old fashion pitching from their aces and overachieving offense from a normally dormant lineup to defeat the Braves for the second consecutive season in the Division Series. Houston's Morgan Ensberg put on a Game 1 clinic, tying an Astros record with five RBI and helping his squad to a 10-5 win in the opener. The game, which was to feature the pitching duel between Tim Hudson and Andy Pettitte, turned into a slugfest in which the pitching pair combined to allow eight runs. Reliever Chris Reitsma allowed four earned runs and recorded just one out in the eighth inning, helping Houston to a win that tied starter Andy Pettitte with John Smoltz for the most wins in postseason history (14). Smoltz took back his title as the postseason's winningest pitcher in Game 2, hurling seven innings of one-run ball for his 15th playoff win. Houston's 1-0 lead in the first inning was short-lived, as the Braves scored three runs in the second and two more in the third en route to 7-1 win. Rookie backstop Brian McCann scalded a three-run homer off Roger Clemens in his first career postseason at-bat to put the Braves up 3-1 - a lead from which they would never look back. Andruw Jones went 3-for-4 and Adam LaRoche doubled in a pair of runs, while the bullpen was solid. The Astros went with 20-game winner Roy Oswalt against Jorge Sosa (making his first career postseason appearance) for Game 3, a 7-3 Astros victory that unraveled for the Braves in one inning. While the two starters had similar lines - both allowed three runs and walked two - it was a dreadful seventh inning that led to the Braves demise. With Sosa pulled, Reitsma continued his rough Division Series showing by allowing Craig Biggio's third double of the game followed by an infield single to speedster Willy Taveras. Reitsma gave way to lefty John Foster, but slugger Lance Berkman nailed Foster's first pitch for a home run, and youngster Joey Devine finished the job by allowing a run of his own - all of this without the Braves registering an out. The loss spoiled the second consecutive three-hit night for Braves home run king Andruw Jones, who raised his average to .636 in the series. On just three days' rest, the Braves sent Tim Hudson to the mound against Brandon Backe in a Game 4 that would become a classic. It looked like nothing but a Braves steamroll early on as Adam LaRoche continued his tear, bombing a grand slam in the fourth followed by an Andruw Jones sacrifice fly that chased the Astros' starter. Hudson left with a 5-1 lead, and when McCann hit his second homer of the series to put Atlanta up 6-1, it seemed wrapped up. But when the normally reliable Kyle Farnsworth came in to close out the game in the eighth inning, he allowed a grand slam to Lance Berkman and a two-out, solo homer to light-hitting Astros catcher Brad Ausmus in the bottom of the ninth to tie the game at 6-6. The two teams went on to essentially play another entire game, with both pitching staffs combining for eight innings of scoreless ball that saw the Braves miss opportunities with runners in scoring position five times, including loading the bases with one out in the 14th inning. In the bottom of the 18th, Houston rookie Chris Burke drove Devine's pitch over the left-field wall for a game-ending solo homer that gave the Astros their second consecutive Division Series win against the Braves. The series loss wasn't without some highlights for the Braves, who continued their excellent fielding from the regular season and committed no errors in the four-game set. Adam LaRoche went 4-for-8 (.500) with six RBI in the series and Andruw Jones went 8-for-17 (.471) with three doubles and five RBI.

Forty Years In Atlanta

It was the best of times. It was the worst of times.

The Atlanta Braves embark on their 41st season in 2006, and the first 40 were complete with a World Championship, five National League pennants and 16 division crowns. And, yes, there were eight last-place finishes, including two 100-loss seasons.

Individually, Atlanta players received six Cy Young awards and four Most Valuable Player honors, earned six ERA titles and three batting crowns, authored three no-hitters and one four-homer game, and hit for the cycle on one occasion.

From Hank Aaron to Paul Zuvella, Ted Abernathy to Steve Ziem, here's a detailed decade-by-decade look at the Braves' storied history in Atlanta.

A Brave New World

The Braves moved to Atlanta in 1966 after 12 years in Milwaukee, following 78 years in Boston. During the final lame-duck season in Milwaukee - owner Bill Bartholomay had planned to relocate the team a year earlier before a lawsuit postponed the move - attendance dropped to just over half a million. The first game in Atlanta was played April 12 against the Pittsburgh Pirates. Joe Torre hit two home runs, but a two-run homer by the Pirates' Willie Stargell off Tony Cloninger in the 13th inning gave Pittsburgh a 3-2 victory. With a 52-59 record, manager Bobby Bragan was replaced by Billy Hitchcock on Aug. 9. The Braves went 33-18 the rest of the way to finish 85-77 and in fifth place in the National League. Hank Aaron led the league with 44 home runs and 127 RBI, while Felipe Alou was tops with 218 hits and 122 runs scored. Georgia supported its new team to the tune of 1,539,801 fans filing through the turnstiles at Atlanta Stadium.

Phil Niekro was converted to a starting pitcher in 1967, and the knuckleballer paced the N.L. with a 1.87 ERA on his way to becoming the anchor of the rotation for the next 17 years. Aaron led the league with 39 homers. The Braves, under Hitchcock and Ken Silvestri, dropped to seventh place with a 77-85 record.

Aaron hit career home run No. 500 against the San Francisco Giants at home July 14, 1968, and Alou tied for the N.L. lead with 210 hits. As a team, the Braves, now managed by Lum Harris, jumped back to fifth place with an 81-81 record.

Divisional play debuted in 1969, and the Braves captured the N.L. West with a 93-69 record - three games ahead of San Francisco - on the strength of a late 10-game winning streak. Aaron slugged 44 homers to rank second in the league. He got support in the lineup from Orlando Cepeda, acquired in a spring-training trade from St. Louis for Torre. Cepeda took over at first base and contributed 22 home runs and 88 RBI. Niekro was second in the N.L. with a career-high 23 wins to go with a 2.56 ERA and 193 strikeouts. Atlanta was the league's top defensive team, led by Gold Glove winners Felix Milan at second base and Clete Boyer at third. The Braves faced the Miracle Mets of New York in the League Championship Series and were swept in three games.

Aaron and Rico Carty highlighted an otherwise dismal 1970 season. Aaron picked up the 3,000th hit of his career - an infield single off the Cincinnati Reds' Wayne Simpson at Crosley Field on May 17 - to become the first major leaguer with 3,000 hits and 500 home runs. Aaron went on to rack up 38 home runs and 118 RBI, and Carty was the N.L.'s top batter with a .366 average, the second-highest in franchise history. But the Braves slipped to fifth place in the West Division with a 76-86 record, 26 games behind Cincinnati. Forty-six-year-old knuckleballer Hoyt Wilhelm pitched in his 1,000th career game May 10 against St. Louis at home.

An 82-80 record and third-place finish followed in 1971. Aaron rocketed career home run No. 600 against San Francisco at home on April 27, and went on to lead the N.L. with a franchise-record 47 round-trippers. Ralph Garr amassed a league-leading 219 hits, and Earl Williams was named N.L. Rookie of the Year after hitting an Atlanta rookie-record 33 home runs and collecting 87 RBI.

Harris was replaced as manager with a 47-57 mark Aug. 7, 1972. Taking over the reigns was long-time third baseman Eddie Mathews - the only individual to play to play for the Braves in Boston, Milwaukee and Atlanta - who would go on to be inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1978. Atlanta was 23-27 under Mathews to finish with 70 victories and in fourth place. Aaron picked up his 2,000th career RBI against the Houston Astros at the Astrodome on July 3. Atlanta played host to the All-Star Game on July 25, and the N.L. pulled out a 4-3 win in 10 innings. Aaron dazzled the partisan crowd of 53,107 with a two-run homer off Gaylord Perry in the sixth inning.

Forty Years In Atlanta

Aaron's pursuit of the all-time home run record held by Babe Ruth hit full stride in 1973, and "Hammerin' Hank" belted 40 to finish the season within one of Ruth's total of 714. No. 700 came July 21 against the Philadelphia Phillies at home. Ironically, Aaron finished just third on the team in homers, behind Dave Johnson (43) and Darrell Evans (41). Johnson hit 42 home runs as a second baseman, tying the Major League record set by the Cardinals' Rogers Hornsby in 1922. On Aug. 5, Niekro pitched a no-hitter against the San Diego Padres at home, winning 9-0. The Braves acquired pitcher Carl Morton from the Montreal Expos in a straight-up deal for pitcher Pat Jarvis, and Morton topped the team with 15 wins. The Braves wound up with a losing record at 76-85 and in fifth place.

Hank Aaron

On his first swing of the 1974 season - against Cincinnati's Jack Billingham at Riverfront Stadium on April 4 - Aaron tied Ruth's home run record. Four days later, Aaron broke the mark with No. 715 against Al Downing of the Los Angeles Dodgers in the fourth inning at the ballpark affectionately known as the "Launching Pad." The time was 9:07 p.m., and the ball was caught in the Braves' left-field bullpen by reliever Tom House.

Atlanta boasted both the N.L.'s batting champion (Garr at .353) and ERA leader (Buzz Capra at 2.28) in 1974. Garr also legged out an Atlanta-record 17 triples. Niekro won 20 games, sharing the league lead, while topping the Senior Circuit in innings pitched (302.1) and complete games (18) to go with an Atlanta-record six shutouts. Mathews managed the first 99 games, going 50-49, before being replaced July 25 by Clyde King, who piloted the Braves to a 38-25 record the rest of the way. The Braves enjoyed their second-best season in Georgia at 88-74 to finish third, 14 games behind Los Angeles.

Aaron was dealt to the Milwaukee Brewers in exchange for outfielder Dave May and minor league pitcher Roger Alexander on Nov. 2, 1974, signifying the end of an era. Subsequently, the Braves' first decade in Atlanta came to a close in 1975 with its worst season, a 67-94 record and fifth-place showing, a whopping 40.5 games behind Cincinnati. Morton (17) and Niekro (15) accounted for nearly half of Atlanta's wins. Connie Ryan replaced King as manager for the final 27 games. Attendance dropped to 534,672 (an average of 6,683 per game), the club's lowest since its final season in Boston in 1952.

Sharp Turn

The fortunes of Atlanta Braves' baseball forever changed Jan. 6, 1976, when television magnate and yachtsman Ted Turner purchased the franchise for $11 million. Dave Bristol took over as manager, and the ballpark was renamed Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium. But the team managed just 70 victories and finished last in the National League West for the first of four consecutive seasons. Andy Messersmith, who during the offseason had been granted free agency in a highly publicized court case, signed with the Braves and posted an 11-11 record with a 3.04 ERA. On May 29, Phil Niekro surrendered a home run to his younger brother, Joe, and dropped a 4-3 decision to the Houston Astros at home. Jimmy Wynn topped the team with 17 home runs and 66 RBI and led the league with 127 walks in his lone season with the Braves. Willie Montanez was acquired from the San Francisco Giants on June 13 in a six-player deal that included Darrell Evans going to the Giants, and Montanez achieved the rare distinction of playing in 163 games (one more than a normal regular season), 60 in San Francisco and 103 in Atlanta.

Ted Turner

Things got so dire in Turner's mind following a 16-game losing streak in 1977 that the owner took over as manager May 11. But after his first game in the dugout - a 2-1 loss to the Pittsburgh Pirates at Three Rivers Stadium - commissioner Bowie Kuhn banished him back to the owner's box, citing the rule that a manager cannot have a financial interest in his club. The Braves went on to finish 61-101, the franchise's first 100-loss season since 1935. Niekro led the league with 43 games started, 20 complete games, 330.1 innings pitched, 315 hits allowed, 164 walks, 262 strikeouts (a career high) and 17 wild pitches while posting a 16-20 record with a 4.03 ERA.

Forty Years In Atlanta

Dale Murphy

A trio of individuals who would become Atlanta favorites came to the forefront during the 1978 season en route to a 69-93 record. First, Bobby Cox was hired as manager. Then, Dale Murphy, after cups of coffee in the big leagues the previous two years, became an everyday player and had 23 home runs and 79 RBI. Finally, Bob Horner was the first player selected in the June amateur draft, went straight from Arizona State University to the Braves and was named N.L. Rookie of the Year on the strength of 23 homers and 63 RBI in only 89 games. On Aug. 1, pitchers Larry McWilliams and Gene Garber held Pete Rose hitless, snapping his 44-game streak that equaled Willie Keeler's 81-year-old N.L. record. Niekro went 19-18 with a 2.88 ERA, leading the league with 22 complete games and 334.1 innings pitched and winning the first of his five Gold Gloves.

The Braves' fourth straight last-place finish was the result of a 66-94 record in 1979. Niekro continued baffling opposing batters with his knuckleball, tying his younger brother, Joe, for the league lead with 21 wins (against 20 losses) and leading the way with 23 complete games and a career-high 342 innings pitched. "Knucksie" won career game No. 200 with a 5-2 victory over Pittsburgh at Three Rivers Stadium on May 1, and earned his 20th win of the season by beating brother Joe and Houston 9-4 at home Sept. 26. Horner enjoyed a banner first full season in the big leagues, topping the team with a .314 batting average, 33 home runs and 98 RBI. Tragedy struck May 5, when director of player personnel Bill Lucas, who functioned as the Braves' general manager, died from a brain hemorrhage at the age of 43.

In 1980, Cox moved Murphy from a sometime catcher/sometime first baseman to a full-time outfielder, and the change of scenery paid off handsomely. Murphy batted .281 with 33 home runs and 89 RBI. The Braves managed to go 81-80 for their first winning season since 1974 and moved up to fourth place in the West, 11 games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers.

A 50-day players' strike marred the 1981 campaign and resulted in the season being split into halves. Atlanta went 25-29 in the first half, finishing fourth, and 25-27 in the second half, finishing fifth. Rick Camp was the team's most effective pitcher, going 9-3 with 17 saves in 48 appearances out of the bullpen. Horner and Murphy slipped to 15 and 13 home runs, but better days were in store.

Joe Torre, a catcher and first baseman for the Braves from 1960 to 1968, took over as manager in 1982. Atlanta responded by winning its first 13 games to establish a major league record for victories to start a season. Overcoming a 2-19 skid from late July through early August, the Braves held on to win the West Division by one game over Los Angeles and two over San Francisco with an 89-73 record. The St. Louis Cardinals swept the Braves in the League Championship Series. Murphy was named the N.L. Most Valuable Player after batting .281 with 36 home runs and 109 RBI, tied for the league lead with Al Oliver of the Montreal Expos. He also earned the first of his five consecutive Gold Gloves. Niekro put together a stellar season with a 17-4 record. Sidewinder Gene Garber became the first pitcher in franchise history to record 30 saves. Hank Aaron was inducted into the Hall of Fame on Aug. 1 after receiving 406 of a possible 415 votes (97.8 percent) in his first year of eligibility.

The 1983 Braves narrowly missed repeating as division champs, winding up three games behind Los Angeles with an 88-74 record. Murphy won his second straight N.L. MVP Award, joining Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs (1958-59), Joe Morgan of the Cincinnati Reds (1975-76) and Mike Schmidt of the Philadelphia Phillies (1980-81), who also accomplished that feat. "Murph" batted a career-high .302 with 36 home runs, a league-leading 121 RBI and a franchise-record 131 runs scored while playing all 162 games for the second of four consecutive seasons. Brett Butler stole 39 bases, the most by a Brave in 70 years, before being traded to the Cleveland Indians with two other players and $150,000 in exchange for pitcher Len Barker on Aug. 29. Craig McMurtry and Pascual Perez both won 15 games. Niekro pitched his final season for the Braves before signing as a free agent with the New York Yankees. The Braves attracted 2,119,935 fans, the most since they moved to Atlanta and the third-most in franchise history.

Another runner-up finish occurred in 1984, but the Braves were just 80-82 and tied with Houston at 12 games behind the San Diego Padres. Murphy continued to be one of the games most-prolific players, batting .290 with 36 home runs - tied for the N.L. top spot - and 100 RBI. On Aug. 12, Atlanta and San Diego engaged in one of the most brawl-filled games in Major League history that included 19 ejections between both teams.

Beginning in 1985, Atlanta suffered six consecutive fifth- or sixth-place finishes. Eddie Haas replaced Torre as manager but after going 50-71 was replaced by Bobby Wine on an interim basis Aug. 26. The Braves stumbled home with a 66-96 record, in fifth place, 29 games behind Los Angeles. Rick Mahler reeled off victories in his first seven starts en route to going 17-15. Premier closer Bruce Sutter, elected to the Hall of Fame in 2006, had signed as a free agent during the offseason and saved 23 games. Murphy topped the Senior Circuit with 37 home runs. Atlanta lost to the New York Mets 16-13 at home July 4 in a game that lasted 19 innings and took more than six hours to play, plus two rain delays. Relief pitcher Rick Camp, a .074 lifetime hitter who batted because the Braves were out of position players, socked a two-out, two-strike home run to tie the game in the 18th before surrendering five runs in the top of the ensuing inning. The game ended at 3:55 a.m. on July 5, the latest finish in major league history, and the Independence Day fireworks show started at 4:01 a.m. In October, Cox returned to the Braves as general manager after a four-year stint as manager of the Toronto Blue Jays. He set out to develop the farm system, a plan that would pay off several years later.

When Turner purchased the Braves in 1976, his intent was to use the franchise to promote his fledgling cable television station, WTCG (Turner Communications Group). By the mid-1980s, nearly every game was being televised all across the United States on his renamed "Superstation," WTBS (Turner Broadcasting System). The Braves became known as "American's Team" with their rotating four-man announce team of Skip Caray, Ernie Johnson, John Sterling and Pete Van Wieren.

Bobby Cox

Low Lows, High Highs

Chuck Tanner, an outfielder for the Milwaukee Braves from 1955 to 1957 who won a World Championship as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1979, took the reins of the Atlanta dugout in 1986, but his winning ways didn't carry over to the Braves. A 72-89 record resulted in a last-place finish in the National League West, 23.5 games behind the Houston Astros. Bob Horner slammed four home runs against the Montreal Expos at home July 6, becoming the 11th player in major-league history to accomplish the feat. Three days later, Dale Murphy's consecutive games played streak came to an end at 740.

The 1987 Braves slid to 69-92 but moved up to fifth place. Murphy bounced back from a sub-par season by his standards to hit a career-high 44 home runs with 105 RBI. Zane Smith developed into the ace of the pitching staff, winning 15 games and authoring three shutouts. No one knew it at the time, but an Aug. 13 trade that sent pitcher Doyle Alexander to the Detroit Tigers for minor-league pitcher John Smoltz would prove to be arguably the best in franchise history. On Sept. 23, Albert Hall hit for the cycle against Houston, becoming the only Atlanta player to accomplish the feat.

Tanner's tenure came to an end May 23, 1988, with the Braves saddled with a 12-27 record. Russ Nixon took over, but Atlanta went just 42-79 the rest of the way to finish 54-106 and in last place, 39.5 games behind the Los Angeles Dodgers. No pitcher won more than nine games. Five years after drawing more than two million fans, attendance dropped to 848,089.

Although the Braves managed only modest improvement in 1989 - 63-97 for another last-place showing - fans were wowed by Lonnie Smith, who bounced back from an ankle injury to top the team with a .315 batting average, 152 hits, 34 doubles, four triples, 21 home runs, 89 runs scored and 25 stolen bases to be named N.L. Comeback Player of the Year. Tom Glavine and John Smoltz showed promise for the future: Glavine led the Braves with 14 wins and four shutouts, while Smoltz posted the best ERA at 2.94.

With Atlanta at 25-40 on June 22, 1990, Bobby Cox named himself manager while continuing as general manager. The Braves went 40-57 the rest of the way and could not work their way out of the basement, finishing with a 65-97 record. The biggest news of the season came off the field, when Murphy was traded to the Philadelphia Phillies on Aug. 4. The move enabled David Justice to become the everyday right fielder, and he responded with 20 home runs and 50 RBI over the final two months. All told, he batted .282 with 28 homers and 78 RBI and was honored as N.L. Rookie of the Year. On Oct. 10, John Schuerholz assumed the role of general manager, allowing Cox to concentrate fully on his field-managing duties.

Forty Years In Atlanta

The Braves started winning in 1991 ... and they haven't stopped, capturing 14 consecutive division championships. That year, they become the first team ever to reach the World Series just one year after having baseball's worst record. Atlanta trailed Los Angeles by 9.5 games at the All-Star break but was able to trim the deficit by seven games in the first 12 days after the break. The Braves and Dodgers subsequently were not separated by more than 2.5 games after Aug. 10. Kent Mercker, Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena recorded the first combined no-hitter in N.L. history in a 1-0 win over the San Diego Padres on Sept. 11. Atlanta went on to win the West with a 94-58 record, one game better than the Dodgers. The Braves defeated Pittsburgh in the League Championship Series in seven games behind Most Valuable Player Steve Avery, who pitched a record 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings. In the World Series, the Braves and Minnesota Twins battled for seven games, with Minnesota winning the finale 1-0 in 10 innings at the Metrodome. Atlanta swept the regular-season major awards: Terry Pendleton earned MVP laurels after leading the Senior Circuit with a .319 batting average. Glavine tied for the league lead with 20 wins en route to winning the N.L. Cy Young Award. Cox and Schuerholz were named Manager of the Year and Executive of the Year.

Atlanta surpassed the three-million mark in home attendance for the first time in franchise history in 1992 and responded with another division championship. The Braves stood at 20-27 and in last place May 27 before winning 21 of their next 24 games en route to finishing the season on an amazing 78-37 run, a .678 winning percentage. They wound up taking the division by eight games over the Cincinnati Reds on the strength of a 98-64 record. In their second straight LCS against Pittsburgh, the Braves won again in going the distance, thanks to Francisco Cabrera's two-out, two-run pinch-hit single and Sid Bream's one-for-the-ages slide into home plate in the bottom of the ninth of Game 7 at home. Atlanta became the first N.L. team to capture back-to-back pennants since the 1977-78 Dodgers, and the Braves repeated as league champions for the first time since 1957-58. In the first international World Series, the Toronto Blue Jays won in six games. For the second year in a row, Glavine won 20 games to tie for the league lead. Smoltz topped the N.L. with 215 strikeouts. Pendleton collected a career-high 105 RBI.

Greg Maddux

Greg Maddux signed as a free agent prior to the 1993 season and became the game's most-dominant pitcher. He won his second straight N.L. Cy Young Award with a 20-10 record and a league-leading 2.36 ERA and picked up the first of his 10 consecutive Gold Glove awards with Atlanta. Maddux anchored a "Fab Four" starting rotation that included Glavine (22-6, 3.20 ERA), Avery (18-6, 2.94 ERA) and Smoltz (15-11, 3.62 ERA) and gave the Braves four 15-game winners for the first time in the 20th century. Glavine tied for the league lead in wins for the third consecutive year and became the first N.L. pitcher to win 20-plus games for three straight years since Ferguson Jenkins of the Chicago Cubs reeled off six in a row from 1967 to 1972. Once again, the Braves overcame a slow start - they were 10 games out July 22 - to win the division. Atlanta was 54-19 after the All-Star break and finished with a 104-58 record. Yet it took until the season's final day for the Braves to beat out the San Francisco Giants. First baseman Fred McGriff was acquired from San Diego in a four-player trade July 18 that ignited the Braves' second-half surge. McGriff (101 RBI) joined Justice (120) and Ron Gant (117) to give Atlanta the first trio of 100-RBI producers since the Braves in 1970. Atlanta became the first team to win three straight N.L. West Division titles but lost in the LCS to Philadelphia in six games. Attendance hit a franchise-record 3,884,720.

Both the National and American leagues were divided into three divisions beginning in 1994, and the Braves had a new home in the N.L. East. The early results were promising with 10 straight road wins en route to a 13-1 start. Mercker authored a no-hitter April 8, beating Los Angeles 6-0 on the road. Beginning Aug. 12, a players' strike wiped out the balance of the regular season and postseason. At the time, Atlanta stood in second place with a 68-46 record, six games behind Montreal. Maddux became the first player to win three straight Cy Young awards. He tied for the league lead in wins, going 16-6, and was tops with a 1.56 ERA, 202.0 innings pitched and 10 complete games. McGriff became the ninth player in major league history to hit 30 or more home runs for seven consecutive seasons. He paced the Braves with 34 homers, 94 RBI and a .318 batting average. He was MVP of the All-Star Game in Pittsburgh on July 12.

Tom Glavine

The 1995 Braves captured the first World Championship in Atlanta history, defeating the Cleveland Indians in six games. They became the first franchise to win a World Series in three different cities, joining their forefathers in Boston (1914) and Milwaukee (1957). On the way, Atlanta won its fourth division title - the first team to do so since the 1921-24 New York Giants - with a 90-54 record (21 games better than the New York Mets), defeated the Colorado Rockies in four games in the Division Series and recorded the first-ever four-game sweep of a League Championship Series over Cincinnati. The Braves won 25 games in their last at-bat and had 31 one-run victories. Maddux claimed his unprecedented fourth straight Cy Young Award, going 19-2 with a 1.63 ERA. He led the league in wins, ERA and complete games (10) and tied for the top spot in innings pitched (209.2) and shutouts (3). Mark Wohlers emerged as a dominant closer with 25 saves. McGriff (27), Justice (24), Ryan Klesko (23) and Chipper Jones (23) were the first Braves foursome to hit more than 20 home runs since 1973. Glavine pitched a one-hitter over eight innings to back Justice's sixth-inning home run as Atlanta won the deciding game of the World Series 1-0 at home Oct. 28. Glavine earned MVP honors after winning two games and allowing two earned runs with 11 strikeouts in 14 innings pitched.

Success Breeds Success

Atlanta returned to the World Series in 1996 for the fourth time in five opportunities but was unable to defend its title, falling to the New York Yankees in six games. The Braves took over first place in the N.L. East for good May 19 and went on to become the first Senior Circuit team to win five straight division crowns with a 96-66 record, eight games ahead of the Montreal Expos. Atlanta swept the Division Series over the Los Angeles Dodgers and then overcame a three-game-to-one deficit to win the League Championships Series over the St. Louis Cardinals - winning the last three games 14-0, 3-1 and 15-0. In the World Series, the Braves won the first two games on the road before the Yankees answered with four straight victories. John Smoltz gave the Braves their fourth consecutive N.L. Cy Young Award recipient. He went 24-8 with a 2.94 ERA, leading the league in wins, innings pitched (253.2) and strikeouts (modern day franchise-record 276). The 24 wins were the most by a Brave pitcher since Johnny Sain won the same number in 1948. After losing his first start, Smoltz reeled off 14 victories in a row. Mark Wohlers recorded 39 saves to break the club record of 30 set by Gene Garber in 1982. Marquis Grissom collected 207 hits - the first player in team history to have at least 200 since Ralph Garr in 1974 - and set a franchise record with 671 at-bats. Grissom had a 28-game hitting streak from July 25 to Aug. 24, pulled off the Braves' first straight steal of home since Ed Miller in 1979 against the Cincinnati Reds at Riverfront Stadium on June 2 and won his fourth consecutive Gold Glove. Nineteen-year-old Andruw Jones made his major-league debut Aug. 15 and the next day became the youngest N.L. player to hit a home run since Larry Dierker of the Houston Astros in 1965. Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium came to a close with the completion of Game 6 of the World Series on Oct. 26.

John Smoltz

In 1997, the Braves christened Turner Field - the first game was a 5-4 victory over the Chicago Cubs on April 4 - by winning their sixth consecutive division title, breaking the major-league record of five set by the Yankees (1949-53) and matched by the Oakland A's (1971-75). Atlanta posted a 101-61 record and finished nine games ahead of the Florida Marlins. However, after sweeping Houston in the Division Series, the Braves lost to the Marlins for the pennant in six games. On a pitching staff that featured Maddux, Smoltz and Tom Glavine, No. 4 starter Denny Neagle stepped into the limelight at 20-5, leading the league in wins. All four were among the top 10 in ERA. The Braves blasted 12 grand slams - including three by Chipper Jones - to set an all-time major league high. Jones batted .295 with 21 homers, 111 RBI and 20 stolen bases. Atlanta drew 3,464,488 fans. On Aug. 2, Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was imploded, and the site was converted into a parking lot for Turner Field.

Chipper Jones

The 1998 Braves set a franchise record for wins, and their 106-56 record was 18 games better than the New York Mets. Atlanta pulled off its third consecutive Division Series sweep - this time to Chicago - but was beaten in the L.C.S. by San Diego in six games. On the way to their record-setting win total, the Braves socked a franchise-high 215 home runs and had a franchise-best .985 fielding percentage. In his first season in Atlanta, free-agent signee Andres Galarraga topped the team with 44 home runs and 121 RBI. He was one of four players on the team to hit 30 homers. Andruw Jones became the youngest 20-20 player in major-league history, finishing with 31 homers and 27 stolen bases, and won the first of his eight consecutive Gold Gloves. All five starting pitchers won at least 16 games, led by Glavine, who led the league with 20 and had a 2.47 ERA en route to winning his second N.L. Cy Young Award and the Braves' sixth in eight seasons. Dennis Martinez became the winningest Latin American pitcher with his 244th career victory against the San Francisco Giants at 3Com Park on Aug. 9. Maddux, who won career game No. 200 with an 8-4 triumph over San Francisco at home Aug. 18, captured his fourth ERA title in six seasons at 2.22.

Chipper Jones almost single-handedly led the Braves to another division title in 1999. He was named the N.L. Most Valuable Player after becoming the first player in major-league history to bat .300 with 40 doubles, 40 homers, 100 RBI, 100 runs scored, 100 walks and 20 stolen bases. Jones' final numbers were a .319 average, 41 doubles, 45 homers, 100 RBI, 166 runs, 126 walks and 25 steals, and his 359 total bases set an Atlanta record. He homered from both sides of the plate three times. No. 4 starting pitcher Kevin Millwood proved to the staff ace, going 18-7 with a 2.68 ERA. New closer John Rocker had 38 saves and struck out 104 batters in 72.1 innings pitched while allowing merely 47 hits. Atlanta broke open a close race by winning five of six games against the Mets in late September and wound up winning the East by 6.5 games with a 103-59 record. In the postseason, the Braves disposed of Houston in four games in the Division Series and the Mets in six games in the L.C.S. to make their fifth World Series appearance of the 1990s, but the Yankees swept Atlanta in four games.

Another year, another milestone. In 2000, the Braves became only the third team in major-league history to record 90-plus wins in nine consecutive completed seasons, joining the Yankees (12 in a row from 1947 to 1958) and Cubs (nine straight from 1904 to 1912). Atlanta wound up 95-67 and won the division by one game over the Mets. Andruw Jones continued to shine as one of the game's young stars, batting .303 with 36 home runs and 104 RBI. The 23-year-old became the fifth-youngest player in history to hit 100 career homers. Galarraga made a strong comeback from non-Hodgkin's lymphoma in a bone in his lower back that sidelined him for the entire 1999 season by batting .302 with 28 homers and 100 RBI. Nineteen-year-old Rafael Furcal made the jump from A ball to the majors and batted .294 with an Atlanta-rookie record 40 stolen bases to capture N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year honors. Glavine led the N.L. with 21 wins and won career game No. 200 with a 6-3 verdict over Houston at home July 30. In the Division Series, St. Louis swept the Braves in three games, snapping the Braves' streak of eight consecutive appearances in the League Championship Series.

Having rewritten virtually the entire baseball record book for team success, the Braves took aim on all of professional sports in 2001 and became the first squad to win 10 consecutive division titles. This one wasn't nearly as easy as many of the previous nine. The race wasn't decided until the second-to-last day of the season, and in the end, Atlanta held off the Philadelphia Phillies by two games with an 88-74 record. The Braves wrapped things up in convincing fashion, beating Florida 20-3 on Oct. 5 to tie the Atlanta single-game scoring record. From June 22 through the end of the year, the Braves and Phillies were never separated by more than 3.5 games. Injuries wiped out three of Atlanta's Opening Day starting infielders, but in true Brave fashion, replacements filled in admirably. The Jones continued to leave the marks: Chipper batted .330 with 38 home runs; Andruw had 34 homers and 104 RBI. Brian Jordan blasted three home runs in a six-day span in late September to virtually knock out the three-time runner-up Mets. Maddux set an N.L. record by not allowing a walk over for 72.1 innings pitched over 11 starts. John Burkett became pitching coach Leo Mazzone's latest-reclamation project, posting a 3.04 ERA. After missing the entire 2000 season with an elbow injury that required "Tommy John" surgery, Smoltz made a successful conversion to relief ace with 10 saves in 11 opportunities. In the Division Series, the Braves swept Houston in three games. But the Arizona Diamondbacks then captured the pennant with a five-game victory.

Andruw Jones

After two close calls, the Braves ran away with the N.L. East in 2002, sporting a 101-59 record to beat Montreal by 19 games. They clinched the title Sept. 9, the third-earliest date since divisional play started in 1969. Atlanta went 12-15 in April - its worst opening month since 1990 - but subsequently played .750 ball (a 60-20 record) from May 15 through Aug. 16. The Braves became the first team in the history of the Senior Circuit to win 100 games in seven seasons, while Bobby Cox became the first manager to collect five 100-victory campaigns. Smoltz was the story in his first full season as a closer. He recorded 55 saves (in 59 chances) to break the N.L. record of 53 set by the Cubs' Randy Myers in 1993 and equaled by the Padres' Trevor Hoffman in 1998. Gary Sheffield reached base in 52 straight games from May 28 to July 27, breaking Dale Murphy's club record of 48 in 1987. Chipper Jones batted .327 and drove in 100 runs, while Andruw Jones hit 35 home runs. For only the second time, Atlanta was eliminated from postseason play in the first round, falling to San Francisco in five games.

Known for its stout pitching for more than a decade, Atlanta relied on offensive fireworks in 2003. The Braves set franchise records with 907 runs scored, 1,608 hits, 321 doubles, 235 home runs, 2,696 total bases and a .475 slugging percentage while batting at a .284 clip, the highest since the 1925 Boston club hit .292. Six players hit 20 home runs - led by Javy Lopez with 43 - for only the second time in N.L. history (The 1965 Milwaukee Braves did it first.). The Braves had four 100-RBI players - Sheffield was tops with an Atlanta-record 132 - for the first time ever, and they became only the second N.L. team since 1900 to have five players score at least 100 runs - Furcal set the pace with 130. Marcus Giles set a modern franchise record with 49 doubles. There was pitching and defense, as well. Russ Ortiz led the Senior Circuit with 21 wins, while Maddux had 16 to become the first pitcher in major-league history to win 15 games in 16 consecutive seasons. Mike Hampton snapped Maddux's string of 10 straight Gold Gloves and also captured the Silver Slugger Award, the first player ever to take home those two honors. It all added up to a 101-61 record and 10-game margin over Florida in the N.L. East. For the second straight year, however, the Braves were eliminated in the Division Series in five games, with Chicago providing the knockout punch.

John Schuerholz

With the Braves so often viewed as the team to beat in their division over the last decade-plus, Cox rarely was given his due respect, having been named N.L. Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America just once - in 1991. He won the award a second time in 2004 after piloting Atlanta to another East title with a 96-66 record, 10 games better than Philadelphia, despite losing Lopez, Maddux, Sheffield and Vinny Castilla to free agency. Things looked bleak June 23, as the Braves stood six games under .500. But three days later, Atlanta started on a 47-15 spurt that ran through Sept. 4, taking over first place for good July 23. J.D. Drew, acquired from St. Louis in a five-play trade during the offseason, hit 31 home runs; Chipper Jones collected 96 RBI; and Johnny Estrada batted .314. Ortiz and Jaret Wright both won 15 games, while Smoltz had 44 saves. The Braves made another quick exit from the playoffs, falling to Houston in five games in the Division Series.

In their 40th season in Atlanta, the Braves were not the consensus pick to win the N.L. East. But despite using 18 rookies over the course of the season, including 12 who made their big-league debut, they pulled out their 14th consecutive division championship in 2005. Atlanta went 90-72 to finish two games ahead of Philadelphia. For the fourth straight time, however, the Braves were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, in four games by Houston. The deciding game - won by the Astros 7-6 - took 18 innings and nearly six hours to complete. Andruw Jones established career highs with 51 home runs and 128 RBI, leading the league in both categories and finishing runner-up for N.L. MVP laurels to Albert Pujols of the Cardinals. Smoltz returned to the starting rotation and won 14 games. Youngsters Jeff Francoeur, Ryan Langerhans and Brian McCann energized the team and generated renewed fan interest as the Braves saw an increase in attendance for the first time since their inaugural season at Turner Field in 1997.

OUTFIELD 44

The greatest home run hitter of all time, Hank Aaron was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writers' Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982. In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron re-wrote baseball's record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime (2,297); Most Extra-Base Hits, Lifetime (1,477); Most Total Bases, Lifetime (6,856); and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime (755). Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and is tied for 14th in years of service (23). His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before a sellout crowd of 53,775 at Atlanta Stadium. The pitch came in the bottom of the fourth inning, the Los Angeles Dodgers leading 3-1, with a 1-0 count and Darrell Evans waiting on first. Al Downing threw a fastball at 9:07 p.m. that Hank sent over the left field fence. Reliever Tom House caught the ball in the Braves' bullpen and brought it to Aaron in the home plate celebration. On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HRs and 30 SBs in the same season) in 1963. Aaron played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of 1974. Aaron retired as a player two years later. Aaron was first scouted by Dewey Griggs of the Milwaukee Braves during an Indianapolis Clowns tryout. The Braves eventually were able to strike a deal and beat out the Giants for Aaron's services. In 1952 he was assigned to the Eau Claire, Wisconsin, team of the Northern League. He was the unanimous choice for the Northern League's Rookie of the Year while only playing in 87 games (.336, 9 HR, 61 RBI, 116 hits and 89 runs). In 1953 he was promoted to the Jacksonville Tars, where he became the first African-American player in the South Atlantic League. Aaron won the batting title (.362) and led the league in RBI (125), runs (115), hits (208) and finished second in home runs (22) and earned the league's MVP award. He began his Major League career in 1954 when a spring training injury forced Bobby Thompson out of the Braves' lineup. In his debut he struck out twice, grounded out, hit into a double play and fouled out. Aaron hit his first home run off Vic Raschi on April 23, 1954. He became the second youngest player to win a batting title (.328) in 1956 and the second youngest to collect his 1,000th hit, off Sandy Koufax in 1959. On June 12, 1967, Aaron recorded his 2,500th hit and achieved his 3,000th hit on May 17, 1970. His 2,000th RBI came on July 3, 1972. During his career, Aaron had a 20-year string of 20 or more home runs. After turning 35, he hit 245 home runs and from the ages 35 to 39 he hit at least 34 home runs a year. Over his 23-year Major League career, he averaged just 63 strikeouts a year, with his highest strikeout total being 97 in 1967. He hit .300 or better in 14 seasons, won the NL home run crown three times and tied for a fourth, led the league in RBI four times and won three Gold Gloves. Aaron hit his 755 home runs off 310 different pitchers, including 12 Hall of Famers. He hit the most off of Hall of Famer Don Drysdale (17), the most in the month of July (152), the most against the Cincinnati Reds (97) and the most in the first inning (124). Aaron hit 400 solo home runs and hit seven of his 755 as a second baseman and had three pinch-hit home runs. He had only one three-homer game, at San Francisco on June 21, 1959. Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976, for a 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice President and Director of Player Development. In that position, he oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back NL MVP awards in 1982-83. Since December of 1989, he has served as Braves' Senior Vice President. In February of 2000, Aaron replaced the late Pee Wee Reese on the Hall of Fame Veterans Committee.

THIRD BASE 41

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1978, Eddie Mathews was the only player in franchise history to play for the Braves on the Major League level in Boston, Milwaukee, and Atlanta. He was signed in 1949 by Johnny Moore at the age of 17 and by the age of 20 became the Braves' regular third baseman. During his Hall of Fame career spanning 17 years, Mathews appeared in three World Series, was a nine-time National League All-Star, and led the majors in home runs in 1953 (47) and '59 (46). He twice finished second in the National League MVP voting, in 1953 to Roy Campanella and in 1959 to Ernie Banks. Mathews averaged slightly over 30 home runs per season during his career, and 14 times he hit 20 home runs or more. Ten times he hit 30 or more, and four times he hit 40 or more. His franchise records include: most RBI in a season since 1900 (135 in 1953), tied for most consecutive games with an RBI (8 in 1954), most career walks (1,444), most home runs on the road (30 in 1953), and tied with Hank Aaron for most home runs in a season with 47. In 1967 the Braves traded Mathews to Houston, where he reached the 500 home run level. He was subsequently traded to the Detroit Tigers late in the year to help with the pennant chase and appeared in his third World Series. Eddie finished his playing career with Detroit in 1968. Mathews returned to Atlanta in 1971 as a coach under Luman Harris and replaced him as manager in 1972. Eddie managed into the 1974 season, accumulating a record of 149-161-1 in 311 games for a .481 winning percentage. In his only full season as manager in 1973, the Braves placed fifth with a record of 76-85-1. Eddie was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

OUTFIELD 3

Murphy was the Braves' No. 1 (and fifth overall) draft pick in 1974. Originally signed as a catcher, he was moved to the outfield by Bobby Cox in 1980. The move helped, as Murphy averaged just under 30 HRs and just under 90 RBIs from 1980 to 1990. During those 11 years, Murphy won back-to-back league MVP awards in 1982 and 1983, appeared in seven All-Star games (leading all players in votes in 1985), won five Gold Gloves, and appeared in 740 consecutive games from September 26, 1981 through July 8, 1986. Murphy's 15-year career with the Braves came to an end on August 4, 1990, when he was traded to Philadelphia. The Braves received Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher, and Victor Rosario for Murphy and Tommy Greene. Murphy played in only 18 games with Philadelphia in 1992 due to knee problems and appeared in 26 games for the Colorado Rockies in 1993 before retiring. Murphy holds 13 Atlanta franchise records including most home runs (371), RBI (1,143), hits (1,901), runs (1,103), and games (1,926). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 2000.

PHIL NIEKRO

FULL NAME: Philip Henry Niekro
BATS: Right THROWS: Right
HEIGHT: 6-1 WEIGHT: 180
BORN: 4/1/1939 in Blaine, Ohio
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1964-83, 1987
NUMBER RETIRED: 1984

PITCHER 35

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in the summer of 1997, Phil Niekro was signed as a free agent in 1958, but didn't see his first major league action until 1964 in Milwaukee, starting out as a reliever. He saw limited playing time until 1967, when he became a permanent fixture on the roster through 1983. Niekro had 14 straight years with 10 or more wins until the strike shortened season of 1981. He posted three 20-plus win seasons with the Braves, with a career-high 23 in 1969, and logged over 300 innings four times, with a career high of 342 innings in 1979. From 1974 to 1980, he led the league in innings four times and was never out of the top five. In '73 he pitched a no-hitter to beat San Diego, 9-0, on August 5th at Atlanta Stadium. He became the oldest pitcher (46) to record a shutout with a four-hit, 8-0 victory on October 6, 1985, against Toronto as a Yankee. During his 24-year career, Niekro made five All-Star appearances, four as a Brave, won five Gold Gloves, and won 318 games, placing him 14th all-time. He is fifth all-time in innings pitched and eighth all-time in strikeouts. Niekro holds or shares 14 Atlanta career pitching records including: most games (689), complete games (226), innings pitched (4,533), games won (266), most strikeouts (2,855), most shutouts (43), and most hits (4,136). Inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

WARREN SPAHN

FULL NAME: Warren Edward Spahn
BATTED: Left THREW: Left
HEIGHT: 6-0 WEIGHT: 175
BORN: 4/23/1921 in Buffalo, New York
DIED: 11/24/2003 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma
YEARS WITH BRAVES: 1942, 1946-64

PITCHER 21

Inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1973, Warren Spahn signed his first contract out of high school with the Braves for $150. He debuted for the Braves in 1942 and after ending the season in the minors, enlisted in the Army. Spahn returned to the Braves in 1946 and began to pitch his way into the record books, becoming the winningest left-hander in baseball history and fifth all-time with 363 total victories. He is also sixth all-time in shutouts and eighth all-time in innings pitched. Spahn won the Cy Young Award in 1957 while leading the league in victories and complete games. He was the Cy Young runner-up three times: in 1958, 1960, and 1961. Spahn posted 20 or more wins a National League-record 13 times. Eight of those years he led the league in wins. He was an N.L. All-Star 14 times, led the league three times in ERA, nine times in complete games, four times in innings pitched, four times in strikeouts, and four times in shutouts. Spahn's eight seasons leading the league in wins and nine seasons leading in complete games are both major league records. His streaks of five consecutive seasons (1957-61) leading the league in wins along with seven consecutive years (1957-63) leading in complete games are both major league records. Spahn threw two no-hitters in his career. His first was on September 16, 1960, at the age of 39, against Philadelphia. He allowed only two base runners in the 4-0 victory. The second no-hitter was a 1-0 victory over San Francisco on April 28, 1961. Spahn holds or shares nine franchise records including: most games started (635), complete games (374), innings pitched (5,046), games won (356), 20-win seasons (13), and shutouts (63). He was inducted into the Braves Hall of Fame in August 1999.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium (1966-96)

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium was home to the Braves from the 1966 season through the 1996 season. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3, in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. The first regular-season game was played April 12, 1966, vs. Pittsburgh, and the final regular-season contest was played September 23, 1996, vs. Montreal. The final game took place on October 24, 1996, when New York defeated Atlanta, 1-0, in Game 5 of the World Series. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta. The stadium dimensions were 330' down each line, 402' in centerfield and 385' to the power alleys. The stadium wall was 10' and the ballpark had a capacity of 52,769 for baseball. The stadium was also used by the NFL's Atlanta Falcons and was used as the baseball venue for the 1996 Olympic Games.

Turner Field (Opened 1997)

Grand Opening – April 4, 1997. Braves defeated the Chicago Cubs, 5-4.

History – The 1996 Olympic Stadium, built just south of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was retrofitted into a baseball only, open-air, natural grass facility between September, 1996, and April, 1997. AFC Stadium was imploded in August of 1997 and the site is now a parking lot.

Location – Between Ralph David Abernathy on the north, Hank Aaron Drive on the east, Bill Lucas Drive on the south and Pollard Blvd. on the west. It's very near the junction of I-75/85 and I-20.

Seating – Three levels supported by four concourses. A cross-aisle walkway divides the lower concourse. Field level and dugout seats are below the cross-aisle, the terrace level above it. The second level, the Lexus Level, includes 58 private suites, three party suites and the 755 Club, the ballpark's private membership club. The third, or upper level does not go all the way around the park, providing the fans there with a view of the downtown Atlanta skyline.

Playing Field – Prescription Athletic Turf, featuring a state-of-the-art mechanical drainage system and hybrid Bermuda grass. The turf for the playing field is grown in an area below the scoreboard beyond the center field wall.

Field Dimensions – The stadium dimensions are 335' down the leftfield line, 400' to center field, 330' down the rightfield line, 380' to the leftfield power alley and 390' to the rightfield power alley.

Entry Plaza – The main entry to Turner Field, it was built after 35,000 seats and part of the track and field complex of the Olympic Stadium were removed. The plaza features statues of Hank Aaron, Phil Niekro and Ty Cobb, monuments of the Braves' retired numbers, a huge video screen that shows the Braves game, a video wall broadcasting every other major league game in progress, photo kiosks, a Kids Zone, a retail store and a variety of concession stands.

Scouts Alley – Located just off the Entry Plaza, it contains life-size visuals of notable Braves and their original scouting reports, interactive skills and educational activities for youth and the Braves Museum and Hall of Fame, a project of the Atlanta History Center and the Braves.

Coca-Cola Sky Field – Coca-Cola Sky Field is a 23,000 square-foot baseball-themed attraction located above the leftfield club level at Turner Field. The distance is estimated at 435 feet from home plate and 80 feet above the field. A ball has yet to reach Sky Field during a regulation Braves' game.

Parking – 8,500 official spaces. The lot on the site of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium contains an outline of the playing field, including markers for home plate, the bases and the location of Hank Aaron's record-breaking 715th home run.

Scoreboard and Sound System – Turner Field features the largest high-definition video display in the world. The Mitsubishi Diamond Vision, installed in 2005, measures 71', 4" by 78', 8" and integrates live video, scoring information and animations onto a single full-color screen to display game content in vivid detail. Also installed in 2005, a Daktronics LED fascia video display wraps around Turner Field between the Terrace and Lexus levels. The 1,085' by 42" display interacts with the massive high-definition board, but also features its own video, graphics, animation, game information and advertising. The speakers in each seating section are independently controlled.

Disabled Seating – The entire ballpark is wheelchair accessible and compliant with the Americans with Disabilities Act. More than one percent of the seating capacity is allocated for disabled seating.

Postponed Games At Turner Field

There have been seven postponed games in the nine-year history of Turner Field. One game, August 15, 2002 (vs. San Francisco), was declared a 3-3 tie after a two-hour, 33-minute rain delay in the 10th inning (that game is not included in the list of postponed games). The last postponed game occured August 29, 2005 (vs. Washington).

2006 Miscellaneous Information

2006 Braves Public Relations Staff

Brad Hainje • Director of Media Relations

Brad Hainje is in his third season with the Braves. Prior to joining the Atlanta front office in February 2004, he spent the previous six seasons (1998-2003) in the St. Louis Cardinals Media Relations Department.

Hainje is responsible for handling the Club's daily media requests, including player interviews, press credentials and press box operations. He also oversees the writing, editing and distributing of the team's annual media guide, daily game notes and all baseball-related press releases.

Hainje, 36, previously spent two years (1993-95) as a Sports Information Assistant at his alma mater, Purdue University, and three years (1995-98) as Assistant Sports Information Director at Southwest Missouri State University. While at Southwest Missouri State, Hainje's publications won several national awards from the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). His 1996, '97 and '98 SMS women's basketball media guides all received Best in the District honors, while the 1996 and '97 guides were named Fifth in the Nation and Best in the Nation, respectively, among all NCAA Division I schools.

A native of Logansport, Ind., Hainje graduated from Purdue in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in communication. He and his wife Michele have a son, Jack, and reside in Marietta.

Beth Marshall • Director of Public Relations

Beth Marshall joined the Braves Public Relations Department as a senior advisor in August 2004 and was named Director of Public Relations during the 2005 season. Prior to joining the Braves, she spent more than three years as Director of Corporate Communications for the PBA Tour in Seattle.

Marshall assists in all aspects of Braves communications, primarily focused on community affairs, sales and marketing and business affairs press outreaches.

Marshall has also worked in public relations for the WNBA league office, Planet Hollywood and its sports arm, Official All Star Cafe, Trump Plaza Hotel and Casino and the Philadelphia 76ers. She graduated with a degree in public relations from Harcum College outside of Philadelphia.

A native of Haverford, Pa., Marshall lives in the Inman Park section of Atlanta.

Andrina "Andy" Pressley • Publications Manager

Andy Pressley is in her 10th season with the Braves and seventh as Publications Manager. After living in Boston, Mass., for five years Pressley relocated to Atlanta in 1995 and started out working game day hospitality for the Braves. She was hired full time in 1996 and is currently responsible for a variety of print pieces, including pocket schedules, game day programs, yearbooks and ChopTalk. She is also responsible for the team's postseason publications.

Originally from Sacramento, Calif., Pressley graduated from UCLA with a bachelor's degree in history. While at UCLA she dove competitively for the Bruins as a member of the women's swimming and diving team.

Pressley and her husband Bob reside in Marietta.

Sue Vandiver • Broadcasting & Photography Manager

Sue Vandiver is in her 14th season with the Braves, her sixth season as Broadcasting Manager. She joined the Club as an Executive Assistant in 1993 before being named the Broadcasting & Photography Manager.

As Broadcasting Manager, Vandiver is the point person for the Atlanta Braves broadcast partners and facilitates the day-to-day broadcast issues for all home and visiting broadcast entities. She also manages the Braves in-house photography department by fulfilling photo requests, arranging game action photography, photo shoots and maintaining the Braves photo library. Prior to joining the Braves, she worked at Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.

With the Braves, Vandiver has experienced 12 postseasons, including seven NL Championship Series, three World Series, and the 2000 All-Star Game in Atlanta.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Vandiver attended Mansfield University in Mansfield, Pa. Sue and her husband, Ronnie, reside in Sharpsburg, Ga. They enjoy spending time with their four grown children Scott, Holly, Blake, Lindsay and their grandchildren, Mallory and Andrew.

Adam Liberman • Publicist

Adam Liberman is in his seventh season as a member of the Braves Public Relations Department. He joined the Club as its public relations trainee in 2000 before being named public relations assistant in January 2001. He is responsible for assisting in the research and editing of the team's regular and postseason media guides, updating team records, statistics and game notes, as well as assisting with press conferences and player interview requests.

Prior to joining the Braves, Liberman served as the Communications Director for the Akron Racers of the Women's Pro Softball League in 1999. In 1997, he worked as an intern in the Cleveland Indians' Class-AA Akron Aeros' media relations department.

Liberman is a 1998 cum laude graduate with a Bachelor's of Science in Journalism degree from Ohio University, where he was an active member of the sports information department.

A native of Akron, Ohio, Liberman lives in Atlanta.

Meagan Swingle • Publicist

Meagan Swingle is in her sixth year as a member of the Atlanta Braves Public Relations staff. Swingle joined the Braves in January 2000 as a Corporate Sales trainee and accepted a full time position in the Public Relations department in January 2001.

Swingle grew up in the South Georgia town of Jesup, but she originally hails from Washington State. She graduated Magna Cum Laude from Clemson University in December 1999, with a degree in Speech and Communication and a minor in Journalism.

Swingle volunteers with the Braves "Tomahawk Tutors" program, mentoring students at D.H. Stanton Elementary in Atlanta. She resides in East Atlanta, and also serves as a mentor for the East Atlanta Kids Club.

Adrienne Midgley • Administrative Assistant

Adrienne Midgley is in her third season with the Braves Public relations staff and her first as Administrative Assistant. She is responsible for coordinating media credentials and providing administrative support to the director and the department.

Prior to joining the Braves organization as a trainee in 2004 she worked for the Los Angeles Dodgers organization in Vero Beach, Fla., where she was the Spring Training intern and then continued as the Administrative Assistant with the Single-A Vero Beach Dodgers. Adrienne previously worked at the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, in 2003 as the Membership Department intern. From 1999 to 2002, she was a member of the Methodist College Sports Information Department.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Adrienne earned her masters degree in sport administration from Georgia State University in Atlanta, Ga., and her bachelor's degree in sports management from Methodist College in Fayetteville, NC.

Adrienne and her husband Richard Dombrowsky reside in Buford, Ga.

Media Services

Media Credentials: Credentials will be issued only to legitimate news gathering agencies that have contacted the Public Relations Department at least 24 hours in advance of their assignment. To obtain media credentials, a written request must be made to the Braves' Public Relatons Department (P.O. Box 4064, Atlanta, GA 30302) on appropriate letterhead stationery. Please specify the name(s) and function of the individual(s) being sent to cover the game. Identification will be required before credentials can be distributed. Credentials may be picked up at the Media Window located at the Southwest Gate of Turner Field on Bill Lucas Drive. Both the Media Window and Entrance open three hours prior to the game. Credentials are not issued to anyone under 18 years of age. Any party abusing this policy will forfeit their credential and all privileges.

Media Parking: Limited parking for the media is available in the Media Lot. The entrance to the Media Lot is located on the corner of Crew Street and Little Street (Little Street is off of Hank Aaron Drive, one block south of Bill Lucas Drive, directly behind the stadium). For further information, please contact a member of the Public Relations Department.

Media Entrance: The Media Entrance to Turner Field is located at the Southwest Gate, on Bill Lucas Drive near Pollard Boulevard. This is the side of the stadium farthest from downtown Atlanta, nearest the expressway. To obtain admittance to the stadium, members of the media must show one of the follwing: a Major League Baseball Working Pass, BBWAA card or an Atlanta Braves season/daily credential.

Press Box: The Turner Field Press Box is located on the Press Level. A 40-foot walkway leads directly from the Press elevator to the entrance to the Press Box. The Press Box can accommodate 104 individuals. Credit card telephones are located on the tabletops of the Press Box and in the workroom, located directly behind the Press Box. Dining facilities are located in the Press Area. Live shots and still photographs are prohibited from the Press area. Proper credentials are required for admittance.

Clubhouses: Take the Press Elevator to the service level. Walk straight ahead down the corridor, turn left to the main tunnel. The Braves clubhouse entrance is about 150 feet to the right, the Vistiors Clubhouse is to the left. Both clubhouses are closed to the media 45 minutes prior to and during the game. Following the game, the clubhouses re-open to the media within 10 minutes after the last out. The trainer's room, weight room and players' lounge are closed to the media at all times. Proper credentials must be displayed to access either clubhouse. Still Photographers are not permitted in the clubhouse without special permission. The clubhouses are limited to credentialed working media only.

Field: Enter the field via the Field Access corridor off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. The field and dugout areas must be cleared 45 minutes prior to first pitch. Pregame broadcast interviews and live shots must be done on the warning track or in the dugout. Postgame live shots can be done from the warning track after the teams have left the field.

Dark Rooms: Reserved dark rooms are located across from the Braves clubhouse, next to the Braves family room, on the service level.

Photo Areas: A limited number of still photographer field level positions is available, subject to team discretion. There are also upper level wells and outfield locations. The Field Access corridor is off the main tunnel between the Braves and Visitors clubhouses. Still photographers are not permitted in the clubhouses without special permission.

Broadcast Booths: Located in the Press Box. There are seven broadcast booths: Booth 1 (Home TV), Booth 2 (Home Radio), Booth 3 (Visiting TV), Booth 4 (Visiting Radio), Booth 5 (Reserved), Booth 6 (Reserved), Booth 7 (Reserved). To obtain use of a reserved booth, please contact Sue Vandiver in the Public Relations department.

2006 Braves Radio/TV

The Atlanta Braves, TBS, Turner South, FSN South, and the Braves Radio Network WGST-AM (640) and WKLS-FM (96.1) will team up in 2006 to bring Braves' fans the best and most comprehensive sports broadcasting in Major League Baseball. TBS, or its predecessor, WTCG, has been carrying Braves games since 1973. TBS reaches more than 90 million homes. FSN South, in more than eleven million homes, has broadcast select Braves regular-season and spring training games on a southeastern regional basis the past 13 seasons. WGST-AM (640)/WKLS-FM (96.1), as the Atlanta Braves radio rightsholder, will carry all 162 regular-season games and 14 spring training games. The Braves Radio Network includes approximately 150 affiliates.

Braves Broadcasters

Skip Caray

The 2006 Major League Baseball season marks Skip Caray's 31st calling games for the Atlanta Braves on TBS. In addition, Caray serves as an analyst for Braves coverage, for the seventh consecutive year on Turner South, Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s regional entertainment network.

In 2004, Caray was inducted into the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame, along with fellow Braves announcer Pete Van Wieren. Caray is also the voice of the Braves on WGST-AM (640) and WLKS-FM (96.1) radio. In 2000, Atlanta Mayor Bill Campbell declared July 30th "Skip Caray and Pete Van Wieren Day" in honor of their 25 years of broadcasting Braves games.

Caray was nominated for a 1994 Cable ACE Award in the Sports Play-By-Play category. He joined Turner Broadcasting system, Inc. (TBS) in 1972 as the voice of the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and was added to the Braves telecasts in 1976. He was play-by-play announcer for the first two seasons (1990 and 1991) of TNT's Sunday night NFL coverage and served as play-by-play announcer for baseballl on TBS' coverage of the 1990 Goodwill Games.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for NBC's Major League Baseball Playoff coverage in 2000. Caray came to broadcasting naturally as the son of Harry Caray, the former Chicago Cubs Hall-of-Fame play-by-play announcer. Skip began his broadcasting career at KMOX-Radio in St. Louis, Mo., as host of a 15-minute high school sports show and as a sportscaster for high school basketball games. He later joined his father as a color commentator for University of Missouri football.

He began broadcasting baseball for the Tulsa Oilers of the Southern League in 1963. He also has announced for the Atlanta Crackers in baseball's Southern League and basketball for St. Louis University. He joined the NBA's St. Louis Hawks broadcasting team in 1967, moving to Atlanta with the team the following year.

Caray has called everything from Goodwill Games baseball and motoball to primetime college football and Atlanta Flames hockey.

He has been recognized with six Georgia Sportscaster-of-the Year awards from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association, as well as a Georgia-area Emmy.

He devotes many hours to volunteer work, serving as a board member of Camp Twin Lakes, a camp for children with special needs and works with the Hemophilia Association.

Born in St. Louis, Caray is a graduate of the University of Missouri, with honors in journalism. Skip and his wife, Paula, live in Atlanta. They have four children: Chip, Cindy, Shayelyn and Josh.

Pete Van Wieren

The 2006 Major League Baseball season marks Van Wieren's 31st as a play-by-play announcer for the Atlanta Braves on TBS, tying him with Skip Caray for seniority on the Braves announcing team. In addition, Van Wieren calls the action for the Braves games on Turner South, Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s regional entertainment network. This is the sixth consecutive year Van Wieren will call games on Turner South.

In 2004, Van Wieren was inducted into the Atlanta Braves Hall of Fame, along with fellow announcer Skip Caray. Van Wieren also serves as the Atlanta Braves play-by-play announcer for WGST-AM (640) and WKLS-FM (96.1). In 2000, Atlanta Mayor Bill Campbell declared July 30th "Skip Caray and Pete Van Wieren Day" in honor of their 25 years of broadcasting Braves games.

Since joining the network in 1975, he has covered the Atlanta Flames of the National Hockey League, the Hawks and the Atlanta Falcons NFL pre-season football. He also served as a sports reporter for CNN and served as a play-by-play announcer on TBS's Big Ten Conference college football games.

Prior to joining Turner, he began his broadcasting career working as the play-by-play man for the Tidewater Tides of the International League for two years. He has also broadcast hockey, college and professional basketball and college and professional football. He also has been a sportscaster for WDHO-TV, Toledo, Ohio; WNBF-AM/FM/TV and WINR-AM/TV, both in Binghamton, NY; WPRW-AM/FM, Manassas, Va.; and WEER-AM/FM, Warrenton, Va.

Van Wieren, who was born in Rochester, NY, attended Cornell University. He won his eighth Georgia Sportscaster of the Year Award from the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association in 1994, marking the seventh consecutive year he won the honor (1980, 1988-94). He was dubbed Atlanta's Favorite Sportscaster in 1977 by the Atlanta Journal.

Pete and his wife Elaine live in Alpharetta, Ga. They have two children, Steven and Jon.

Don Sutton

Hall-of-Fame pitcher Don Sutton joined Turner Sports as an analyst for Braves telecasts on TBS during the 1989 season, after a stellar playing career that spanned 23 seasons. In addition, for the seventh consecutive year, Sutton serves as a broadcaster for Braves games televised on Turner South, Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s regional entertainment network.

He has also served as a course reporter on TBS's professional golf coverage, working the Hawaiian Open, PGA Championship and PGA Grand Slam of Golf, as well as TNT's coverage of the Sarazen World Open Championship.

His network broadcasting experience included pre- and post-game analysis for NBC's 1987 League Championship series coverage.

His Major League Baseball pitching career was highlighted by 324 wins with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Houston Astros, Milwaukee Brewers and California Angels. Sutton spent 15 seasons with the Dodgers, beginning in 1966. He joined the Astros as a free agent in 1981. Sutton was traded to Milwaukee in August 1982, where he pitched three seasons before being traded to Oakland in December 1984. He was traded to California in September 1985 and retired in January 1988.

One of the most durable pitchers of the modern era, appearing in more than 750 games and completing nearly 180 during his career, Sutton's personal bests included 21 wins (1976), 293 innings pitched (1969), 41 games (1969), 2.21 ERA (1980 - led NL), 40 starts (1974), 217 strikeouts (1969) and 18 complete games (1972), all with the Dodgers.

Sutton ranks seventh on baseball's all-time strikeout list with 3,574. Sutton was 4-1 with a 2.02 ERA in seven League Championship Series games, and 2-3 with a 5.26 ERA in eight World Series games. In the 1974 postseason, he was 3-0 with a 1.50 ERA and 25 strikeouts in four games. He also posted a 1-0 record in four all-star appearances without allowing a run.

Sutton was elected into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in January 1998. He was named National League Rookie-of-the-Year by Sporting News in 1966, going 12-12 with a 2.99 ERA and 209 strikeouts for the Dodgers. He was named the Texas League Player-of-the-Year in 1965 at Albuquerque with 15-6 record and 2.78 ERA.

Born in Clio, Ala., Don, his wife Mary and their daughter, Jacqueline, reside in Alpharetta, Ga. Don has two other children, Daron and Staci.

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson, who joined Turner Sports in 1992, is in his 15th season as a TBS announcer for the Atlanta Braves. In addition, he works as an analyst for Braves coverage on Turner South, Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.'s regional network. This year marks the seventh consecutive year he will call games on Turner South. Simpson also calls Braves games for WGST-AM (640) and WKLS-FM (96.1).

Simpson played professionally for 11 seasons, beginning in 1973 when he was drafted by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the third round. He joined the Seattle Mariners in 1979 before being traded to the Kansas City Royals in 1983. An outfielder and first baseman throughout his professional career, he retired from the California Angels organization following the 1984 season. He had his best season in 1979 when he hit .283 in 120 games for the Mariners. Simpson worked as an analyst on Seattle Mariners telecasts for five years before joining Turner Sports. Simpson was named "Georgia Sports Broadcaster of the Year" in 1995.

An All-American outfielder and first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson was born in Purcell, Oklahoma.

Joe and his wife Kathy live in Marietta, Ga. They have two children, Meg and Gabe.

Chip Caray

The 2006 season marks Chip Caray's second season as a play-by-play announcer for TBS and Turner South's Major League Baseball coverage.

Caray served as the play-by-play announcer for seven seasons (1998-2004) for Chicago Cubs games on WGN. His baseball resume also includes one season as the radio play-by-play announcer for Minnesota's Orlando (AA) affiliate in 1990, two years (1991-92) broadcasting the Atlanta Braves and three campaigns (1993-95) with the Seattle Mariners.

Caray spent five years (1996-2000) as a member of the Fox Network's Saturday baseball coverage, including three years as a studio host.

He is the third generation of Carays to serve as a play-by-play announcer, after his father Skip and grandfather Harry, who was the play-by-play voice of the Cubs from 1982 to 1997. A member of the Hall of Fame, Harry spent 53 seasons as a major league broadcaster. On May 13, 1991, the three generations of Carays worked together on a Chicago Cubs/Atlanta Braves game.

Chip's broadcast career also includes nine seasons as the television play-by-play voice of the NBA's Orlando Magic and stints calling both University of Florida and Florida State University football and basketball games for the Sunshine Network.

Caray graduated from the University of Georgia in 1987 and began his career with weekend TV sports anchor stints in Panama City, Fla., and Greensboro, NC.

He and his wife Susan have three children: Summerlyn, Christopher and Stefan.

2006 Braves TBS SAP Broadcasters

Pete Manzano

Pete Manzano is his fifth season broadcasting the TBS games in Spanish. He began his career in his native Puerto Rico in 1963. His radio background includes calls of the 1976 Olympic Games in Montreal and Winter League Baseball in Puerto Rico. His television experience includes broadcasts of world championship boxing and serving as sportscaster at WAPA-TV in Puerto Rico.

Manzano was part of the Braves International Radio Network broadcasting team from 1992 to 1995. From 1991 through 1995, Manzano worked for a joint venture between the Braves and CNN as a broadcaster for the International Radio Network.

Manzano, who resides in Jonesboro, Ga., has four children: Pedro Jose, Manuel Antonio, Pedro Antonio, and April Ann.

Fernando Palacios

Fernando Palacios is in his fourth season as part of the TBS SAP broadcasting team. Palacios was a catcher for three and a half years in the Boston Red Sox farm system under the supervision of Bill Slack, Dick Bernardino and Darrel Johnson.

In his homeland Puerto Rico, he was a member of the Caguas Criollos Baseball Club, the 1973-74 Puerto Rican Winter Baseball League and Caribbean Series Champions under the leadership of former big leaguer Bobby Wine. He also participated in the same league with the Arecibo Wolves BC under the managerial team of Jack McKeon and Steve Boros.

Palacios graduated from El Pilar High School in Puerto Rico, where he played basketball, baseball and volleyball. He earned MVP honors in basketball and baseball in his junior and senior years, leading both teams to their respective championships. He was the recipient of the athlete of the year award in his senior year.

He and his wife Norma reside in McDonough, Ga., and have five children: Fernando Karlo, Alexandra, Veronica, Rafael and Daniel.

2006 Braves FOX Sports Net South Broadcasters

Bob Rathbun

Bob Rathbun is in his 10th year in the booth for FSN South and the Braves. He also works on the Atlanta Hawks telecasts with Mark Price and Grant Long.

He began his career as sports director for WSTP Radio in Salisbury, N.C., in 1973. Bob has called college baseball, basketball and football for over 10 years including CBS's 1996 NCAA Men's Basketball, ESPN's 1996 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament and ESPN's 1995 College World Series. Other broadcast experience includes Baltimore Orioles telecasts, ACC men's basketball and Washington Bullets basketball for Home Team Sports. Rathbun has also done play-by-play for the Tidewater Tides, Detroit Tigers and the Richmond Braves. He is a six-time Virginia Sportscaster of the Year, as voted by the National Sportcasters and Sportswriters Association. Rathbun was honored with his first Georgia Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1998.

Bob and his wife Marybeth reside in Dunwoody, Ga. They have two children, Court and Grace.

Jeff Torborg

Former major league manager Jeff Torborg is in his first year as the analyst for FSN South's Atlanta Braves telecasts.

Torborg most recently was an analyst on the FOX Saturday Game of the Week broadcasts during the 2004 and 2005 seasons, a position he also held from 1997 to 2001. He was a broadcaster for CBS Radio and CBS Sports' coverage of Major League Baseball from 1994 to 1997, where he received much critical praise. In addition to CBS Radio's regular-season Sunday night broadcasts, Torborg worked the MLB All-Star Game, plus the Divisional and League Championship Series and the World Series, alongside legendary play-by-play voice Vin Scully.

After a 10-year career as a major league catcher (Los Angeles Dodgers, 1964-71; California Angels, 1971-73), Torborg spent a year away from the game before returning as a coach with the Cleveland Indians (1975-77). He became the Indians' manager in 1977, where he remained until 1979.

From 1979 to 1988, Torborg was a coach with the New York Yankees (1981 American League champions), and in 1989, assumed the managerial role with the Chicago White Sox, where he went on to earn MLB Manager of the Year honors in 1990. He returned to New York to manage the Mets in 1992, and remained there until May of 1993.

After his tenure as a broadcaster, Torborg returned to the field to manage the Montreal Expos in 2001, then took the same post with the Florida Marlins in 2002 and 2003.

Torborg played on the Dodgers' 1965 World Series and 1966 National League pennant-winning teams. His career was also highlighted by catching three no-hitters (Sandy Koufax's perfect game in 1965, and Bill Singer in 1970 - both with the Dodgers; Nolan Ryan in 1973 with the Angels), putting him one shy of the major league record. Torborg also caught the Dodgers' Don Drysdale's then-MLB record of 58.2 scoreless innings.

Torborg was twice named a National League All-Star (1964 & 1967) as a player and appeared in the "Midsummer Classic" three times as a coach (1977, '78, '90).

Torborg earned a B.S. in education from Rutgers and has a master's degree in athletic administration from Montclair State. As a collegian, Torborg was a two-time All-American catcher. He led the nation in batting his senior season (1963), and his .537 average stood for many years as an NCAA record. He is a member of the Rutgers Athletic Hall of Fame.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until Sept. 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining Winning Percentage: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings of the closest opponent.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 IP.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Major League Service: A full year of service in the Major Leagues is 172 days.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a twi-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Disabled Lists

15-Day Disabled List: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-Day Disabled List: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

Regulation Game

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after is starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceeding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Turner Field Ground Rules

Dugouts: Dugouts are bounded by guard rails and any ball hitting guard rails or netting is IN PLAY. Ball hitting netting on home plate side of either dugout is IN PLAY. Ball hitting facing over either dugout is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Catch may be made in either dugout.

Backstop: Ball lodging in padding is dead - ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder.

Canvas on Tarp Drum: Catch may be made on canvas - Ball lodged behind or under canvas is dead. ONE BASE on pitch and TWO BASES on throw by a fielder. Batted ball lodging behind or under canvas - TWO BASES.

Foul Poles: Ball hitting any part of screen area supported by poles down left or right field line - HOME RUN.

Outfield Fence: Batted ball going over yellow line on top of outfield fence - HOME RUN.

Major League Waiver Rule

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 11 to November 10 with three waiver periods within each year.

First Waiver Period: November 11 to 30th day of subsequent regular season.

Second Waiver Period: 31st day of regular season to July 31.

Third Waiver Period: August 1 to November 10.

To make a trade with a National or American League Club, major league waivers are required only from August 1 until the day following the close of the regular season. Waivers are not required during any other time of year.

The contract of a player placed on waivers may be claimed by any other major league club. If a claim is made and the club requesting waivers does not withdraw the request, the contract shall be assigned to the claiming club. If more than one club in the same league files a claim, assignment shall be made to the claiming club of the lowest standing in the league. If claiming clubs are in different leagues, the preference for the waiver claim shall always go to clubs in the same league as the requesting club and to the claiming club of the lowest standing in that league.

Major League Waivers may be requested prior to 2:00 P.M. est., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and claims may be filed until 2:00 P.M. on the third business day following the date of the waiver request. If no claims are filed, the secured waivers are in effect through the close of the particular waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers may be requested at any time without restriction.

Special Waivers (Sept. 1 to 30th day of subsequent regular season) or Outright Waivers (31st day of regular season to Aug. 31) must be secured prior to making an outright assignment of a player contract to a National Association Club. If secured, Special Waivers are in effect for seven calendar days and Outright Waivers are in effect until the close of the waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers, Special Waivers and Outright Waivers are irrevocable and may not be withdrawn after they have been requested.

In some cases, Major League Waivers must be secured prior to the optional assignment of a player contract to the National Association. Generally, waivers are required as of the third anniversary of the date the player first reported for Major League service, less one year for each option charged to the player at the time he first reported.

BRUCE SUTTER ELECTED TO THE HALL OF FAME

Former Atlanta Braves relief pitcher Bruce Sutter was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame by the Baseball Writers' Association of America on January 10, 2006. Sutter received 400 votes out of 520 ballots cast (76.9%) in his thirteenth year of eligibility. Sutter spent three seasons in Atlanta (1985-1986, 1988) and will be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown on July 30, 2006.

BRAVES IN THE HALL OF FAME

A total of 44 players, managers and executives with ties to the Boston/Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves organization have earned election to the National Baseball Hall of Fame. Eight of those 44 spent a majority of their careers in a Braves uniform including Hank Aaron (1954-1974), Hugh Duffy (1892-1900), Rabbit Maranville (1912-1920, 1929-1933, 1935), Eddie Mathews (1952-1966), Kid Nichols (1890-1901), Phil Niekro (1964-1983, 1987), Warren Spahn (1942, 1946-1964) and Vic Willis (1898-1905). For a complete list of Boston/Milwaukee/Atlanta Braves in the Hall of Fame, visit the "Hall of Famers" team pages at www.baseballhalloffame.org.
